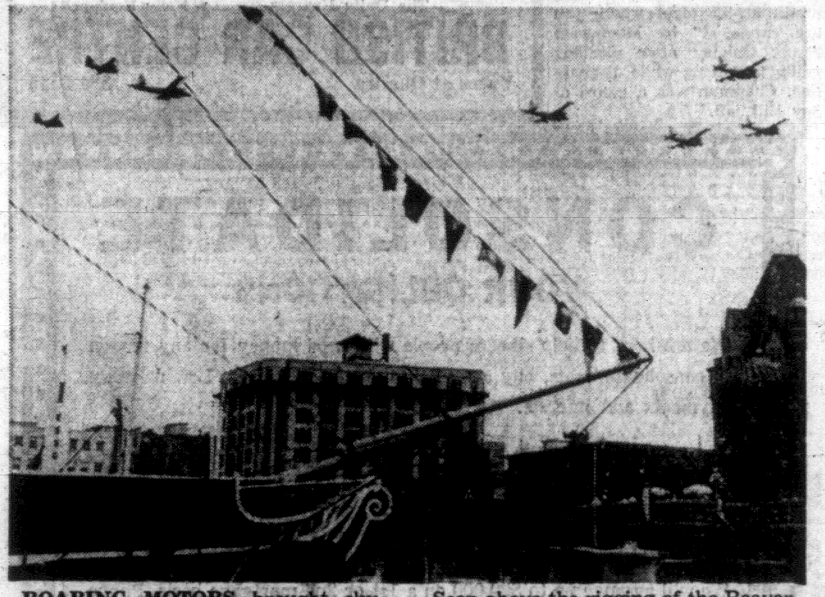
STAGE IS SET but curtain of haze hid much of the opening act of the three-navy show which began in Royal Roads this morning. Twenty-five ships of Canadian, Japanese and U.S. navies, Coast Guard and auxiliary vessels formed up for review by Lieut.-Gov. George Pearkes. Canadian destroyers are nearest camera. Tonight at same anchorage, the ships will be illuminated, RCAF Centennaires will provide aerobatic display at 8:30 p.m. and at 10:15 a fireworks display will begin.



ROARING MOTORS brought skyward glances this morning as Neptune and Tracker aircraft of Canada's Pacific Forces eased into formation for fleet review at Royal Roads. Hees Making Big Pitch To Woo Tory Delegates

By KEN CLARK

OTTAWA (CP)—George Hees has made a sharp strategy switch to capture votes in his final campaign push towards the Sept. 6-9 Conservatvie leadership convention in Toronto.

The 57-year-old leadership candidate has bolstered his organization with a strong corps of professionals to help make a direct pitch to convention delegates.

His earlier strategy was to develop a more broadly-based popular support with the hope this would influence delegates. The campaign arrangements were made by amateurs.

The former cabinet minister told a capital news conference his new approach will cost a "helluva lot" of money, but it has to be done. Under the new approach Mr. Hees will make direct appeals for support at meetings of likely delegates and alternates in a final eight-week pre-convention drive.

FINAL DRIVE for leadership of Progressive Conservative Party has brought a change in tactics by George Hees, shown right, with campaign manager Robert Macaulay. (CP Wirephoto.)

He termed the new look an "entirely different" campaign, a more intensive effort reminiscent of a party leader before a general election.

HAS NEW STAFF

His campaign manager, Robert Macaulay, a former Ontario cabinet minister out of politics for four years, said the candidate has more than 140 persons in a national organization for the latest drive.

There are 47 on the headquarters staff in Toronto. Of these 25 are fulltime people, not necessarily paid. All told, 12 in the national organization are paid.

The 46-year-old Macaulay said the campaign staff will grow even more.

Both men refused to be drawn into any discussion of the other six candidates in the race or about present leader John Diefenbaker, who has not yet committed himself.

The Cape Breton Post said Tuesday night that Premier Robert Stanfield of Nova Scotia will also enter the PC national leadership race. Mr. Stanfield

Mist Clouds Sailpast

By TERRY IZZARD

The color was washed out of today's Centennial Naval assembly by the weatherman.

Grey skies and a chilly mist welcomed Lieutenant-Governor Pearkes as he inspected the 25 warships anchored off Royal Roads.

When the lieutenant governor boarded the research vessel Endeavor at 9:30 the skies cleared temporarily to bathe the Inner Harbor in a watery light.

But an hour later as the Endeavor began to pass through the row of grey ships the weather had fogged in for the morning.

Although the ships were within a two-square mile area, it was impossible for most of the time to see further than the nearest line of vessels.

★ ★ ★

A number of spectators who had lined the shore for the event were unable to see further than the ship nearest to them.

Nevertheless the ships managed to add color to the scene as guns of three navies flashed out a 15 gun salute.

First report to boom across the water came from the Esquimalt-based destroyer escort Mackenzie, followed by the USS King and Japanese defence ship Teruzuki.

The lieutenant governor, resplendent in topper and tails, acknowledged the three cheers from each flag-bedecked ship with a wave of his hand.

★ ★ ★

One of the best shows was put on by the smallest vessel in the assembly, the sailing ship Oriole, with cadets sitting atop her masts to wave their caps to the inspecting vessel.

Aboard the Endeavor was an impressive list of guests which included eight admirals — all but two retired.

Also present was federal Labor Minister John Nicholson, representing the federal government.

The guests lunched aboard the Endeavor following the inspection.

In addition to the show of force on the water there was a flyover of Neptune and tracker aircraft.

Due to the lowlying mist the planes disappeared from view entirely as they headed over Race Rocks for a second run.

MOSCOW MEETING

Arabs Fail In War Bid

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Premier Houari Boumedienne of Algeria and President Abdel Rahman Aref of Iraq, the latest Arab pilgrims to Moscow, have apparently failed to win Soviet backing for new military action soon against Israel.

A communique issued in Moscow after Boumedienne and Aref flew back to Cairo Tuesday said they exchanged opinions with Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev and Premier Alexei Kosygin on how to bring about an Israeli withdrawal from Arab land seized in the June war. But the absence of any claim of agreement strongly suggested the Arabs and Soviets disagreed on how to do it.

The most militant Arab voices were represented by Boumedienne, who has not accepted the UN ceasefire and who has been urging Palestinian Arabs to wage guerrilla warfare against Israel, Aref is considered a moderate.

In Cairo Boumedienne and Aref met Egyptian President Nasser and Sudanese Premier Mohammed Ahmed Mahgoub into the early hours today to discuss the Moscow talks.

The Russians sent a letter Tuesday to the UN Security Council president charging Israel with creating a situation in the Suez Canal area "that could develop into a wider military conflict."

ABANDONING DEMAND?

The letter, which followed an Israeli claim that it has the right to patrol the canal by boat, was considered an indication that the Soviets were abandoning their attempt to get a resolution demanding Israeli withdrawal through the emergency session of the UN General Assemby.

The assembly, which was called by Russia, has frustrated Russian hopes for a condemnation of Israel as the aggressor in the June war. The assembly reconvenes Thursday after a three-day recess. (See page 3.)

START SEARCH FOR WEAPONS

PLAINFIELD, N.J. (UPI)—National gaurdsmen with fixed bayonets rumbled in jeeps into the Negro area of Plainfield today in a house-to-house search for weapons. Negro leaders had said such a search could bring on new racial violence. (See Page 2.)

U.S. Keeps Watch On Eastern Moves

WASHINGTON (AP) — State Secretary Dean Rusk said today the United States regrets Britain's decision to cut its defence commitments in the Far East by the mid-1970s, but warned the Communists not to "take any comfort" from the British announcement.

Rusk told a press conference that the countries in that part of the world are determined to defend their freedom and they have the help of various nations including the United States, and he added:

"We'll get on with the job."

Rusk also said:

1. The United States still hopes to get an agreed limitation—with Russia and others—on the arms buildup in the Middle East, but "I cannot say that I am encouraged about the prospects."

2. The United States is prepared to try to find points of agreement with the Soviet Union whether they be on small issues such as cultural exchanges or world crisis such as Vietnam and the Midlde East. But, he said, the United States has no illusions of easy accords nor does it misjudge "the depth and importance of the matters which separate us."

3. The United States and the South Vietnamese government are making progress in their fight against Communist conquest of South Vietnam, and Rusk said the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong guerrilla forces are being hurt "very badly." But he made clear that he does not see any way out of the conflict in the predictable future, saying "no one" has been able to tell the U.S. government what North Vietnam would do if the United States stopped bombing the North.

4. The problem of providing guarantees to China's neighbors against nuclear attack now that China has exploded a hydrogen bomb will "no doubt" come up in the continuing disarmament conference at Geneva and perhaps in the United Nations Security Council. Rusk would not spell out the U.S. policy on guarantees.

Mid-Air Crash Kills 81

HENDERSONVILLE, N.C. (UPI) — Eighty-one persons, including United States Secretary of the Navy John T. McNaughton, were killed today when a jetliner collided with a smaller craft and spiraled to earth, raining bodies into homes, gas stations and summer camps.

The ill-fated jetliner was Piedmont Airlines Flight 22, a Boeing 727, bound from Atlanta to Washington with 73 passengers and a crew of five.

Three other persons died aboard the smaller craft, a twin engine Cessna, owned by Lanseair Inc., of Springfield, Mo., a company dealing in aviation insurance.

SCREAMED TO EARTH

The big jet screamed to earth in flames, narrowly missing a busy highway interchange and two boys' camps. A mangled body hurtled into a filling station and another plunged to earth a few yards from a cabin at the Blue Ridge Boys' School.

Officials at the school and at Pinewood Camp, for boys and girls, said the plane hurtled overhead before crashing.

With the new navy secretary, appointed June 10, were his wife, Sally, and their son, Theodore, 11. They were returning from a trip to Weaversville, N.C., where they had picked up Theodore at a summer camp.

PASSENGER aboard plane which crashed in North Carolina today was John T. McNaughton, U.S. Secretary of the Navy. He was with his wife and their son, Theodore, 11, whom they had picked up at a summer camp. McNaughton, 45, had been an educator, lawyer and newspaper editor.

FORMER EDITOR

McNaughton, 45, a former educator, attorney, newspaper columnist and editor, had been assistant secretary of defence for international security affairs since July 1, 1964.

On June 10, President Johnson nominated him to succeed Paul Nitze, as secretary of the navy.

The jetliner had just taken off from the airport, according to Flaughn Land, a witness, when "the big jet and a small twin-engined aircraft approached each other.

"The small plane ripped into the fuselage of the jet and back of the left wing," he said. "The small twin-engine plane exploded.

"The jet started to nose downward and I could see bodies falling out of the fuselage

FOREIGN MINISTER KILLED

TANANARIVE, Malagasy Republic (Reuters) — An estimated 55 persons, including Malagasy Foreign Minister Albert Sylla, were killed when an Air Madagascar plane crashed near here today, informed sources said.

The plane, a DC-4, crashed as it took off from the Tananarive Airport, about nine miles from this capital, on a local flight to the north of the country.

It was carrying 77 persons, including a crew of four.

It crashed about 300 yards from the end of a new runway opened June 25.

Bodies were strewn over the ground in the swampy area where the plane came down. All four crew members were among the dead.

Verdict Due On Tshombe

ALGIERS (Reuters) — The Algerian Supreme Court today completed its hearing on whether former Congolese Premier Moise Tshombe should be sent back to The Congo, where he faces a death sentence for treason.

Government-controlled Algiers radio announced that a decision on the case was expected later today.

Lost City of Atlantis Buried by Volcanic Ash?

BOSTON (AP) — The Greek philosopher Plato started the legend of Atlantis with tales of a huge and glittering island continent which sank violently into the Atlantic 3,500 years ago.

Two Massachusetts scientists said Tuesday they may have discovered Atlantis—not submerged in the Atlantic but buried under tons of volcanic ash on a tiny island in the Aegean Sea near Greece.

The report was made by Dr. James W. Mavor Jr. of the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institute and Emily Vermeule, a research fellow at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

Their nomination for the seat of the Atlantis civilization is the island of Thira, 60 miles north of the island of Crete and southeast of Greece.

In his writings, Plato told of a race of conquerors from Atlantis which almost overran the Mediterranean and finally was defeated by Athens.

Then, in a single day and night, their island home sank into the sea.

For 30 years, scientists have believed that most of Plato's tale was fanciful but that an advanced civilization which gave him his theme did exist and did suffer a sudden and violent end, probably by being buried by a volcanic eruption.

Scientists have speculated, however, that Atlantis was not in the Atlantic but was part of the Minoan civilization which flourished about 1,500 B.C. and had its capital at the palace city of Knossos on Crete.

Following a hunch that the Minoan civilization could have jumped the 60 miles to Thira, Dr. Mavor and Mrs. Vermeule, working with a Greek-American expedition, began digging on the island this year.

They said they found, buried under 30 to 50 feet of volcanic ash, the remains of a city of about 30,000 persons. They said most of the buildings, some two or three storeys high, are still intact.

Dr. Mavor and Mrs. Vermuele said they believe Thira may have been Plato's Atlantis because of the evidence that a very advanced civilization existed there and because it apparently came to a sudden, violent end.

Mrs. Vermeule said the expedition found no human remains and concluded that the inhabitants had a warning about the coming eruption "and got in their boats and left."

She said remains of animals were found.

The Greek-American expedition plans to continue its work over a 10-year period at a cost of about $1,000,000.

ENTRIES STARTING TO COME IN

'It's a Snap' to Enter Contest

Those shutters are beginning to click already.

The Times Amateur Snapshot contest is only four days old but entries in all three categories are coming in steadily.

Top prize in the six-week competition is a trip around the world plus $1,000 spending money.

Locally, The Times is offering $10 each week for the best black and white pictures in the three categories, People of the World, The World in Which We Live, and Birds and Animals of the World.

At the end of the contest best overall picture in each category will win a $25 prize plus entry in the national competitions.

Besides the world trip four other travel prizes are being offered: trips to Europe, Mexico, Hawaii and the West Indies, all for two and all with spending money in the bargain.

There are special prizes for Canadians this year.

Seven $100 prizes are offered for pictures which did not win any major prizes and there is a $200 prize for the best Canadian picture in the show.

Judges are Times photographer Bill Halkett and drama critic Audrey Johnson.

All pictures submitted should be black and white, and no larger than 10 inches on the longer dimension.

Pictures may be processed professionally or by the person taking the snapshot. Pictures taken since July 1 last year are eligible.

All entries must be in the hands of the Times Photo Contest Editor before noon on the Saturday to be eligible for that week's contest.

A complete set of rules will be published from time to time in this newspaper.

ROUND-A-BOUT

By DOUGLAS HILLSIDE

"We would like to enquire about shipping a quantity of granite from England," we told the Furness-Withy man.

"How much granite?" said the very British voice in the Vancouver bastion of the shipping empire.

"One hundred and thirty thousand tons," we said.

"I see," he said. There was a muffled background conversation and he added, "We could handle it. How soon would you like it?"

His scratchpad calculations involved a rate of £17 6d for the first four tons and 10s a ton for each additional. We worked it out to $195,345.18 on our scratchpad. Then we asked about a better deal.

He said a price could be negotiated through the shipping conference. But perhaps we'd like to charter a ship.

At that point we learned that we might not need to bring all of the 130,000-ton London Bridge to Victoria, but only 10,000 tons for facing material.

The Furness-Withy man said he'd send a message to their New York office and call us back.

We hung up to await his call. Then we turned to a desk mate to borrow a dime for a cuppa coffee.

Proof that you're never too old if you've got the willpower . . . Col. G. G. Brown, who commanded the PPCLI First Battalion here in recent years, has just qualified as a paratrooper, in his late 40s. The unit is at Edmonton.

Another ex-Victorian suggests you are never too old to change your ideas. Johnny "Dal" Johnson who once chaired Victoria Socreds and lost a bid as an MLA, will seek a Tory seat in St. Thomas,Ont., in the next federal election.

Some drunks reach a moment of truth when they hate themselves and then take out their frustrations on the nearest window. But this fellow only added to his feeling of futility.

Standing before a downtown store, he hefted a case of beer in his right hand, took aim and went into a swift backswing. But the bottom of the carton was wet. Twelve bottles of beer shot into the gutter with a crash. And the soggy carton plopped harmlessly against the window. Then he was plopped into the paddy wagon. Some days nothing goes right.

There's an agent in town advertising an "authentic" Tudor residence. If authentic means the real McCoy, it must have been built 176 years or so before Fort Victoria, which would make it a real buy. Of course, he could mean a Tudor residence with one door at front and one door at rear.

You get 5,000 ship-weary seamen rolling ashore and you can expect some shenanigans as a rule. (We make this statement from our own experiences in foreign ports.)

But we've been pleasantly surprised during the current visit of American and Japanese ships and the in-port status of our own ships.

Police blotters are almost spotless in this regard. And Admiral J. A. Charles reports no troubles have reached his ear. He says all three navies are greatly impressed by the reception given the visitors by the people of Victoria.

We heard from some civilian tourists from the south that because there isn't full support in this area for the United States involvement in Vietnam, leave for American sailors had been curtailed in Victoria.

This is another false impression the navy reports. Our own observations are that there are as many U.S. sailors about as there are Japanese and Canadian. We are content that our expectations and the suspicions of our U.S. tourist friends were both wrong.

like confetti." Another witness said a ball of fire burst from the jetliner when the small plane hit it.

A large chunk of the plane fell into a field near the Blue Ridge school. Richard Forstot, 15, said there were bodies lying beside it.

Mike Moll, 17, another student at the school, said he heard a "boom" and looked out his window and saw a plane overhead, "swinging crazily."

"I saw the back end with jets on it slump to the right and then there was another explosion and it started down nose first at a steep angle. When it hit the ground there was a big ball of fire. Then there was a lot of smoke."

IN WOODED AREA

Most of the plane crashed into a wooded area. More than an hour later, flames were leaping 1,000 feet into the air from the wreckage.

The fuselage crashed only about 60 yards from the interchange of Interstate 26 and U.S. 64. Thousands of motorists halted their cars and flocked to the scene, forcing workers to throw up rope barricades.

Pinesett Howard, a taxi driver, said he was sitting at a red light in downtown Hendersonville, three miles away, when "I noticed this little plane and it appeared to be heading right into the side of a jet, which was taking off."

"The planes smashed together in what looked like a big red ball. The jet nosed over and started spiraling around and around as it fell to earth.

"It came down at an angle and went down behind some buildings and trees beyond my sight. The little plane just went straight down. I couldn't see the little plane hit either, but when the big plane smashed into the ground a big plume of black smoke shot into the sky," Howard said.

Airport officials reported a Cessna 310, inbound to the airport, was missing. It said Piedmont Flight 22, which departed Atlanta at 10:40 a.m. EDT, took off from Hendersonville-Asheville airport at 11:59 a.m. The collision occurred moments later.

Most of the plane crashed near a trash dump in this mountainous western North Carolina resort area.

Grady Walker, a telephone company employee, said the planes collided over his house. "A huge ball of fire flew from the big jet and both planes came down immediately," he said. The smaller one "disappeared in clouds of billowing smoke."

SECOND COLLISION

It was the second collision in five months involving a light plane and a commercial airliner, and the fourth airline crash since March.

On March 5, a Lake Central airliner went down near Kenton, Ohio, killing 37 persons. On March 9, a Trans-World Airlines jet collided with a small plane near Urbana, Ill., killing 25, and on June 23, a Mohawk airliner went down near Blossburg, Pa., killing 3r persons.

Truce Chief Urges Peace Along Canal

TEL AVIV (Reuters) — Lt.-Gen. Odd Bull, the UN Middle East truce chief, has appealed to Israel and Egypt to refrain from any action that might upset the ceasefire in the Suez Canal area, UN spokesman Albert Grand said today.

An urgent appeal from the Norwegian general followed reports of rising tension along the blocked canal over the issue of navigation.

Grand said Bull will meet Israeli Defence Minister Moshe Dayan in Jerusalem today, then fly to Cairo for talks with Egyptian officials. Both meetings had been requested by the UN truce supervisor, he added.

Observers here said the use of small craft in the 100-mile waterway appeared to have sparked the heavy fighting in the canal zone last week. No boats were reported using the canal at present.

Ky Will End Censorship

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnam's military government is ending political censorship Thursday, two weeks before the official start of the presidential campaign.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky said he would sign a decree abolishing the much-criticized censorship tonight. The decree will not affect military censorship imposed for reasons of national security.

Ky made the announcement as he flew north from Saigon on a military inspection with his runningmate for the Sept. 3 presidential election, Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu. Thieu is running for president and Ky for vice-president.

Ten civilian presidential slates were certified Tuesday night by South Vietnam's Provisional Assembly. The assembly also approved the Thieu-Ky ticket.

Lottery Proceeds Far Below Goal

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — State officials kept one eye on Lady Luck and another on the financial books today as they swept toward their first drawing in New York's lottery, with the recorded proceeds already $23,500,000 below the estimated goal.

No one in official quarters had much good to say about the report Tuesday by Tax Commissioner Joseph Murphy that the state in June sold $6,447,605 worth of lottery tickets.

WEATHER SYNOPSIS

A weak Pacific disturbance will cross the province today giving showers to most areas. A moist Pacific flow will maintain cloudy skies Thursday with showers persisting along the outer coasts and over the central interior. The southern interior, meantime, is expected to have mainly sunny skies.

'LAST CHANCE' SHOT STREAKING TO MOON

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Lunar Explorer streaked toward the moon today on a mission viewed as the "last chance" to learn about potential radiation hazards facing moonbound American astronauts.

The windmill-shaped craft, officially named Explorer 35, bolted skyward on a fiery Delta rocket to begin a planned three-day trip toward an egg-shaped orbit about the moon, 225,608 miles away.

There it is to spend two to three years studying radiation dangers and investigating whether a cone-shaped tail that trails earth—caused by this planet's magnetic field—could shield Apollo astronauts from radiation spewed into space by storms on the sun.

Negroes Begin To Bury Dead

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—Newark Negroes bury the first of their riot dead today while other New Jersey cities fought flickers of racial trouble. Plainfield authorities hunted a cache of stolen arms.

Newark's night was quiet after nearly a week of bloody battles. A few shots Tuesday night punctured the peace which came to Plainfield after a white policeman had been killed by a Negro gang.

In New Brunswick, six miles from Plainfield, 100 Negroes marched to City Hall where Mayor Patricia Sheehan and Negro Councilman Aldrage Cooper Jr. urged calm upon them. In Paterson, north of Newark, a few rocks and bottles were thrown and firemen chased false alarms.

In Jersey City and Elizabeth all was normal in areas where sporadic violence burst Monday.

In Newark, funerals were scheduled for three of the 23 Negroes shot down during sprays of gunfire from Thursday through Sunday. The funeral of a white fire captain slain by a sniper also is being held. A white policeman was buried Tuesday.

Negro playwrite, Leroi Jones, was among 37 persons indicted Tuesday on charges from Newark's riot. He was released on $25,000 bond on charges of carrying two revolvers.

Seventy indictments now have been returned for carrying concealed weapons and looting. Up to 700 cases are to go to the grand jury.

tonight's show will be affected by the weather.

At 8:30 p.m. the Golden Centennaires are to put on a 50-minute aerobatic display over Royal Roads.

The flying aces can stage the show at three altitudes — 1,000, 3,000, and 5,000 feet. But unless things brighten considerably the display could prove an anti-climax to a colorful week.

* * *

Best vantage points for the air show will be: Mcaulay Point, Ogden Point breakwater, outside dockyard gates, Esquimalt Lagoon, and higher points of Metchosin Road to Albert Head.

At 10 p.m. the ships will be illuminated, followed 15 minutes later by a fireworks display. On Thursday the vessels will start weighing anchor at 9:30 a.m. for a line-astern sailpast along Dallas Road waterfront on their way to Vancouver Sea Festival.

Police Fire At Snipers

CAIRO, Ill. (AP) — Police exchanged shots with snipers early today and a series of fires blazed in Cairo, spurring Governor Otto Kerner to order the national guard to restore quiet in the river town hit by racial violence for the second time in three nights.

NYACK, N.Y. (AP) — About 100 sheriff's deputies and policemen from neighboring Hudson Valley towns and villages put down a rock-throwing, window-breaking rampage early today by about 50 young Negroes.

The youths tore through part of the village's business district, breaking windows in shops, homes, schools and autos before the officers brought the situation under control, police said. No looting or serious injuries were reported.

New Centre Sections May Lengthen Ferries

A plan to extend nine B.C. ferries with new centre sections is under study.

Premier Bennett said Tuesday it should provide more carrying capacity equal to two or three extra ships.

"At this stage it's only an idea. It will take a lot of study by marine engineers and marine architects to see if it can be done and how much it will cost," he said.

B.C. Ferry Authority manager Monty Aldous confirmed that preliminary studies are complete and thorough cost and engineering studies are anticipated.

Some sources believe the ferries, which now range from 335 to 342 feet in length, might be increased by about 50 feet. This would boost car carrying capacity to almost 200.

The lengthening might reduce operating speeds and make docking more difficult.

One shipping expert said, "Lengthening ships in this manner is done all the time. But whether it's the best method for increasing ferry capacity remains to be seen . . ."

Premier Bennet also announced that the experimental installation of 'tween-deck car ramps in two ferries has proven successful. The other seven ships on the Island route will be similarly fitted before the end of summer, 1968, he said.

The ramps cost $150,000 each and provide room for 32 additional cars.

Both the ramps and the lengthening plans evolved after ferry construction costs soared in recent years.

Queen of Burnaby, built in 1964, cost nearly $3.9 million. Bids received last fall ranged upward from $5.1 milion.

Ferry traffic in the first part of July was 10 per cent increased over the same period last year.

Now an Inmate

CALGARY (CP) — Bruce Chapman, 24, of Calgary, Tuesday was sentenced to "two weeks at the place where you are employed" by Magistrate Frank Quigley after pleading guilty to driving while disqualified. Chapman was a guard at Spy Hill jail.

Mixed Reaction To East Cuts

By JOHN LeBLANC

LONDON (CP)—Britain's Labor government was clobbered and commended today for its slashes in defence forces predicted in a white paper Tuesday.

There were bitter recriminations from the Conservatives over the further slimming of the thin red line east of Suez. A spokesman warned the party would not be bound by Labor commitments when it returns to power.

Some left - wing Labor MPs complained the government did not go far enough in its defence-spending cuts. So did the Liberals.

Some major national dailies welcome the move to reduce Britain's armed manpower by nearly one - sixth between now and the mid-1970s. Others—notably The Daily Express with a front-page cartoon of a British lion pulling its own teeth—hit the government hard.

The Times says the new Far East policy "makes very good sense" but criticizes Defence Secretary Denis Healey for "studiously ignoring" the problems of the Middle East. The Guardian calls the program for eventual evacuation of Singapore and Malaysia "belated but sensible."

But the Daily Telegraph calls it al. a "surrender to Little Englanders, the fanatical Europeans, the pacifists and the fellow travellers who make up the anti-East-of-Suez lobby."

The white paper, product of a global defence review under way for almost three years, will reduce the uniformed forces by 75,000 and civilian workers in the services by 80,000 in the mid-1970s. The current figures are, respectively, 417,360 and 376,000.

ECONOMY PROGRAM

Government forecast is that the defence budget will be down to about £1,800,000,000 ($5,400,000,000) by the target period. This would be a reduction of £300,000,000 from earlier forecasts.

Enoch Powell, Conservative defence spokesman, called it "death by a thousand cuts." The government had made no attempt to relate them to "any intelligible picture of Britain's future defence forces," Powell said.

The Conservatives were to tackle Foreign Secretary George Brown on the foreign policy implications of the white paper in a Commons foreign affairs debate today. A full-scale defence debate was expected to be forced on the government next week.

For the Liberals, defence spokesman James Davidson expressed dissatisfaction.

"A long-delayed start in the right direction," he said, "but it does not go far enough."

ISRAEL HAD FOUR PLANES IN RESERVE

NEW YORK (AP) — The Israeli air offensive which knocked out the Arab air forces June 5 left only four planes in reserve to guard Israel, CBS television said Tuesday.

Retired U.S. Army Brig. Gen. S. L. A. Marshall, CBS military consultant, said on a television special that all but 12 of Israel's planes were involved in the initial offensive that caught the bulk of enemy planes on the ground.

Eight of the 12 went into the air as a defensive screen, leaving "exactly four planes as a reserve," he said.

VIET WAR

Stadium Missile Site Hit

SAIGON (AP)—U.S. bombers flew more heavy raids Tuesday against North Vietnam, striking at four major rail yards north of Hanoi and blasting a missile site inside a soccer stadium midway between Hanoi and Haiphong.

Pilots claimed their rockets and 750-pound bombs blew up three of the Soviet-made surface-to-air missiles and their launchers in the Hai Duong soccer stadium.

U.S. pilots flew 133 missions—about 400 individual strike sorties—over the North Tuesday and the raids cost one U.S. plane, the American command reported.

An air force F-4 Phantom jet, downed by ground fire was the 612th U.S. combat plane reported lost over the North. The two flyers were rescued by helicopter.

Hanoi's official news agency claimed four American planes were shot down Tuesday.

Hopes Peter Out For UN Solution

UNITED NATIONS (Reuters) Diplomatic consultations were at a standstill here today with the apparent collapse of all efforts to reach an acceptable political resolution on the Middle East.

Diplomats predicted that the General Assembly's special emergency session, which was summoned by Russia June 17, would end this week with a formal procedural resolution returning the problem to the Security Council.

Hopes that delegates would reach agreement before the assembly resumed debate as scheduled Thursday faded as talks between the Latin American group and the Russians petered out. Both sides refused to budge from their stands.

The Russians insisted on unconditional withdrawal of Israeli troops from occupied Arab territory. The Latin Americans wanted some assurance that an end to Arab belligerence would accompany an Israeli withdrawal.

BREAKDOWN IN TALKS

Strong indications that backstage consultations had broken down came in letters to the General Assembly and Security Council Tuesday from Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

CHINESE JAILED FOR TWO YEARS

By LEE CASEY

HONG KONG (Reuters) — A Hong Kong court today sentenced a correspondent of China's official New China news agency to two years in jail on charges resulting from a clash between a mob and police in the Wanchai bar district last week.

Hsiao Ping protested during the trial that police "kidnapped" and beat him, but Judge Derek Cons rejected his claims.

The correspondent was charged with taking part in an unlawful assembly and with having been part of an intimidating assembly July 11. He was sentenced to two years on each charge to run concurrently.

Meanwhile, police backed by Gurkha troops today raided buildings in the San Po Kong district, scene of some of the recent riots and demonstrations in the British colony.

ARREST FOUND-INS

Police said they found masses of Communist literature, sharpened pipes, first aid armbands and rubber goggles in one of the buildings. Ten men and two women were taken into custody.

Police later evicted the China Products Co., which sells mainland goods, from a store in a neighboring district for displaying inflammatory posters.

It was the seventh day of raids aimed at cleaning out terrorist headquarters.

New Home Recipe Reducing Plan

It's simple how quickly one may lose pounds of unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this home recipe yourself. It's easy, no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your drug store and ask for four ounces of Naran Concentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Take two tablespoons full a day as needed and follow the Naran Plan.

If your first purchase does not show you a simple easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't disappear from neck, chin, arms, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow this easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

MONETARY FUND PROPOSAL

Credit Cards to Bail Out Gov'ts?

SHARP
. . . hopes for agreement

LONDON (CP)—The world is edging closer to development of what may turn out to be a giant new credit card system to bail out countries temporarily short of cash.

But the finance ministers of the 10 leading industrialized nations grappling with this problem were unable to reach full agreement on a plan Tuesday and tossed the general idea to their deputies to fill in details during the coming weeks.

This would be a contingency plan, administered under the International Monetary Fund and ready to be introduced at some future period in case existing pools of cash and credit become insufficient.

Canada's finance minister, Mitchell Sharp, said he is hopeful the deputies could complete agreement on a package plan without the ministers coming back to London again. If not, the ministers agreed to meet here Aug. 26.

The hope is to have a plan ready for approval by the 100-country monetary fund at its Rio de Janeiro conference at the end of September.

Canada, the United States and Britain came to the conference with the hope that Common Market countries and Japan would agree to the development of a new currency that could be added to gold and dollars as part of national reserves.

REJECT CURRENCY

France and other European participants wanted no part of a new currency, though they gave tentative approval to the idea of a new credit or drawing right which could be added to a country's reserves under controls and restrictions.

One of these controls would be Common Market veto power in deciding when any contingency plan should be put into force.

Sharp told reporters that the ministers "almost reached the point of agreement" but still didn't manage to bridge all differences on the new plan, largely the work of Italy.

Under this plan, countries with temporary foreign payment difficulties could draw a certain percentage of additional credit from a new pool, spending this credit at the same rate as its own conventional reserves of foreign currencies and gold.

When the country got back on its feet again and started to rebuild its reserves, it would steadily return a portion of its credit to the pool.

While no country is as yet bound by the idea now under study Sharp emphasized that all 10 countries have agreed this is the only idea they will entertain. Agreement was reached that no new proposals should be introduced at the last minute.

Consumer Protection

THE ECONOMIC COUNCIL OF Canada makes two particularly useful suggestions in its report recommending that the federal government proceed to set up a department of consumer affairs under the direction of the registrar-general, currently Mr. John Turner.

The first is that the new department take over most present consumer protection functions scattered widely throughout other ministries and consolidate them into one. The second is that this be done without any great burst of expansion of government staff, that is by transferring complete existing branches rather than through duplication of functions. The council report has found that while there are legislative and administrative gaps in the federal consumer protection field, the primary deficiency seems to be lack of co-ordination of existing programs as well as "significant differences in the stringency of enforcement and in some cases no enforcement at all."

Just how much more regulation of trade and commerce in the consumers' interest is needed will not be an easy question to decide, particularly since the field is shared by both federal and provincial authorities. But if the broad lines indicated by the Economic Council report are followed by Mr. Turner—consolidation, co-ordination and consultation with the provinces and with consumer and business groups—it may well be discovered that more protection for the consumer already exists than has been apparent.

One contentious and most important matter was left in abeyance by the council report—operation of the food and drug directorate of the department of health. It was found, however, that the complex food and drug laws lag behind technological change and need thorough revision. Transfer of the directorate to the new consumer affairs department would not resolve this difficulty and the council recommended, therefore, that such a step should be decided at a later date.

The obvious concern here should be not which department of government should administer the food and drug laws but rather that they are considered inadequate. They logically should rate a higher priority than most aspects of consumer protection, not merely in regard to price and misleading labels, but on the vital issue of research to maintain safety in this day of new food processing techniques and new drugs.

Teachers as Trustees

THE OLD QUESTION CONCERNING the propriety of school teachers running for election to school boards has been raised once more, this time by a Courtenay trustee. It has been answered by Mr. Charles D. Ovans, general secretary of the B.C. Teachers' Federation with the case that carried the day when the teachers were empowered to stand for office except on the boards for which they worked.

Mr. Ovans points out, quite properly, that denial of the right to stand for municipal office would make teachers something less than first class citizens. They would be subject to discrimination. Furthermore, he argues that a teacher's interest in the public service of a school trustee should be fundamentally the same as that of anyone else. He should be concerned primarily with providing the best educational opportunities possible for the children who are taught.

A teacher cannot sit on the school board which employs him because of the obvious conflict of interest, but with this exception a teacher can stand for any other elective municipal office.

The situation is perhaps not quite as clear-cut as it appears. Mr. Ovans says that it has never been Federation policy to encourage teachers to seek any particular office—that they secure nominations on a basis of interest in particular fields of service, in the way any qualified citizen does.

The problem now emerging, and presumably the basis for the Courtenay trustee's suggestion, arises from the modern trend toward what might be called industry-wide bargaining when teachers' salaries are negotiated. Under this development, it would obviously not be to the disadvantage of teachers to have members of their profession on school boards throughout the province.

The reply to that point is simple. If a community — residents of a school district — does not want teachers on a school board because of the pro-teacher attitude they might take, the community does not have to elect them.

Glimmers of Light

AN OFFICIAL APPEAL FROM the White House in Washington addressed to both North Vietnam and the National Liberation Front in Vietnam may have had a significance far beyond its subject matter — the repatriation of sick and wounded prisoners of war.

This was the first time Washington had openly recognized the NLF, the political arm of the Viet Cong, as a separate entity from the North Vietnamese government. The appeal urged also that both Hanoi and the NLF permit inspection of prisoners' conditions by the International Red Cross under terms of the Geneva Convention.

There is a certain irony in this belated American recognition of the Viet Cong since most qualified observers agree that it has less independence now than it had several years ago before the massive United States military intervention forced the indigenous guerrilla forces to rely more heavily on Hanoi for both supplies and troop reinforcements. However, even at this time, the possibility that Washington may be conceding in a round-about way that the origin of the war did not rest solely on a Communist invasion from the North is interesting since it opens up a long-closed avenue of negotiation. Reluctance of the Hanoi government to consider peace talks without the NLF, and American refusal to recognize the right of the NLF as separate from the North Vietnamese, has been an important sticking point.

Trial balloons floated by the usual "reliable sources" in Washington concerning the possibility of a halt in the bombing of North Vietnam are also interesting taken in conjunction with the appeal on prisoners. Having indicated his determination to provide more American troops for Vietnam, President Johnson may now feel that the time is propitious for a concrete demonstration of his oft-repeated willingness to negotiate a peace settlement at any time.

The fact that Soviet Premier Kosygin, in his talks with the President, reportedly stressed so strongly the view that while the bombing continues there is no hope of settlement of important issues, such as the anti-ballistic moratorium, could have an influence on Mr. Johnson.

Age Makes the Crime

DIFFERENCES IN PROVINCIAL laws concerning the age at which a person ceases to be a juvenile have been drawn to public notice by Magistrate Ostler.

Appearing before him on a charge of contributing to juvenile delinquency was a man of 23 who crossed Canada with a 16-year-old as man and wife. In British Columbia a person is legally a juvenile until his or her 18th birthday. In various areas the age limit is 16. In consequence, the magistrate pointed out, the situation which became criminal when the pair entered British Columbia would not have been a crime in a number of other areas —a ridiculous inconsistency.

FROM OTTAWA — By MAURICE WESTERN

When Little Eva Licked Simon Legree

IT IS DISTURBING, at this time of soaring centennial confidence, to read in a respected Toronto newspaper, a tale which seems bound to raise doubts about the moral fibre of Canadian mortgage men. As every red-blooded prairie boy knows, the mortgage men came West hard behind the first settlers. What they failed to accomplish in the earliest days (as recorded in Tom Mix movies), they completed in the 1930s. It must have been unnerving work — driving through black blizzards from farm to farm, expelling the occupants, building Toronto and creating our own legend comparable, more or less, to the American saga of Simon Legree.

Western

There is a fairly widespread impression, based on occasional harrowing stories about widows and orphans, that the old spirit is far from dead. But have we taken too much for granted? Among the mortgage men, now socialists at heart, has there been an insidious sapping of the will to foreclose? Has Simon Legree gone soft?

The True Story

Here, in any case, are the facts as uncovered by The Globe and Mail.

Back in 1927, when Mr. Mix was practically alone in the business of rescuing beautiful widows from rapacious company men, a Toronto couple obtained a mortgage of $3,750 from Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada. With this they purchased a house (now valued at $30,000). For some years all went well and the time came (as it does even with the best managed companies) when the principal began to decline until it reached the insignificant total of $625.

Then in 1949 the couple separated and the payments stopped. So did the payments on property tax and fire insurance.

In such cases, as every NDP student knows, a race develops between the sheriff bent on seizing the furniture and the mortgage man bent on foreclosure. But something went badly wrong in Toronto; neither apparently got as far as the starting line.

What happened was that the company wrote letters. Owing to lack of co-operation by the lady in residence, this was a one-way correspondence. The mortgage men, finding this "inexplicable," then decided to meet the payments.

So the company paid, and went on paying for 10 years. It paid, in fact, until it had parted with $2,100, not counting such small sums as may have been expected for stamps, envelopes and Christmas cards.

By 1959 the thought occurred to some company executive that this practice was at variance with the great tradition of the mortgage men, as understood by the mortgaged public. It was accordingly stopped. After this callous action the company settled down to eight years of reflection in which it was apparently joined by the tax-deprived council of the borough of York.

The city fathers, showing the mortgage men, have taken title to the dwelling. But the lady, now aged 75, remains in possession and no one apparently has any thoughts of eviction.

For everyone except the lady, the situation fairly bristles with difficulties. Look at the matter through the harried eyes of the mortgage men.

First there is the matter of the $625 which has been increasing with unpaid interest in a manner which looks encouraging on paper. But there is also the Ontario Limitations Act which puts a 10-year limit on actions to recover mortgage debts. What with law and compassion the company, according to its spokesman, is not claiming anything.

Nor, after 18 years of unrequited correspondence, is it prepared to send a black-mustachioed minion to risk rebuff at the tradesmen's entrance.

Its hope is that the sterner men of the borough will in some way persuade the lady to accept other accommodation. This accomplished, the company could apply for title under a section of the Municipal Affairs Act applying to property taken over for taxes. The thought then is that the house might be sold, with the company deducting for taxes and mortgage balance and turning the rest over to its present "difficult" occupant.

Borough's Plan

But the borough has different ideas. According to its treasurer such claims are rarely allowed by the department. The lady, it is considered, should be left in possession as long as she wishes. After that the borough hopes to sell the house, reclaiming its taxes and paying the balance to you-know-whom.

Where does this leave Simon Legree? Out on the ice floes, presumably, wondering if he is being pursued by Little Eva.

Or it may be that in these days of manpower mobility the Simon Legrees have all been drawn into Mr. Benson's revenue department. While they hunt down the peasantry, companies must rely for the management of mortgages on friendly, compassionate types. Any reader who cares to test this theory proceeds at his own risk.

Ecological Judgment

With regard to your news article "U.S. Plans Defoliation," which appeared in a recent edition of the Victoria Daily Times, may I draw your attention to the pronouncements of Peter Scott at the Amsterdam Congress of the World Wildlife Fund in April.

With specific reference to defoliants being purchased by the U.S. government for use in the Vietnam war, Peter Scott said "We're told these substances 'do not sterilize the soil, are harmless to human and animal life.' Well, I'm afraid this can only bring a hollow laugh from any ecologist."

The fact is, of course, that substances such as 2,4-D are toxic to fish, birds and mammals, and particularly to aquatic invertebrates upon which many other forms of animal life depend. The ecological disruption caused by massive use of defoliants is almost as severe as that caused by fire. Not only rare animals, but rare plants and unique faunal and floral associations can suffer irrevocable damage from the incautious use of defoliating chemicals. It is not fair to label as "harmless" substances which, directly and indirectly, affect the quality of the environment in which we humans also must live.—R. P. Finegan, 4661 Vantreight.

Banking Story

I would like to make a few observations regarding the Bank of British Columbia.

After World War I, during which I served in the Canadian Army Medical Corps as a Nursing Sister, I went to Los Angeles for health reasons. When I recovered sufficiently I got a position in the Bank of Italy, there. It was then emerging into The Bank of America. E. P. Gianinni was the dynamic force that accomplished this.

After the devastating earthquake and fire that practically wiped out San Francisco, E. P. Gianinni who had come from Italy, and some other wealthy Italians started a little bank in a partly demolished building and lent money to needy Italians, without security. They helped to get things started again.

Eventually, after years of fighting, they succeeded in getting a charter for a Bank of California with offices in other states. In the 1920s they changed their name to The Bank of America.

They were a progressive developing bank and studied the needs of California. They were also the driving force for introducing and developing many big enterprises including the motion picture industry. California was then in its infancy of development of the west.

With corresponding good, progressive forethought the Bank of British Columbia should have wonderful prospects for the future. Europe may be coming to the saturation point of development and the Pacific is the bright outlook for the future.—M. M. Pugh, R.N., 1320 Rockland.

Canadian Bridge

The Manchester Guardian

Because it has no colonial past, Canada is now a stronger bridge between the rich and poor, white and black nations of the Commonwealth than is Britain. In a large measure, the present prime minister, Lester Pearson, must take credit for this and he has made Canada one of the most loyal supporters of the United Nations.

Geographically and politically, Canada is uniquely placed to play a similar mediating role in the Americas and Asia, though here it requires more courage since it may mean standing up to the United States. But already Canada trades with Cuba and China. As the most advanced non-nuclear power in the world, Canada will have a growing peacekeeping responsibility in the years ahead.

FROM NEW YORK — By JOSEPH ALSOP

Price of the Sins of Omission

"WE have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But Thou, oh Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders!"

Alsop

The terrible words of the general confession should now be (but of course will not be) recited in unison, with bowed heads and contrite hearts, by the ugly-minded racist conservatives and the woolly-minded mashochistic liberals, and the Negro leaders who have lacked the application and the guts to deal with practical Negro problems, and the complacent white middle class Americans who have tried to shove all Negro problems under the rug.

After Newark, after Plainfield, after the trouble in Little Waterloo, Iowa, any fool ought to be able to see that we have waited far, far too long to do "those things which we ought to have done." And to get those things done, which will be very difficult and vastly expensive, the first requirement is to identify the true essence of the race problem in the United States of America.

The essence of the race problem is not race hatred, although race hatred is a sin in the eyes of God. It is not discrimination, although discrimination is a defilement of all that America stands for. It is not segregation, although segregation must be struck down. The essence of our race problem is in fact the shockingly deficient education that our Negro Americans are customarily given.

Take a minority differentiated by skin color. Give the members of this minority an education immensely inferior to that given to the white majority. Thereby condemn most of the members of this minority to frustration and bitterness and joblessness. How then can you hope to escape from race hatred and discrimination and segregation? And how can you expect to avoid the sort of explosion that happened in Newark?

The questions are self-answering; yet the foregoing is exactly what has been done in America, decade after decade. Among the deprived minorities — and these include Mexican-Americans, Appalachian whites and other groups besides Negroes — over two-thirds of the children drop out of school after the ninth grade.

Ill-Prepared

They do not drop out, mark you, because they have no ambition, or because they are lazy, or because of the temptations of the ghetto streets. These causes all have their influence on this child or that. But the main cause for dropping out is something else again. The main cause is the fact that the children of these deprived minorities are, on average, already more than two years behind when they enter the ninth grade.

This dire lag occurs because the Negroes and other children of acutely deprived background enter school considerably behind white middle class children; and they fall further and further behind as their schooling continues. And any boy or girl who is asked to do ninth grade work with less than seventh grade training is almost bound to drop out; in these circumstances, dropping out is the natural thing to do.

To the drop-outs must then be added the Negro boys and girls who stay through high school (and staying through is the right phrase, rather than going through!) the process of falling further and further behind continues in high school. Thus, American Negro high school graduates, on average, have only reached the level of eighth grade-plus when the valedictorian mounts the platform.

In other words, the national United States school system at present fails to give the equivalent of an ordinary white blue collar-education to nine Negro boys and girls in every ten. Nine in every ten are not prepared to achieve, and are then rated for being "under-achievers." Nine in every ten are not equipped to get and hold jobs in an increasingly technological society, and are then condemned for idleness and lack of aspiration.

One Remedy Only

It is in truth a miracle, in these grim and shameful circumstances, that the situation is not far worse than it is. There is only one remedy.

To rescue the next generation, heavy additional investments must be made — and on an enormous scale — in order to improve the ghetto schools to overcome the handicap of deprivation, and to give Negroes educations fully equal to the white average. And to meet the immediate emergency — and it is an emergency, as Newark proved — something like an urban WPA needs to be started, forthwith and on a big scale.

Besides providing jobs to ease the tension, such a WPA could also offer incentives for acquisition of job-promoting skills. There are other details needing to be filled in. But what needs doing can be done. That has been proved beyond question by the more effective schools program in New York, for educational improvement is the great long-range essential.

And in this city, eavesdropping on decent white Americans talking about Newark in these last days, it has been easy to discover what must be expected if what needs doing is not done. We must, in truth, expect a reaction of blind rage and fear among the white majority, that will make the United States into a nation forever dishonored, divided and defeated in every finer aspiration.

Looking Back

From the Times, July 19, 1907.

Another link in the chain of lighthouses the Dominion government is establishing on the west coast will be commenced when the steamer Maude leaves port tomorrow for Estevan Point.

The steamer will carry a cargo of lumber for construction of the new government station.

Cecil Doutre, superintendent of wireless stations, will leave on the Maude to inspect the site on Estevan Point where the telegraphy system for the lighthouse will be established.

Reputable Experts Advocate Legalization of Marijuana

By PETER FIDDICK
Manchester Guardian

Packaged pot is opened at Vancouver RCMP headquarters after customs officers seized 22 pounds of the hallucinatory drug in a border search. The haul earlier this year was the largest ever made in British Columbia.

Ever since pot-smoking was brought under international control in 1928 calls have been going out to have it made legal. Doctors, commissions and plain teaheads have been ready to go on record about the innocence of the weed cannabis sativa and its pleasure-bearing by-products.

Yet, as no one can fail to be aware since the trial of Keith Richard, all forms of cannabis are banned in this country (and in most other countries besides) under the terms of the latest treaty on the subject, the International Convention on Narcotic Drugs, 1961 . . .

All this to suppress a drug which is now almost universally accepted as being non-addictive. The Brain Committee said so, the World Health Organization's experts say so, and the British government is willing to accept its own specialists' advice in the same vein.

Alcohol Worse

Moreover, a persuasive case can be argued that the effects of marijuana are decidedly less baleful than those of the West's favorite drug, alcohol. It does not, says the smoker, create aggressiveness, it is—as Inspector Lynch of the Drug Squad told the Chichester court—not an aphrodisiac, nor does it tend to break down the personality. Rather it releases the intuitional flow, giving in milder form some of the hallucinogenic qualities experienced through LSD.

In objective terms marijuana breaks down inhibitions (as does alcohol), promotes a certain physical excitement or restlessness, makes people laugh a lot at nothing very much.

Apart from the opinions of those who use it, medical opinion has included statements like this from Dr. Joel Fort, American consultant on drug addiction to the World Health Organization: "Cannabis is taken for euphoria, reduction of fatigue, and relief from tension . . . is a valuable pleasure-giving drug, probably much safer than alcohol."

Another favorite text for the protagonists of marijuana is a leading article in the "Lancet" of Nov. 9, 1963, provoked by a number of articles in preceding weeks calling for liberalization of the law on mariuana.

Said the "Lancet": "The suggestion is worth considering. Besides the undoubted attraction of reducing, for once, the number of crimes that a member of our society can commit, and of allowing the wider spread of something that can give pleasure, a greater revenue would certainly come to the state from taxation than from fines."

So cannabis—pot, hemp, marijuana, tea, Mary Jane, choose your brand and call it what you will—has no lack of respectable advocates.

Nevertheless, there is in this country medical opinion which, while prepared to agree very largely with the advocates of liberalization about what is observable here, are not so willing to ignore other reports.

One such is Dr. M. M. Glatt, head of the alcoholism and addiction unit of a London hospital board, and a consultant to the World Health Organization's expert advisory panel on drug dependence.

"I would have said that in this country there is little evidence that marijuana has really had much effect in producing a social or anti-social begaviour or permanent mental deterioration," he says. "But abroad there is definite evidence from India and Africa that the drug has contributed to anti-social and criminal behavior and mental disturbances.

"It may have to do with the way it is produced. The way it is taken, the climate, or who takes it. But the work done abroad is not irrelevant. It is possible that the type used here is less harmful— but since it is smuggled anyway, who can tell what is likely to get in?"

Research Needed

Neither do many specialists hold the view often put forward that marijuana smoking is a significant step on the way to heroin. The theory of the bored, pot-smoker looking for some better kick, they say, is not borne out by the responses of those addicts they treat. Dr. Beckett found that 12 per cent do move on in this way but argues that even this figure is weighted by other factors.

Dr. Glatt, however, argues that it is for those who would legalize marijuana to make out the case that its presence in an underground sub-culture is harmful enough to warrant its being freed, set against other factors, something which, he says, they have not yet done.

He goes on to argue against liberalization on other grounds:

"It is true that marijuana does not produce physiological, chemical, pharmacological addiction: if discontinued suddenly there is no physical abstinence syndrome. But we certainly have definite evidence that it can produce psychological dependence." He cites cases of students living from one smoke to another and of those who have become indifferent to work.

The argument of course can be applied to any drug but Dr. Glatt suggests that the availability of alcohol and tobacco is not in itself an argument for putting a third potentially harmful drug on the market.

But there has been little research into what cannabis does to the brain or how it affects the central nervous system. The leading article in the "Lancet," three and a half years ago, concluded: "Much more research is needed into the actions of the drug and the personality of the user."

Many of the advocates of liberalization are now preparing to concentrate their efforts on getting the law sufficiently relaxed to permit research: they are confident of the outcome.

Tizzy Over de Gaulle Visit Mars Spirit of Centennial

By GERALD WARING

Waring

OTTAWA—We'll probably see no stranger spectacle this Centennial year than the unseemly squabble between Ottawa and Quebec City over which government shall be French President de Gaulle's chief host in Canada.

This comic crisis in Ottawa-Quebec relations would not have arisen had de Gaulle conformed with the pattern Ottawa laid down for state visitors this year. It calls for chiefs of state, or their alternates, to come to Ottawa for an official welcome and overnight stay at Government House before going to Montreal for their country's national day at Expo. After that they would be encouraged to visit one or more provincial capitals, which in most cases means Quebec City or Toronto. But de Gaulle, or his advisers, apparently thought it would give dramatic emphasis to resurgent French political power and prestige if the president were to sail up the St. Lawrence in a French cruiser to Quebec, centre of former French colonial power.

Ottawa's distress over this intention was a little neurotic. The federal authorities feared that if the French president made his visit primarily to Quebec—he had a special separate invitation from the Johnson government—it would strengthen the pretensions of Quebec to a right to conduct its own diplomatic relations with France and other members of the French community of nations.

So Ottawa, unable to dissuade de Gaulle, blandly proceeded with plans to upstage the Johnson government at de Gaulle's Quebec arrival on Sunday, just as if it were all Ottawa's idea in the first place.

Governor-General Michener will make a mountain-to-Mahomet journey to greet de Gaulle, who will arrive escorted by two Canadian destroyers. When de Gaulle debarks from the cruiser Colbert at Wolfe's Cove he will also be greeted by three federal cabinet ministers as well as by Premier Johnson and provincial dignitaries.

★ ★ ★

By nature and record de Gaulle thrives on discord, and the tizzy he caused by his refusal to conform no doubt satisfies his ego. Besides, he has no love for Anglo Saxons, presumably including the English-speaking majority in Canada. And Ottawa offended him this spring by inviting Prince Philip to the Vimy Memorial ceremonies without clearing it first with Paris.

His pique over Ottawa's faux pas was so great that he was reported to have considered cancelling his Canadian visit. If Ottawa had then insisted that he conform to the pattern of coming to the federal capital before visiting Quebec province—a pattern which U.S. President Johnson and a few other state visitors have not followed—it is quite certain de Gaulle would have cancelled.

In that event, the anger and vituperation flowing from Quebec's wounded pride would have gone far towards ruining the spirit of Centennial.

You Can't Follow 'Finnegan'? You Have Company in Dublin

By ART STOTT

Stott

Miss Ann Binchy works in radio and television in Dublin. She is the type of southern Ireland girl you conceive in your romantic idealization of the country — attractive, bright, friendly, out-giving. When she speaks, the syllables wear a shawl of inflection that gives warmth and color to English. In animated conversation, the words tumble out like a clear streamlet bubbling over mossed rocks.

She was one of a group of press women from different parts of the world who were guests of the local women's press club during a brief visit here the other day.

At dinner, I asked her what she thought of James Joyce's "Finnegans Wake".

"I don't understand him. I've never read it. I couldn't even get through "Ulysses," she said. "And it was embarrassing.

"Once I went to interview his son for television, knowing that I didn't have the background for the job, but certain that, because he's such a shy man, he wouldn't want to talk about his father — or perhaps anything else. Besides being shy, though, he is one of the most polite men I've ever met, and when I asked general questions, he felt bound to answer them. My trouble was that I didn't have the questions. I should have gone to the Joyce museum they have in Dublin and worked up a background."

★ ★ ★

Her confession was good for my soul. On odd occasions I drop down to the library and borrow its copy of "Finnegan." I take it home, dip into a few pages and become completely lost. "Ulysses." I try to stumble through, lagging behind the writer in his stream of consciousness presentation, but frequently being able to tell up from down in what he's saying. "Finnegan," on the other hand, leaves me drowning far back in the wake of his passage.

No doubt I'll dive into him again, but it won't go swimmingly. I'll struggle back to shore with little accomplished except another attempt.

My lack of comprehension doesn't bother me as much as it might. Apart from criticisms I have read extolling the work — and the criticisms have been by men of high repute in letters — the only approach to "Finnegan" that has made sense to me was made by a group at Columbia.

A very bright young man who graduated from that university told me he had been a member of a team, chosen by his English professor, to study the work from the position of specialists in various fields.

★ ★ ★

One was a Dubliner. Another was a student of music. A third was a linguist — and so on. Each was of better than average mental capacity. Each could extract from "Finnegan" a reference or an allusion. They worked as individuals and as a group. When each had brought his particular interest and background to bear on a passage, they fitted their explanatory contributions together in a jig-saw that produced some of th nuances as well as the fact matter of the writing. And they devoted a term to the job.

"So," I queried, "at the end of that time you understood 'Finnegan'?"

His reply was qualified. "I didn't say that," he answered. "But during that time we managed to pick out of the book a lot that Joyce had put into it through his particular knowledge, his study of music, his acquaintance with the local scene in Dublin, some sociology, his tremendous interpretation and combination of words and word-thoughts, and a very large number of very good puns. We also probably picked out of it some things that Joyce hadn't put in."

The explanation left me awed. These people were swimming the Strait of Juan de Fuca while I was flittering around, up to my ankles in our bay. The experience presented a valuable lesson in humility for me.

Now the highly attractive and bright Miss Ann Binchy has relieved me to some degree of a relative inferiority complex. In Dublin, where they speak something the same language as Joyce, and where they can brush against some of the local color, there are intelligent Irish folk who don't seem to understand him much better than I do.

Nice to meet people like Ann. In addition to delighting the eye, they reinforce the ego.

Rats Threaten India

By WARREN UNNA
The Washington Post

NEW DELHI—If India were able to control the rats, squirrels, birds and monkeys which are making themselves at home on her precious grain, she would be able to save an estimated three to five million tons of food a year—the very amount she now has to import from abroad during an average, non-drought year.

This is the finding of India's national rodent control committee in a study begun in January, 1966. The study was completed a year later, but is still to be approved and released for publication by the various governmental ministries involved.

The committee members, who include government officials as well as scientists, recommend that in the future rodent control be an inter-governmental matter under the food, agriculture, health and land protection officials and not just left to India's sixteen states to police in an unco-ordinated way.

One committee member, H. A. P. Parpia, director of the central food research technological institute in Mysore, sounded the rodent damage cry more than a year ago and was heavily criticized for being an alarmist. Parpia would go so far as to urge the creation of a "rat ministry."

India's rat population has been estimated at anywhere up to 3 or 5 billion. But the committee members themselves think all estimates are wild guesses.

American officials here are inclined to believe that even the estimates on saving grain from rats are high.

The national rodent control committee, in its field studies, found that contrary to foreign impressions the religious Indian is not so loathe to destroy animal pests which threaten his food supply and income.

Help Wanted

In Kanpur, an industrial city near this capital, a three-year rodent control program actually has succeeded in reducing the number of rats. And in the state of Punjab, apparently more people are asking for help in controlling the rats than officials are able to provide.

Indian sewer rats grow large, weighing up to several pounds. The committee found that national attention until now has been focused on rats as a conveyor of bubonic plague and that this disease, in fact, was now negligible.

But the committee also reports that rats continue to breed in great numbers at the usual two seasons of sowing and harvesting and join other rodents, birds and monkeys in nibbling away on the unprotected crops in the fields as well as in the indifferent village storage facilities.

"Even if only a part of the 3 to 5 million tons we lose a year could be saved, this country would be marginally on the self-sufficient side," the committee secretary predicted.

Old Pal U.S. Hardheaded In Latin American Deals

By CP Correspondent

PANAMA (CP)—The quality of mercy, Portia pleaded, blesseth him that gives and him that takes.

If funds from the U.S. Agency for International Development — A.I.D. — are a form of economic mercy, some highly-placed Latin Americans feel the U.S. is twice blessed.

One blessing for authorizing A.I.D. loans, and another for taking most of the cash right back.

These highly-placed Latin Americans are in no way ungrateful for the $10,000,000,000 their nations have received under the Alliance for Progress during the last six years.

It is the increasing number of strings and conditions attached to new aid that depresses them.

An economist close to the seat of power in one of the larger Latin American republics likens the situation to the difference between borrowing from a friend and from a bank.

The U.S., both in the Alliance for Progress and in statements from Washington's top officials, has repeatedly declared itself virtually a personal friend of each and every Latin American republic, with the conspicuous exeption of Cuba and possible exception of Haiti.

Resent Intrusion

Such international lending organizations as the International Monetary Fund, World Bank and Interamerican Development Bank, on the other hand, make no effusive protestations of friendship to anyone. A banker's cordial but businesslike nod is the limit of his emotional engagement.

From the international lenders, the Latin American governments expect austere bargaining and a bank's precise spelling out of all terms and conditions affecting any loan.

But when Old Pal U.S. holds out for equally hard bargaining, the Latin American's emotional reaction is likened to that of a borrower whose bosom buddy says "OK, but first your wife must cut her clothing bills, and you'd better get your daughter out of that expensive school."

Acceptable take-it-or-leave-it talk from a banker.

From a friend, punch-in-the-nose intrusion.

Latin Americans comprehend how the situation has arisen, and concede that nothing much can be done about it.

With a major war to finance in Vietnam, and prospects of a long, hot summer exacerbating domestic problems, funds for Latin America do not rate at the top of any U.S. congressman's appropriation priorities.

In consequence, the only hope for President Johnson's administration to get its A.I.D. appropriation requests approved is to ensure that as little of the money as possible reaches Latin America.

That is, to tie it to purchases within the U.S.

Earmarked

The money is earmarked for paying U.S. manufacturers for their products, which are then shipped in U.S. ships, the shipment being insured with U.S. companies.

Latin Americans, skeptical of the charity quotient in high finance, ask whether A.I.D. aids mostly the U.S. manufacturers who would not otherwise get these orders, U.S. shipping lines which would not otherwise get this cargo revenue, U.S. insurance companies which would not otherwise get these premiums.

If the aid were as immaculate as advertised, say these Latins, it would reach deeper into the economy of the recipient country if that country could place its orders wherever the best combination of price and quality offered, then import the purchases in its national-flag ships, insured with national comapnies.

At the recent Punta del Este meeting of hemisphere chiefs of state, Johnson did undertake to seek to loosen some of the strings Congress has tied to U.S. aid.

His idea is that at least some of the money may be channelled into mutual commerce among the republics which by 1985 are scheduled to form the Latin American Common Market.

Unfortunately, Punta del Este is looked upon as something less than a guiding beacon by Latin American economists.

Many of them feel Johnson couched his attitude in such generalities as to render the meeting's outcome valueless for solid regional forward planning.

Historically, multinational hemisphere meetings have featured utopian rhetoric from the Latin American delegates as they spin a fustian thread of reasoning from nowhere to nowhere, while U.S. delegates wait in vain for facts and figures and viable projects.

Roles Reversed

At Punta del Este, by some accounts, the roles were in some degree reversed. The frustrated pragmatists were in the Latin American delegations.

One such pragmatist has summed up the Punta del Este meeting in a manner not precisely reflecting U.S. reports of a personal triumph there for Johnson.

"At least it gave the Latin American presidents an opportunity to meet each other, and discuss positive proposals," he says.

THE GALLUP POLL

U.S. Domination Worries Third of Population

By The Canadian Institute of Public Opinion

It is already established, in a Gallup Poll centennial series, that 48% of the people feel Canada's development as a nation has been sound, 32% say it has not been sound and 20% have no opinion.

A follow-up question was then asked the almost one-third of the population dissatisfied with Canada's development: "Generally speaking, in what way would you say Canada's development has not been sound?"

Here are the reasons why Canada has not developed as it should, according to 32% of the people, and listed in order of the number of times mentioned:

1. U.S. dominated; rely too much on outside capital . . .
2. Apathetic and poor government; no leadership; too much disunity . . .
3. Too little Canadian investment; not developed economically; should be more progressive . . .
4. Over-taxed; too much government spending; controlled by big business . . .
5. Immigration policies wrong; too many foreigners; not enough jobs . . .

October Start On Sewer Job

First Phase in $1.3 M Project To Replace Downtown Trunk Line

By JIM HUME
City Hall Reporter

Work will start in October on the first phase of a $1.3 million sewer project in Victoria.

Phase One, designed to replace and modernize the existing trunk sewer running between Government at Wharf to Cook and May, will cost over $300,000.

The money for the project is already earmarked in the city budget.

Phase Two of the project, which takes the main sewer line from Cook, and May to Moss and Dallas, will also cost about $300,000.

But the second phase, says city engineer James Garnett, will actually follow Phases Three and Four in the over-all scheme.

"Phase Two was originally designed to run from Cook, and May to Dallas Road and then behind a retaining wall to Moss," said Mr Garnett. "But protests against the retaining wall appear to have scuttled that. When the main does go in it will have to go right through the green belt on the cliff top which is most unfortunate."

Gov't Officials Shy After Protests

The Capital Improvement District Commission had intended to erect a much-needed retaining wall at sea level to prevent cliff erosion.

But protests from citizens envisioning a "concrete beach" sent government officials shying away from the project.

As a result Phases Three and Four, the main line from Moss to the end of Clover Point and replacement and extension of the main outfall, will start and be completed in 1968 with a completely redesigned Phase Two scheduled for 1969.

The Moss to Clover Point section, with a new pumping station and comminuter, is expected to cost around $360,000 and the new extended outfall $250,000.

For the past several months intense research has been carried out off Clover Point to study tides and winds and the way the outfall discharge is affected.

Total cost of the research to date is $13,000.

"Phase One of the project is obviously the most essential," said Mr. Garnett. "The mains in that section are in the worst condition and should be replaced as soon as possible. After that we can leapfrog Phase Two and get on with the Clover Point part of the project leaving the digging up of the cliff top until the last and hooking it in to the completed sections."

The work planned does not change Victoria's participation in the over-all sewage disposal plan for the entire Greater Victoria area.

Studies are still being made to decide on changes required in the regional district board's letters patent before the master plan can become a regional function.

City Moves Cautiously on Big Plan

One of the major concerns facing Victoria the careful spelling out of each municipality's responsibility in the over-all program.

"What we are very concerned about is what happens if we endorse the program and then find, because of an epidemic, that say. North Saancih for argument's sake, requires sewers urgently," says Mayor Hugh Stephen.

"We have to be very careful that Victoria taxpayers do not finish up paying for sewers in other municipalities. As things stand now this aspect is not spelled out too clearly.

"While we are anxious to see things go ahead as quickly as possible, we also must make sure that they go ahead with the various areas of responsibility clearly spelled out.

"If for example North Saanich did need sewer trunk lines to alleviate an emergency situation and the cost of that project was $2 million, who would pay? North Saanich taxpayers certainly couldn't.

"Until we can get things like this cleared up I'm afraid there will have to be more delay."

Two Hippies Describe Ideals to Justice

VANCOUVER (CP) — It was the hippies' day in court Tuesday.

They appeared in B.C. Supreme Court in an effort to set aside an injunction a restaurant got against them in June.

Two of the hippies even got off a short recitation on hippie ideals to an attentive Mr. Justice G. F. Gregory of Victoria.

The injunction followed a wild night outside the restaurant when the hippies staged a peaceful demonstration against the restaurant's refusal to serve some of their number. Hoodlums turned the demonstration into violence, the court was told.

NORMAL DRESS

Rick Kitaeff, 23, and Pierre Coupey, 24, hippies dressed in "straight" clothing — suits, ties, shoes and socks, told Mr. Justice Gregory the word "hippie" and the image of hippies as always being dirty were created by the press.

Mr. Kitaeff said long hair and unconventional dress adopted by hippies were expressions of personal character.

In court to listen were a number of persons dressed in the ultra-casual style of hippiedom, and a man in a court jester's outfit.

There were laughs throughout the hearing.

NEW SOCIETY

Asked to define hippies, Mr. Kitaeff said: "It's a people movement, by people asserting their common humanity and a return to a tribal sense of community. It's an attempt to create a new society, a substitute for a society that is not entirely useful. Hippies are not trying to disrupt anything. They are expressing themselves and making changes within themselves."

Asked why he was wearing "straight" clothes, instead of hippie attire, he said: "I'm dressed this way today out of respect for the court."

Mr. Kitaeff, the court was told, has a BA from McGill University and an MA in creative writing from the University of B.C. He was given a $2,500 Quebec scholarship to write a book.

Mr. Coupey has a BA from McGill, taught English at UBC and received a $3,000 Quebec grant to study poetry in Paris.

The court will announce its decision today.

Japanese Children's Art At City Hall

A collection of Japanese children's paintings, presented to Mayor Hugh Stephen by Rear Admiral Seizaburo Hoshino, is on display in the Douglas Street entrance to City Hall.

The paintings were presented last Friday on behalf of the mayor of Yokosuka, near Yokohama. A collection of Victoria children's art was given to the admiral as a return gift to Yokosuka.

The Japanese paintings portray the scenery, industry and way of life in Japan.

Greater Victoria Centennial Society is sponsoring the display, which continues until July 28.

NEEDED FOR 'EVENT OF SPECIAL IMPORTANCE'

Special Quebec Hook-Up for de Gaulle Tour

QUEBEC (CP)—Roger Cyr, director of Quebec's office of information and publicity, said Tuesday permission has been received from the Board of Broadcast Governors for establishment of a temporary Quebec radio hook-up during the visit to the province of President Charles de Gaulle of France.

The hook-up of French-language stations would carry a commentary, sponsored by the office, on the last four hours of President de Gaulle's limousine trip from Quebec City to Montreal July 24.

There was no confirmation from the BBG in Ottawa that the permission had been granted.

In Montreal, Guy d'Arcy, scheduled to produce the July 24 broadcast, said he had seen a telegram with word of the BBG's approval.

Under broadcasting regulations, the CBC must give its prior approval before any CBC-affiliated station can be included in such a special network.

A spokesman for the publicly-owned corporation indicated that approval will be forthcoming only if the proposed Quebec broadcast does not cut into periods during which CBC affiliates have contracted to carry programming of the CBC network.

As proposed, the de Gaulle program would cover times when CBC in Quebec is committed to carrying CBC newscasts.

Mr. d'Arcy is executive vice-president of radio station CKLM in Montreal. The projected broadcast would go out through facilities of the privately-owned CKLM, which is not affiliated with the CBC network.

Mr. d'Arcy said he would have the final say as to the contents of the de Gaulle program.

Mr. Cyr said the de Gaulle visit, which begins July 23 in Quebec City, is an "event of great importance" and the provincial government has the duty of satisfying the rights of Quebecers to information concerning it.

A similar network could be created for all "important occasions," such as the opening of the legislature.

The July 24 broadcast would include live coverage of President de Gaulle's departure from Trois - Rivieres, the halfway point in his trip to Montreal from the provincial capital, and of his arrival in Montreal.

'YOU'RE LUCKY, PRINCE'

Crowds Dazzled By Royal Grace

By ROSEMARY SPEIRS

MONTREAL (CP) — "Gorgeous Grace" and her "lucky prince" won a pair of catchy new nicknames Tuesday, from jolly Expo crowes who broke previous morning attendance records in hopes of catching a glimpse of the visiting royal pair from Monaco.

Camera-clutching Expo-goers clambered over the outside of the tiny, open-air Monaco pavilion and then burst into cries of "you're gorgeous Grace" and "you're lucky prince" as the rulers of the sunny Mediterranean principality stepped out the front door.

A group of dazzled lady tourists from Akron, Ohio, started the cries as Princess Grace came into sight in a knee-length black dress covered with white, pink and blue flowers, followed by the tanned, smiling prince.

Crowds that swarmed 100 deep around the bright orange pavilion soon turned the sentiments to chanted nicknames as the royal cavalcade moved slowly through their midst.

Expo public relations officials reported that during two morning hours alone, 137,174 visitors passed into the big grounds — about 6,000 more than the previous June 27 record for a similar time period.

Scrambling under barriers and perching at every possible viewpoint, about 8,500 persons filled Place des Nations to overflowing during short inaugural ceremonies that were the most formal aspect of Monaco's special day at Expo.

A 21-gun slute boomed in hot but misty skies as Prince Rainier inspected a 100-man guard of honor from the Royal 22nd Regiment and then returned to his dais to be welcomed by Commissioner-General Pierre Dupuy as the ruler of a fairytale domain.

"Many people don't believe in fairies," the beaming commissioner-general said as he nodded to Princess Grace and two of her three children, Prince Albert and Princess Caroline. "But they are wrong.

"Many people don't believe in fairy tales. They are even more wrong because they have only to open their eyes to learn the truth."

At the Monaco showplace, the royal pair chatted casually in French and English as they drank champagne with pavilion commissioner Joseph Fissore and offered brief sips from their glasses to Princess Caroline and nine-year-old Albert.

While their parents lunched in tree-shaded Helene de Champlain restaurant, Albert, who sported a grey jacket and blue shorts, accompanied Caroline on a trip to the Garden of the Little Prince, an Expo centre for children located on St. Helen's Island near the restaurant.

The two walked demurely through the little park, paused to watch a puppet show and then joined the luncheon party. Caroline was wearing a tiny gold maple leaf on her white cotton coat.

Later Tuesday the royal party was scheduled to tour the Canadian and Quebec pavilions and take a trip on the minirail for a panoramic view of the fairgrounds.

Monacan Royal Pair Can Be Easily Seen

The Monacan royal family will get a typical visitor's look at Victoria as well as the deference accorded by the government during a 43-hour stay.

Princess Grace and Prince Rainier arrived by B.C. Ferries at Swartz Bay terminal at 3:40 p.m. Sunday and proceed in a seven-car cavalcade to Government House, where they, their three children and entourage will be guests of Lieutenant-Governor George Pearkes.

Their itinerary from then is full and will include formal and informal dinners, a government luncheon, mass at St. Andrew's Cathedral, a visit to Butchart Gardens, a look at city hall, Centennial Square and the Parliament buildings, and a private program for the children, Prince Albert, Princess Caroline and Princess Stephanie.

GOOD PUBLIC VIEW

Between each function, citizens will have a chance to see the party as they proceed — usually in a four-car group — along Victoria's main streets.

Incoming from Swartz Bay, the cars will use Patricia Bay Highway, Douglas Street, Fort, Cook and Rockland, and for mass at 5 p.m. the cars will travel on Rockland, Cook, Fort, Quadra, Yates and Blanshard, returning to Government House by the same route at 6 p.m.

The church service, after greeting by Mgr. M. T. O'Connell, will be a colorful one. Efforts have been made to have extra choirs and special music for the occasion.

Dinner at Government House will be informal.

Afternoon dress will be worn for Monday's ceremonies at the Parliament buildings, City Hall, Centennial Square, the Empress Hotel and Butchart's.

The route to the premier's office will be by Rockland, Vancouver, Burdett, Humboldt, Government and Belleville.

Premier Bennett and his cabinet will be presented to the party and the prince and princess invited to sign the golden book.

To City Hall the cars will travel on Belleville, Douglas and Pandora for welcome by acting mayor Ald. Cecil Parrott, and introduction to city council. Mayor Hugh Stephen will be away in Montreal attending a Canadian mayor's conference.

For the government luncheon at the Empress Hotel the cars will use Government, Fisgard, Douglas and Belleville, arriving at Causeway entrance.

Deputy provincial secretary L. J. Wallace will present the couple to Empress manager Leslie Parkinson who will show them to the royal suite.

The premier and Mrs. Bennett will escort them to thr luncheon table at 12:30.

At 2:10 the party leaves by way of Government, Humboldt, Douglas, West Saanich and Keating Cross Road for Butchart Gardens, and at 4 p.m. the cars return by way of Benvenuto, Keating and Patricia Bay Highway, then Douglas, Fort, Cook and Rockland to Government House.

This part of the drive will be slow to allow as many people as possible to see the couple easily.

Formal dinner will close the day.

Cars will return to Swartz Bay at 9:50 a.m. for the 11 a.m. sailing, going by Rockland, Cook, Fort, Douglas and Pat Bay Highway and are due to arrive at 10:40. The prince and princess will lunch on board.

Two members of the party and Princess Stephanie will leave on the 10 a.m. sailing in order to make plane connections for San Francisco at 1:20 p.m.

YOUTHS BEING USED TO AVERT RIOTING

Negroes in White Helmets Try to 'Cool It'

By ANTHONY J. DE NIGRO

NEW YORK (AP)—Fifty Negro youths wearing white helmets strode into Tampa's rioting Negro section last month in the name of law and order and helped end three nights of terror.

Tampa is having second thoughts about the "White Hats" now but the idea of sending boys and girls, some of them on the city payroll, to do a man's job is spreading almost as fast as are the number of U.S. cities hit by Negro rioting.

At least a dozen cities have either proposed or established a variety of programs, all geared to one aim: Get Negro youths into trouble spots to persuade their neighbors, young or old, to "cool it."

Some city officials even hope they can use the teen-agers as a kind of early warning system to head off trouble before it starts.

Tamp's initial success with its White Hats, some of whom had been among the rioters the night before they were drafted to help end the rioting, has been repeated in some fashion in at least three other disturbances in Dayton, Ohio, Hartford, Conn., and Plainfield, N.J.

PERMANENT GROUP

In Dayton, the corps of White Hats was so successful last month its 160 members are being organized into a permanent corps of "peace ambassadors."

In Plainfield, three young men, one a Black Muslim, were used last Monday night as couriers in a successful effort after three nights of disturbances to negotiate with warring Negro youths. They were the only avenue the city had to the rioters.

Is Hartford, Negro clergymen and other leaders skirted official channels and on their own sent young men into last week's riots to help keep things under control.

The Negro community has not completely accepted the youth corps idea. In Atlanta, the Dixie Hills Youth Corps, a band organized during last month's racial disturbances by local Negro leaders, was called traitors by the Student Non - violent Coordinating Committee.

In Lansing, Mich., where there were two minor outbreaks of rock - throwing and brawling with police early this summer, White Hats are looked on by some in the Negro community as "police stooges," says the director of the city Human Relations Council.

The second thoughts in Tampa came after the city hired five of the original White Hats on a permanent basis. In a latter minor outbreak of trouble, the five proved too scattered to be effective, the city said.

Many of the same leaders who praised the White Hats in June now believe five is an adequate number for cooling off any major outbreak.

Most communities interested in the White Hats idea are using more than five and some are paying their local youth corps.

In Des Moines, where 18 young Negroes work every night from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. moving around the tense Negro area, anti-poverty officials are paying them $1.50 to $2 an hour.

In Rochester, N.Y., 46 youths are being paid $1.75 an hour out of voluntary contributions from area industry. Teens on Patrol, which tours neighborhood centres, schools and other recreational areas, is expanding.

EXPERT REPORTS

Get-Tough Attitude Needed on Pollution

The provincial government has been urged to "get tough" wih sewage dumpers.

A report prepared for the Pollution Control Board Tuesday urged immediate action in the Fraser Valley.

It asked municipalities and industries to undertake immediate planning of sewage treatement—pulverizing and chlorinating of all raw sewage now being dumped into the Fraser River.

Existing permits for sewage dumping should be revoked if this is not done.

C. A. Goldie, an engineer who prepared the report, said the river no longer can accept crude wastes without pollution.

Bacterial contamination of the lower Fraser is undesirably high at this time and continues to increase in some areas," the report said.

At present about 20 municipal permits exist—all of them for untreated sewage.

A public hearing on the report will be held Aug. 21 to 24 in the valley area.

Council Threatens Vandal Suit

A new sign appeared in the youth council office window at 503 Niagara St. Tuesday.

The sign reads "thank you for air-conditioning and remodeling our office."

The window was smashed by hoodlums Sunday morning and the council has since been evicted.

"The note doesn't mean we are going to sit back and take it," council official Charles Barber said today.

"We want the police to act. We've given them all our information and we'll wait until the end of the week."

But he says that if the police don't act by then, the council will.

"We have the name of one of the men involved. They came and peered in the window Saturday afternoon and as they left, they were overheard planning the smash-up.

"A friend of ours took the licence number of their car."

But the biggest problem facing the council according to Mr. Barber is the finding of a new office.

"We have people out looking now. We don't want to go into another agency's office or someone's home, because that will make us dependent.

"We don't want to place others in the position of being identified with us just because they give us the use of their facilities."

The council must vacate the present office July 31.

Fleas Were Not Included In the Fare

NEW YORK (AP) — A passenger has sued Irish International Airlines for $200,000, charging he had "become a social pariah as a result of scratching" flea bites he claimed to have received on a Shannon-to-New York flight last July.

In a complaint filed Tuesday in U.S. district court, John J. O'Reagan said he "acquired unseemly visitors in the form of siphonaptera of pulex irritans"—fleas in a non-technical language.

An airline spokesman declined to comment on the case because it was before the court.

O'Reagan, was not in court to press his suit—his lawyer said he had returned to Ireland on Pan American World Airways.

TODAY'S GRAIN PRICES

WINNIPEG (CP) — Reports of good rains overnight and forecasts of moisture to come in several areas of the prairie grain belt contributed to an easier tone and irregular prices in flax and rapeseed on the Winnipeg grain exchange today.

Flax registered sharp declines but showed rallying tendencies as the session proceeded. Rapeseed eased off but showed firmness in later trade. Sales of oilseeds included some profit-taking.

Oats and barley trade was domestic. Rye showed a relatively steady tone, aided by upturns in Chicago rye and reports of deterioration to the North Dakota rye crop due to dry weather.

Lakehead prices for class two, IWA and domestic wheat all were unchanged.

CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat futures moved ahead about a cent on the board of trade today, marking their third straight advance.

The total advance in three sessions now is about five cents.

The principal reason for wheat's advance was the continued lack of precipitation in the north-central United States and in Canada's wheat belt.

MARKET SUMMARIES

Atlas Continues Strong

Reflecting anticipated announcement of a major gas find on Lake Erie, Atlas Explorations Ltd. rose to $2.82 from its Tuesday close of $2.79 in trading today on the Vancouver stock market.

During Tuesday's trading the stock advanced as high as $2.95.

Just before 1 p.m., Atlas president Dr. A. E. Aho announced the discovery at Atlas Lake Erie No. 1, drilled to 1,018 feet and recording an open flow of 1.07 million cubic feet per day.

The announcement said this is one of the largest ever completed in the Lake Erie offshore area, which supplies one-third of Ontario's natural gas.

The well has a 58-foot pay zone and is located about eight miles offshore in the company's 40,000 Pelee Island property.

A second well and pipeline are also planned.

Jersey was the leading trader in the mines and dropped .02 to .37 on 71,000 shares.

Mineral Mountain gained .03 to a new high of .40 but Coronet was off .08 to 1.17 and Lornex lost .10 to 5.90.

In the oils, Plains fell .01 to .69 on 90,700 shares and Bata was .02 weaker at .64.

AT TORONTO light trading and slightly higher prices characterized today's session.

Canada Permanent Mortgage, which wholly owns Canada Permanent Trust, advanced ¾ to 11⅛ and Eastern and Chartered Trust dropped 2¼ to 36 following Tuesday's announcement that Canada Permanent Trust and Eastern and Chartered Trust have agreed to merge.

Jefferson Lake, a Calgary-based sulphur producer gained 1⅛ to 41⅞. U.S. sulphur prices have risen about 25 per cent this year and average about $33.50 a ton. Foreign market prices are about $15 higher.

In other industrial activity, Canadian Imperial Bank rose 1½ to 67 and Algoma Steel ⅝ to 24⅝. Versatile Manufacturing slid 1¼ to 40.

Oil issues declined with Dome off 1⅜ to 63⅝ and Scurry-Rainbow and Canadian Superior ½ each to 46⅛ and 46½.

Uraniums moved ahead with Denison up 1⅛ to 72⅛ and Rio Algom ½ to 35½.

AT NEW YORK the market rally gathered renewed strength. Trading was heavy.

Xerox plunged more than 14 points as second-quarter earnings were higher but disappointment was expressed that they were less than those in the first quarter.

Du Pont bolstered the averages with a 3-point gain.

AT MONTREAL banks and senior mines scored impressive advances as the market continued to widen its gains in brisk trading today.

International Nickel climbed 1½ points to 107½ and Hudson Bay Mining one point to 64¼. Falconbridge Nickel, which has recently opened its wholly-owned Westfrob mine, won ¾ to 90¾ and Rio Algom ⅜ to 35⅛.

Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce was up ¾ at 66¼ and Provincial ½ at 45½. IAC, a finance company, added ½ at 23 and Montreal ⅜ at 13.

Among the senior oils, the two Home issues made headway, with the B stock one point higher at 24½ and the A ½ at 23¼.

AT LONDON the cautious attitude which has followed the revival of British economic and currency doubts was stimulated afresh today by the current weakness of sterling and the stock market presented an uninspiring picture.

Dollar stocks were usually better with Wall Street, although improvements were small. International Nickel was off the top, while other gains in Canadian equities were restricted to about one point. Noranda gave ground. Canadian banks hardly stirred. Home banks improved.

Pressure on sterling produced buying of gold shares and gains were extended after the London gold price rose to a six-year peak. Australian mines were often better and coppers also improved.

Mining Men Fear Loss Of Japanese Capital

By AB KENT
Business Editor

It may be only coincidence, American, Asian and African but Japanese interest in South mining countries seems higher since the appearance of the Carter report.

Mining men in Canada fear the threat of Carter recommendations will push Japanese development capital away from this country—especially B.C.—and into the higher-yielding, but less politically stable countries.

Kent

That is Japanese industry's prerogative, but to do so will mean the end of much development capital upon which the future growth of the B.C. mining industry is greatly dependent.

It is the Carter commission proposals that strike fear into the hearts of mining men.

The fear—often expressed individually and by spokesmen for mining associations since last spring—is forcibly backed up by B.C. and Yukon Chamber of Mines brief to the federal government just delivered at the weekend.

★ ★ ★

So far there has been no reaction out of Ottawa, but the reaction from the mining community in Vancouver is positive and favorable. The report minced no words, and was flavored with salty language of men whose lives have been devoted to prospecting, geology and engineering.

Basically, their message was this: without the risk capital, foreign development capital, depletion allowances and tax forgiveness periods that have helped build the mining industry, and which Carter proposals would end, the industry will stagnate and decline.

The mining industry cares not that Ken Carter visualized a new taxation environment for Canada when he made his proposals. What it cares about is staying alive in the face of international competition.

The brief reiterates that Canada is not mineral-rich compared with other countries, although Canadians have come to think of themselves as proprietors of a vast, even bottomless storehouse of resources.

★ ★ ★

Incentives have been the stimulants to mineral production, the brief says. At present, Canada stands ahead of Australia, South Africa and Britain in the value of cash put into mineral production.

Mineral development takes place where the chances for profit seem best, no matter where in the world.

An executive of a B.C. company with strong Japanese connections said the effect of Carter proposals is being felt throughout the mining world, notwithstanding the assurance that there would be at least 3½ years further life under the existing tax system.

This executive said the trend by Japanese interests toward South America, Africa, Russa. India, parts of the Middle East has taken place "in the last six months or so from the time of the Carter report."

Chamber of Mines manager Thomas Elliott attests to the nervousness of Japanese interests. He said:

"I've had several Japanese companies in here on a couple of occasions and spending considerable time studying the threat of the Carter report. They are definintely concerned about it.

"They are already involved in putting up money on a variety of deals . . . in B.C. and the Yukon Territory."

He said the mining executive's argument is "reasonably well taken," although he agrees it could be coincidence that the Japanese are looking abroad.

Diversification of investment is a Japanese trait, and it could be that Nippon has for the time enough eggs in the Canadian basket.

A Simon Fraser University structure has been singled out from scores of North American buildings for recognition by the Prestressed Concrete Industry of Chicago.

A combination water tower and B.C. Hydro communications centre on Burnaby Mountain, the structure was designed by Erickson-Massey Architects of Vancouver, and is one of five Canadian projects chosen for distinction in a field of 11 winners.

The others were Habitat '67 in Cite du Havre, Montreal; Toronto city hall; a new grade separation bridge near Edmonton, and a power plant at the University of Saskatchewan, Regina.

The awards jury said the SFU tower was an ingenious solution to the problems of both a microwave transmitter-receiver and a 750,000-gallon water tank.

One of the West's major insurance corporations has named George T. Richardson as vice-president.

Mr. Richardson was elected by Great-West Life Assurance Co., of Winnipeg, for which he has been a director for 12 years. He is a partner in Richardson Securities of Canada and president of James Richardson and Sons, and Pioneer Grain Co. Ltd.

Canadians Play Role in African Economic War

DAR ES SALAAM (CP)—The unilateral declaration of independence by Rhodesia in November, 1965, has forced interior Africa to shift its economic eyes to the east and west from the south.

Canadians are playing a part in efforts by the emerging African-ruled nations to win an economic war with white governments in Rhodesia and South Africa.

The 1965 move by Premier Ian Smith's government in Rhodesia is having a profound effect on Tanzania and in particular this capital and its harbor facilities.

Tanzania, now primarily an agricultural nation of 10,000,000 and one of the poorest of Africa's new independent countries, is benefitting from the ideological battle between blacks and whites because of its location on the east coast of Africa just below the equator.

For countries such as Zambia it provides a door to overseas markets.

Zambia, now linked with Dar es Salaam by the 1,000-mile Great North Road, seeks to improve transportation links. In the offing is a new 1,000-mile railway costing $300,000,000 and already beyond the planning stage is an 800-mile, eight-inch oil products pipeline running from here to Zambia's copper belt, about 200 miles north of Lusaka.

Zambia's need for oil after the 1965 Rhodesian independence move was filled initially by an international airlift, which involved the RCAF among others. This has been replaced by tankers plying the Great North Road, an expensive proposition in all aspects.

The road is being upgraded to make it an all-weather highway and prevent disruption of shipments during the rainy season.

The pipeline will augment the tanker system and will have a daily capacity of 400,000 barrels. Consultant on the project, being built by a European consortium, is Bechtel Corp. and one of its supervising engineers is Ray Christopher, 36, a native of Vancouver.

Christopher, who joined Bechtel after graduating in civil engineering from the University of British Columbia, is setting up his headquarters in Dar es Salaam.

He was working in Lusaka when Bechtel, North America's largest engineering and construction company in terms of business—$860,000,000 in 1966—assigned him to the project.

"There really will not be too many tough physical problems to overcome," said the slim, six-foot engineer.

Edmonton Group in Bid To Buy Westbank Control

EDMONTON (CP)—J. L. Bodie of Edmonton, senior vice-president of the Bank of Western Canada, said today a group he heads has offered to buy control of the bank from British International Finance Ltd. of Toronto.

Mr. Bodie declined to reveal the amount of the offer made last week by his group, but indicated in an interview that it would be close to $3,200,000.

The proposal calls for BIF to sell 45.5 per cent interest in York Lambton Corp. to the Edmonton group. York Lambton holds 433,000 shares in the bank, or 50.1 per cent of its stock.

Associated with Mr. Bodie in the Edmonton group is D. M. Ritchie, president of Sydie, Sutherland and Ritchie, Edmonton investment dealers.

Mr. Bodie said if his group is successful in bidding for control of the bank, it would be interested in moving head offices from Winnipeg to Edmonton. However, this would not necessarily be done immediately. He said a decision on the offer is not expected until next week.

James Coyne, president of the bank since its inception, was removed from that post Monday but remains a director. He was replace by W. Thomas Brown, a Vancouver investment dealer.

•

Optimism Shown By New President

VANCOUVER (CP) — W. Thomas Brown, the west coast investment dealer in the eye of the Bank of Western Canada hurricane, says he wouldn't have taken over the presidency if he wasn't reasonably optimistic about its chances.

Mr. Brown, also president of one of Vancouver's largest investment firms, Odlum Brown and T. B. Read Ltd., doesn't have too much to be optimistic about.

He got the temporary presidency of the bank by default when the directors fired colleague James E. Coyne at a meeting here Monday night.

Mr. Coyne, former governor of the Bank of Canada, had declined to submit his resignation.

The changing of the guard comes amid reports of a major reshuffling and imminent collapse of the whole structure.

IMPRESSIVE RECORD

Like his predecessor, Mr. Brown packs an impressive set of qualifications for his new job — be it temporary or permanent.

He is the immediate past president of the Investment Dealers' Association of Canada, a tightly-knit group of the nation's corporate elite that has had a major impact on fiscal legislation over the years.

Prior to entering the bank last year, Mr. Brown had spent most of his time building his Vancouver company into a first-class investment house with his father, Col. A. M. Brown, brother Malcolm and son Michael.

The family first entered the investment field in 1920 with Maj. Gen. Victor W. Odlum of Vancouver, and substantially expanded operations after the Second World War.

Last year the company merged with T. B. Read Ltd. to form the second largest investment house in the city.

A greying, open-faced 54 years old, he has little in common with Mr. Coyne except both were Rhodes Scholars.

COT ENCOURAGEMENT

Mr. Saxton, the third corner in the bank triangle, is one of the founders of the Laurentide Financial Corp. He said he was encouraged by several bank directors to come up with a plan to prevent it from winding up.

"If the directors of the bank are open to consideration of a new approach to put the bank into operations instead of being wound up, I am certainly interested in discussing the matter with them" the 47-year-old financier said.

"As I am not a shareholder or a director of the bank at this time it would be presumptucus of me to make any further statements.

"If I had not been encouraged by a great many directors to find a plan, I would not be wasting five minutes of my time on it."

14.4% Increase Seen in Imports

OTTAWA (CP) — Canadian imports rose 14.4 per cent in the first three months of this year, largely because of heavy dependence on foreigh-made manufactured goods.

Imports of automobiles, trucks, and motor vehicle engines and parts alone were up 36 per cent from comparable 1966 figures, and accounted for one-fifth of Canada's total imports for the period.

Final import figures for January and March, released Tuesday by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, added up to $2,522,992,000 compared with $2,204,798,000 in the same months of last year.

March imports alone were up 4.1 per cent to $864,174,000 from $830,412,000 in March last year.

Imports of automotive products ran to $514,413,000 in the three months this year, compared with $379,001,000 in the same period last year.

Export figures available in the same detail for the first quarter of 1967, but earlier figures have shown a whopping increase in Canadian exports of automobiles and parts under the U.S.-Canada free trade agreement. The government is counting on the agreement to reduce the drain on Canadian dollars going to the U.S. for cars and parts.

But there were other major boosts in Canadian imports this year. Purchases abroad of equipment and tools were up 28 per cent in the first quarter.

Imports of miscellaneous manufactured products ranging from medicinal supplies to photographic goods were up 25 per cent.

In both these categories, the government expects full implementation of the Kennedy Round of tafiff cuts recently negotiated in Geneva will have a beneficial effect on Canadian trade.

TO CUT IMPORT DUTY

The Canadian import duty on machinery generally will be cut to 15 per cent on July 1 next year, from the present rate of 20 or 22½ percent. This will reduce the cost of imported production machinery and encourage Canadian manufacturers to build new plants and lengthen production runs, so as to lower domestic costs and compete more effectively in world markets.

However, officials aren't predicting precisely what effect the Kennedy Round will have on commodity trade.

The January-to-March figures showed that $1,541,916,000 of the total imports amounting to $2 522,992,000 were imports of fully-manufactured goods. The figure was 21.2 per cent higher than in the same three months of 1966.

And of the $1,541,916,000, U.S. imports accounted for $1,278,750,000. This was an increase of 22.3 per cent over the comparable figure for last year.

'Nobody Would Take It as a Gift'

WASHINGTON (AP) — If a new evening newspaper is launched in New York City it will be published only by an existing newspaper, Jack R. Howard, president of Scripps-Howard Newspapers, testified at a Senate hearing Tuesday.

"I don't think any outsider is going to come in," he said.

Howard was testifying before the Senate anti-trust and monopoly subcommittee in favor of legislation providing anti-trust exemption for merger or joint operation of financially failing newspapers.

He said such an exemption is "vital to the health of the newspaper business."

Publisher Roy McDonald of the Chattanooga, Tenn., News-Free Press disagreed. He said no matter what name is put on a joint newspaper operating arrangement "it is still a monopoly and, at this time, no competing media can replace it."

Howard, who is also general editorial manager of Scripps-Howard Newspapers, said his organization is participating in seven of the 22 joint newspaper operations in the U.S. In each, he said, a joint arrangement "has made possible the preservation of two independent newspapers."

Howard told the senators that operators of the defunct New York World Journal Tribune tried to give it away before publication halted but "nobody would take it as a gift."

He said the offer was contingent on a guarantee of continued publication by a new owner and on his assuming the liabilities of the World Journal Tribune. That evening newspaper halted publication May 5.

Salada Shares Offer Announced

MONTREAL (CP)—The Montreal Stock Exchange says it has been advised that Slater Steel Industries Ltd. has made an offer to purchase 250,000 shares of Salada Foods Ltd. at $11.50 a share.

Shares will be taken on a pro rata basis if more than 250,000 shares are tendered with closing on Aug. 9, said the statement.

Broken Freighter Still Upright

PUGWASH, N.S. (CP) The 3,545-ton lake freighter New York News remains upright at its moorings in the harbor here despite a submerged midsection. The 359-foot ship had loaded about 5,000 tons of salt early Tuesday when it buckled without warning.

The bow and stern of the vessel, owned by Quebec and Ontario Transporting Co. of Thorold, Ont., remained afloat although its midsection was beneath the water.

George Corbin, marine superintendent of the Ontario firm, which is a subsidiary of Ontario Paper Co., arrived late Tuesday to review the situation. Earlier in the day a crew of salvage officials from Foundation Marine Ltd. in Halifax arrived to assess damages and determine what could be done with the freighter.

The New York News arrived here Monday to load 6,000 tons of salt for Montreal. Capt. George Moffatt of Toronto and the 20-man crew were forced to scurry to safety, many dressed only in night clothes when the ship cracked at 3:30 a.m.

It was built in 1956 and was originally owned by Beaconsfield Steamship Ltd. The vessel was lengthened by 90 feet in 1959.

Loose Ends Tied Up In Railway Dispute

OTTAWA (CP) — The last loose ends from the 1966 railway strike were tied up Tuesday by binding decisions on a contract for 21,600 shopcraft workers.

As it turned out, the seven shop groups won no more from an arbitration board than other railway employees have settled for in mediation since last fall.

The three-man board headed by retired Ontario Appeal Court Justice Wilfrid D. Roach laid down terms almost precisely matching a Nov. 30, 1966, agreement rejected by a vote of the shopcraft membership.

Along with almost 100,000 non-operating workers and trainmen, the shopcrafts will enjoy a basic wage increase of 24 per cent over three years.

The board has given them only one minor change in fringe benefits — extra three-day bereavement leaves as necessary should more than one member of an employee's family die in any one-year period.

All railway unions involved in the one-week strike late last August and early September entered mediation talks with H. Carl Goldenberg of Montreal after Parliament cut off the strike with legislation.

OFF-TRACK SHOP . . . . . . OPENS IN ONTARIO

'Bets Taken Here'

WELLAND, Ont. (CP)—Pari-mutuel Brokers, an off-track betting establishment operated by Bob Gruhl, 34, of Port Colborne set up office Tuesday without police interference.

Provincial officials said legality of the operation may depend on its size.

The operation involves taking bets from customers who can't get to the Fort Erie racetrack and placing bets through the pari-mutuel machines at the track, charging a fee for the service.

A Port Colborne restaurant owner, Gruhl said his service charge is on a sliding scale—50 cents to place a $2 bet at the track, ranging up to $5 for a $100 bet.

The crown attorney's office declined comment until Crown Attorney Donald Scott returns from vacation. A spokesman for the Attorney-General's department said in Toronto:

"Whether it's technically illegal would depend very much on the circumstances. But anyone who engages in this in a big way is running awfully close to the law."

"There is nothing illegal about it," Mr. Gruhl said in an interview Tuesday. "We are running a legitimate business. We spent several weeks checking the legal aspects before opening."

Police Chief D. M. McArther would say only that "the police have confirmed it is operating."

About three months ago, the Ontario Supreme Court dismissed a conviction for bookmaking against a Niagara Falls taxi driver who was taking money for others to Fort Erie and placing bets on their behalf.

Losers Were Also Winners

VANCOUVER (CP) — Little Red captured the featured seventh race at Exhibition Park Tuesday, but even the losers were winners during the special day of racing celebrating Canada's Centennial.

The $3,100 purse was divided among the seven-horse field.

Little Red had the race all to herself as she led from the post and captured the 6½-furlong event by 2½ lengths. The winner with Jockey Rogelio Trejos up, received $1,500 as her share of the purse.

Major Presto collected $500 for second place and Permano $250 for third. The other entries received $225 or $200 purses.

Johnny Longden was a special guest and he saw son Vance's double victory as trainer of winners Littlebitofsugar in the first and Coolie How in the fifth.

In the supporting feature, the sixth, Joe Baze rode Dieppe's Boy for brother-owner Carl Baze and finished first.

Illness Takes Toll

CHULA VISTA, Calif. (AP)—William T. Pop Westrope, 71, a well-known figure in horse racing for many years, died Monday after a long illness.

He was the father of Jackie Westrope, national riding champion of 1933 who was killed in a fall in 1958. Jackie was later named to the riding Hall of Fame.

Canadian Stars To Play Palmer

WOODBRIDGE, Ont. (CP) — Arnold Palmer will play an exhibition match against three of Canada's top golfers July 31 over the course where the 1967 $200,000 world golf championships will be played later this year.

Palmer will meet George Knudson of Toronto, Nick Weslock of Burlington, Ont., and Gary Cowan of Kitchener, Ont.

The 18-hole exhibition will be played over the Toronto Board of Trade course in this community, 20 miles northwest of Toronto.

Whistling Canuck Wins Two Contests at Bisley

BISLEY, England (CP) — A tall, thin French-speaking Canadian who wears sunglasses and likes to whistle while he shoots won two of the top events Tuesday at the annual Bisley rifle meeting.

Pte. Carol Potvin, 26, of Chicoutimi, Que., scored 46 out of a possible 50 to win the Secretary of State for War Trophy and 129 out of 150 to take the rapid-firing aggregate competition for the Broad Arrow Challenge Cup.

WINNING SCORE

He had six bullseyes and four inners in the war event, a 10-shot competition fired at 500 yards, and 18 bulls in the aggregate, a three-stage shoot fired at 200, 300 and 500 yards.

In the Broad Arrow Challenge Cup, Potvin's 129 out of a possible 150 was equalled by Sqdn. Ldr. R. W. B. Simons of the Royal Air Force. But, under the rules, the Canadian won because he had the better total at the longest range, 500 yards.

The Secretary of State for War competition, first 500-yard shoot in this two-week test of Commonwealth marksmanship, had more than 300 entries. Fourth place went to Frank Lefevre, 39, of Chatham, Ont., a corporal stationed at the Royal Canadian School of Signals, Kingston, Ont.

Meanwhile, the Canadian Army squad entered its first team event on another range and finished in third place in the Mappin, 12 points behind a British team from the Royal School of Signals.

The Mappin is a three-stage shoot, with each member of a four-man team firing 10 shots each at 200, 300 and 500 yards.

The other major competition of the day was the Wantage, a 10-shot event at 300 yards. It was won by a British Army corporal who nipped Sgt. Fritz Hirt, 32, of Picton, Ont., by one point.

Hirt, who has been shooting competitively for 12 of his 14 years in the 1st Canadian Guards, had 48 out of 50 possible.

Fern Named Coach

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Red Wings have selected Fern Flaman, a former National Hockey League player and coach last year of Los Angeles Blades, as coach of Fort Worth Texas Wings.

LIL JONES SPARKLED—AS AMATEUR

Victoria's Lil Jones did extremely well in the Pacific Northwest Archery tournament at Portland on the weekend—strictly as an amateur.

Mrs. Jones' winning amateur grand aggregate score of 1,713 was 18 points better than the winning score in the professional event. Mrs. Jones did not compete in the professional competition.

Score posted by Fred Usher of Victoria, second in the men's clout competition, was 259.

Pesky Bunting Attack Chokes Saanich Hopes

By TONY COSIER

Trail started its drive to retain the British Columbia Babe Ruth baseball championship Tuesday at Royal Athletic Park.

Not noisily. But effectively.

Trail nibbled away steadily with a pesky bunting attack to provide fastballing Don Mainland with a quiet 4-2 victory over Saanich Evening Optimists.

Trail scored twice to take the lead in the second inning on two squeeze bunts, both beauties, by Terry Raisio and Russ Paterson.

Trail scored again on a sacrifice bunt to take a 3-1 lead in the fifth. John Ansatigue sprinted home on Gary Little's squeeze.

Fast Ansatigue had reached base with a slick drag bunt past the mound.

LAMOREUX SCORED

Trail added another insurance marker in the sixth on singles by pinch hitters John Ircandia and Terry McDougall and an error by third baseman Ross Casey.

Rick Lamoureux brought Saanich within a run of the defending champions in the fourth. Lamoureux spanked a single to centre, stole second, advanced alertly to third on a throw to first base and scored on a wild pitch.

Lamoureux tried to steal second again in the sixth, but Trail catcher Ernie Schleppe threw him out with room to spare.

In Tuesday's evening game, Vancouver Inter-Community's Jim Rentmeester set down Capilano 4-2 on three hits.

COSTLY PASSES

Rentmeester struck out 10, one less than losing pitcher Randel Goch, but walked only two.

Goch walked eight betters, four of them during Inter-Community's three-run rally in the fourth. Mike Bowman drove home two runs with a single in that frame after Brian Wilson had scored on a passed ball.

Tonight, traditional rivals Victoria Babe Ruth and Saanich Evening Optimists tangle at 6 p.m. Both have lost one game. The loser will be eliminated.

Coquitlam met Fraserview today in an afternoon contest.

Hornung Seeks Answer

HOUSTON (AP)—Paul Hornung today began a new series of medical tests aimed at determining whether he will continue his career with the National Football League's new club at New Orleans.

The famed halfback told a news conference the decision on whether he will play with New Orleans Saints will be based on reports from tests at the Mayo Clinic and Houston and tests to be taken later at the Scripps Clinic at La Jolla, Calif.

"The final decision will be made by the Saints and myself," he said. "I should imagine I will know within two weeks one way or another."

PAUL HORNUNG

Hornung said he has had difficulties with his left arm and shoulder since he was jolted severely when tackled last October while playing with Green Bay Packers in Chicago against the Bears.

"My neck was jammed back and, at times, I couldn't use my left arm," he said. "But I started exercising with weights six months ago and doctors have indicated continued work will restore 100 per cent use."

Hornung minimized reports that he already has been told that another severe jolt in a football game could cause serious and permanent injury.

"I don't know where those reports get started," Hornung said. "I've been told nothing of that nature. The only reason I'm here is to get a very thorough examination. We want two or three opinions and will weigh the results carefully after all reports are in. If they indicate no serious risk I'll continue to play football."

LADDER DERBY

Ron Ekstrom Bags Beauty

Ron Ekstrom won the weekly trophy for the eighth week of action in the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association centennial ladder derby.

Ekstrom caught a 19-pound, eight-ounce salmon. E. McKenney registered the second largest catch of the week, a 16-pound, eight-ounce fish.

Other top catches this week were by W. Hincks (13 pounds), Betty Warren (eight pounds, nine ounces) and Bud Lamb (eight pounds, two ounces).

Hidden weight winners were Dennis Tucker, Wayne Allen, J. Cove, G. Warren and George Kazakoff.

DAMAGED AT EXPO

Finland Requests Return of Statue

MONTREAL (CP) — Officials are engaged in an effort to keep the statue of Finnish Olympic runner Paavo Nurmi at Expo 67's Olympic House following a request that the statue be returned to Helsinki.

Henk Hoppener, director of Olympic House, said today a meeting of Expo, Finnish and Olympic House officials was called immediately following Monday's request that the statue be sent back to Finland.

Mr. Hoppener said he was hopeful Finnish authorities will allow the 1,400-pound bronze statue — damaged by vandals last week—to stay until the close in October of the world's fair.

Mr. Hoppener said Expo officials have given assurance that greater security efforts will be made to discourage vandalism and that adequate security has been provided since the monument was restored on its pedestal last Thursday.

Timely Molson Blows Bring Down Red Lion

Extra-base hits with runners on base by Jim John and Jim Wilsor helped Molsons trounce Red Lion 11-6 Tuesday in Senior Men's Softball League action at Central Park.

John blasted a three-run homer to put Molsons in front 6-0 in the top of the second. Wilson plated three runs with a bases-loaded triple in the fifth, his second hit of the contest.

Bob Marsden drove home two runs while collecting three of the winners' ten hits off Al McKenzie and Dennis Beaulac.

Winning pitcher Ed Kubek stroked two hits. Third baseman Bob Lowe singled twice and scored twice.

Tom Walker plated two runs with two hits for the losers. Phil Bottrel connected for two safeties. Doug Wilson and relief pitcher Dennis Beaulac each singled once.

Four Molson errors helped Red Lions score their six runs.

Horse-Shaving's Just One of Many Problems

WINNIPEG (CP)—Excuse me, senor, but where do I go to shave my horse?

Capt. Bill Cheadle thought he had heard them all. After all, as head of the reception battery for the Pan-American Games, he expected to meet some unusual problems.

Take the case of Emil Rachio, the 7-foot-2 basketball player for Brazil. It's one thing to hunt up an oversize bed, but where do you find one that size?

"You don't," said Gen. Antonio de Castro, Rachio's chef de mission. "Put the mattress on the floor—we run into this problem all the time."

Then there was that planeload of athletes which really got out of hand. Baggage went one way and the athletes went several others—one even cleared customs and immigration twice.

DUMMY RUNS

"We had two dummy runs before we went into this operation and we laid down 18 unusual problems that could occur. That flight went through all 18."

As a result of these problems, Capt. Cheadle now has a unit meeting all planes, whether they are supposed to have athletes aboard or not; he has people whacking together oversize beds, and he has made certain that there is an interpreter alongside every customs and immigration man—whether he needs it or not.

Oh, do you want to know about that chap who wanted to shave his horse?

REASONABLE REQUEST

Perfectly reasonable request—it's winter in Chile and the horses arrived with heavy fur coats. The job was a cinch in shed row over at Assiniboia Downs Racetrack.

What's ahead for the resourceful Capt. Cheadle?

"As soon as the Games are over, they're transferring me to Halifax. I should be just in time to lend a hand on the Canadian Summer Games of 1969."

SHAWNIGAN OARSMEN IN SWEEP

LONDON (CP)—Oarsmen of Shawnigan Lake School, near Victoria, B.C., made a sweep Tuesday of three exhibition events against Westminster College on the Thames at Putney.

The Shawnigan first crew won its race over a 1½-mile course by 2¼ lengths in 7:25 while the second crew scored a 30-length win in the same time.

Shawnigan's David Motter of Calgary easily won a singles event over a one-mile course.

TESTS AT GAMES . . . . . . TO PROVE FEMININITY

Girls Must Be Girls

WINNIPEG (CP) — James Daly, executive director of the Pan-American Games Society, says the Games are good for the girls.

After all, he explains, damsels don't want to be saddled with a masculine reputation. And men have been known to impersonate women in international competition.

Compulsory physical examinations are on tap this week for 100 Pan-American Games track and field females. They are designed to prove femininity beyond any doubt.

"And if there is any doubt after the physical examinations," says society physician Dr. Max Avren, "we'll have to do laboratory tests."

Other women athletes in the July 23-Aug. 6 Games are exempt from examination. In their case, says Daly a doctor's certificate is accepted as proof of sex.

"But the international track and field association isn't satisfied with the certificates so three female doctors will examine the girls."

Time Has Arrived For Numbers Fun

Rocks Tackle Salmonbellies At Arena Tonight

Let's play the numbers game.

It's important if your name is Dave Unwin and you want to get Victoria Shamrocks in the Inter-City Lacrosse League playoffs.

Shamrocks are tied for second, one point behind Coquitlam, tied with Vancouver.

That's today. Tuesday, Shamrocks and Vancouver were tied for the lead. Then Adanacs edged Vancouver 5-4 and the game of musical chairs was on again.

Shamrocks have eight games left to play. Four of them are with New Westminster Salmonbellies. And that's where Dave Unwin begins playing with numbers.

Rocks can fall on their bellies if they fail to whip the Salmonbelles. The teams meet tonight at Memorial Arena at 8, do a repeat Thursday at Surrey.

COULD UPSET CART

The same combatants have one more home-and-home series, the last of the schedule, Aug. 9-10.

If Shamrocks win all four (and still lose four games to Coquitlam and Vancouver) New Westminster is odd man out even if they win their remaining games with Coquitlam and Vancouver.

But a Victoria loss to NW and a successful splurge by Salmonbellies could upset the Unwin cart.

Only defenceman Ed Kowlayk is expected to be AWOL for tonight's game. He has a bad back, injured in Shamrock's 10-5 conquest of Coquitlam last Saturday.

For the first time in their last four games Shamrocks will have No. 1 goalkeeper Barry Forbes back. He has been out with a severe shoulder injury.

Rookie Bob Rezanoff (ReZANS-off) scored the winning goal for Adanacs Tuesday night.

His effort climaxed a comeback by Adanacs, down 3-0 to Vancouver early in the first period.

Adanacs kept pecking away, got excellent goalkeeping from Joe Comeau, and wrapped it up with the rookie's goal.

Victoria's Bigelow Seeks Senior Title

HALIFAX (CP) — Winning the 1967 Canadian senior golf championship won't be easy and Jack Littler is the first to admit it.

The 59-year-old Toronto stock broker who won the title by three strokes last year at Brantford, Ont., was among 100 golfers competing as the 54-hole tournament opened here today on the par 67 — Ashburn Golf Club course.

"It'll be tough," Littler said after carding a three-over-par 70 in a practice round Tuesday, his best score in three trips around the 5,322-yard layout since Sunday.

Littler, who plays at Port Credit, Ont., said six par-three holes on the short, narrow and hilly Ashburn course give him the most trouble.

TOUGH FIELD

"If you get the par-three's going all right, you'll come in at 70. But they're pretty tough."

Just as tough will be the competition in the sixth annual event sponsored by the Royal Canadian Golf Association. It includes six-time Ontario amateur champion Phil Farley of Toronto — a freshman senior at the age of 55 — and hole-in-one specialist Dr. George Bigelow of Victoria.

Chisox Work To Prevent High Scoring

AUGUSTA, Me. (AP)—Shortstop Jerry Adair of Boston Red Sox says his old team, Chicago White Sox, keeps baseballs in a musty place to deaden them.

He said in an interview the musty air makes the balls heavy.

"When you hit those balls, they don't go like a normal baseball."

Adair also said the White Sox field usually is doctored by letting the infield grass grow to slow down hard-hit grounders.

For these reasons, he said, scores of games played at the White Sox home field are usually low.

'NO ILLUSION'

Vulture Glides Back to Perch

By Associated Press

The vulture was ready to glide back to his favorite perch today after a rare distance flight that picked apart Philadelphia Phillies.

Relief specialist Phil Regan, who earned the "vulture" tag last season by swooping out of the Los Angeles bullpen for 14 late-inning victories, beat Philadelphia 2-1 Tuesday in his first start in nearly two years.

"I have no illusion. I still like the bullpen," Regan said after working seven strong innings in his National League debut as a starter. "But this start did me good. It helped me straighten myself out."

It also prevented the Dodgers from folding up after they dropped the twi-night doubleheader opener 5-0 to Rick Wise, who scattered four hits for his first major league shutout.

Regan's clutch performance kept the eighth place Dodgers one game in front of New York Mets, who trimmed Houston 4-2 and sent the Astros into the cellar.

Pittsburgh Pirates gave new manager Danny Murtaugh a winning sendoff with an 8-6 verdict over San Francisco before the Giants came back to take the doubleheader nightcap 3-2. Chicago Cubs beat Atlanta Braves 9-3 and moved within one game of first place St. Louis Cardinals, beaten by Cincinnati Reds 7-4.

Dodgers Len Gabrielson provided the margin of victory with a two-run homer in the second inning.

Strange Double-Play Tripped Twins

Jim Nash stumbled over Harmon Killebrew again, but it was Killebrew and the Minnesota Twins who fell flat on their faces and missed another chance to share the American League lead.

Killebrew slammed his 27th homer and fourth off Nash this season, but he and the Twins got their lumps later on a controversial play that insured last-place Kansas City Athletics 5-2 victory over Minnesota Tuesday night.

Nash combined with Jack Aker for a three-hitter, keeping the Twins a game behind league-leading Chicago White Sox.

The White Sox held their lead despite a 6-3 loss to California Angels who climbed within 3½ games of the Sox.

BOSTON, DETROIT ADVANCE

Boston Red Sox and Detroit Tigers also moved up. The Red Sox closed within 2½ games by beating Baltimore Orioles 6-2 behind Jim Lonborg and Earl Wilson pitched the Tigers within 3½ games by stopping Washington Senators 5-2.

Ken Harrelson had doubled home two unearned runs and scored a third in the first inning, giving Nash a 3-0 lead.

It was 4-2 when the decisive play occurred in the seventh. Killebrew had walked, took second on a balk and tried to score on Tony Oliva's single, but Killebrew missed the plate as he and catcher Phil Roof collided and Roof tagged him out. Roof then threw out Oliva trying for second, completing a strange double play.

Sooke Hotel Stops Kings

Sooke River Hotel toppled King's Hotel, 9-3, in a Stuffy McGinnis Softball League game at Heywood Avenue Park Tuesday.

Bill Brown drove home two Sooke runs with a triple. Larry Neil plated two more with a single.

Pete Songhurst homered for the losers.

Beverly's Dad Abandons Plan

LONDON, Ont. (CP) — Jack Klass, of Woodland Hills, Calif., decided Tuesday not to seek an injunction to stop play of the $18,000 Sunningdale Open golf tournament in which his 10-year-old daughter, Beverly, was refused entry.

Klass had threatened to stop the tournament, which starts Thursday, if the Sunningdale officials refused to let her play.

But it was Lenny Wirtz, director of the Ladies Professional Golfers Association, who earlier Tuesday personally accepted the responsibility of deciding to reject Beverly's entry.

PREPARED STATEMENT

The girl's entry was filed by Toronto lawyer R. Allan Eagleson. He was immediately handed a prepared statement rejecting the entry.

At a press conference, Eagleson said Wirtz gave no reason for rejecting the entry.

Eagleson said Mr. Klass reconsidered legal action and withdrew his threat to stop the tournament through court action because "there is already litigation pending in the United States."

Wirtz, golfers Kathy Whitworth, Mickey Wright and Sandra Haynie and the Pleasant Valley Golf Club in Sutton, Mass., face a $1,250,000 suit by Klass for refusing his daughter entry into the LPGA championship at Sutton last week.

Eagleson said a sponsor has agreed to keep Beverly in Ontario for one week and it is expected she will play a special match against sports or television personalities within that time.

BOB BURROWS
. . . conference all-star

Burrows Picked For Hoop Squad

CALGARY — Bob Burrows of Victoria was named to the 12-member Pan-American Games basketball team Tuesday by coach Ruby Richman.

Burrows was the most valuable player in the B.C. High School Boy's basketball tournament when Oak Bay won the title in 1965.

Since then he has been chosen as a conference all-star while playing for Spokane Community College.

Also named from B.C. were Gene Rizak and Ian Hunter of Vancouver and Dave Murphy of Kamloops. Vancouver's Bob Barazzuol has been named as one of the two alternates.

Rounding out the squad are Bob Inglis and Robin Fry of Calgary, John Cook and Fred Ingleson of Winnipeg, Bob Croft of Hamilton, Barry Howson of Sarnia, Doug Shaver of London and Richie Spears of Halifax.

RELAX, IT'S ONLY A LIVE MORTAR, JIM

CARNOUSTIE, Scotland (AP) — Jim Hay, 30-year-old Scottish amateur golfer, played his ball where it lay in a bunker Monday, inches from an unexploded bomb.

Hay, competing in the Scottish Amateur Championship, found the three-inch mortar sticking out of the sand at the 14th hole.

He swung his club, shut his eyes, chipped out and went on to win his round.

An army unit took the bomb away and exploded it. They said it had been there about two years and apparently had gone off target from a nearby mortar range.

Alice Keeps Lawn Bowling Championship

Alice McConnell of Beacon Hill Greens won the champion of champions title for the second straight year during Greater Victoria Ladies' Lawn Bowling Association competition at Oak Bay Greens.

Joan Turner of Vic West was runner up.

In novice singles competition at Beacon Hill, Mrs. I. McGillivrary of the CPR Green finished first ahead of runner up Joyce Hall of Oak Bay.

Mrs. McNeill, a Vic West bowler, won the 'B" novice event.

Greater Victoria Ladies' and Men's 40th annual B.C. and West Coast tournament gets underway July 31. Ladies will compete at Beacon Hill Greens, men will play at Oak Bay.

WOMEN'S GOLF

Leader of Tourney Didn't Make Team

VANCOUVER (CP)—Three golfers from Vancouver and one from Kamloops were named Tuesday to represent British Columbia at the women's inter-provincial golf tournament in Saskatoon, August 8.

Gayle Hitchens, Barbara Renwick and Janet McWha, all of Vancouver, and Marilyn Palmer of Kamloops were chosen after two qualifying rounds of the B.C. Women's Close tournament here.

Susan Brown of Vancouver is leading the tournament, but she failed by two points to make the B.C. team after the selection committee considered previous scores.

Miss Brown had a 75 Tuesday, as the tournament prepared to move into match play today. She has a 149 total.

Miss Hitchens has 74-77—151, Miss McWha 74-78—152, Miss Palmer 77-77—154 and Miss Renwick 83-74—157.

Other leaders include Helen Marlatt of Chilliwack at 158, Mrs. J. A. Smyth of Vancouver, 159, and Mrs. R. E. Bartley of Vancouver, 161.

Jonathan Wins —By a Chair

Don Leo Jonathan was awarded a main event victory during Tuesday's professional wrestling action at Memorial Arena.

Opponent Chris Tolos was disqualified after hitting Jonathan over the head with a chair.

In other matches, Don McLarty downed Bay Boy Shields, Roy McLarty defeated Ike Hansen and Rocky Johnson pinned Red McNulty.

'Hall' Operating Aid Sought by Hamilton

HAMILTON (CP)—City Council voted Tuesday night to ask the Canadian Football League for financial aid to operate the proposed Football Hall of Fame.

Council took the step despite a letter from acting CFL president Alan McEachern of Vancouver, stating the league is not in a position to offer financial assistance except to pay for a curator.

Council agreed to pay for heat, light and janitorial services and waive $12,500 in annual taxes if the CFL handles other expenses.

Hamilton's option on the hall of fame lapsed last spring when the city approached the CFL with a new proposal to build the museum at a site on Civic Square.

In Toronto Con. Allan Lamport said Tuesday the hall of fame belong in Toronto.

Soccer Star Electrocuted On Bicycle

NOVARA, Italy (AP)—Italo Alaimo, a 29-year-old Italian soccer star, died Tuesday night, apparently of electrocution while pedaling on a medical bicycle during a physical examination.

Police sealed the room and ordered an autopsy to determine the cause of death.

Dr. Angelo Monteverdi said checks would be made to determine if the accident was due to a short circuit on the electrically-operated machine.

Al Bennett Leads Tars With an 81

Al Bennett posted an 81 to take low gross honors at the Royal Canadian Naval Officers' Association monthly tournament Monday at Uplands.

Low net winner was Lieut.-Cmdr. John Bottomley, who shot a 68. Nine-hole gross winners were PO. Tom Murray and Ted Langlois. Murray carded a 43 on the first nine, Langlois scored 39 on the second nine.

Low net winners for nine holes were PO. Bill Walters (net 35) and Lieut.-Cmdr. Bill Sergeant (net 33).

Cmdr. Smith shot a net 71 to win the beginners' prize.

Lieut.-Cmdr. Baumgardnur and PO. Phillips from USS King posted identical 79 gross scores to lead visiting American seamen. Leading Seaman Reuschlint of USS Chevalier shot a low net 75.

Frazier, Chuvalo Stoked With 'Get Him' Passion

NEW YORK (AP)—"I'll be out there smoking. That means working every minute, every second. I know nobody ever knocked him down but there always is the first time," says Joe Frazier, unbeaten No. 2 heavyweight boxing contender.

"It's do or die. I know I've got to win. I'm in the prime of life and I have the style to beat him. I think I can knock him out," says George Chuvalo, oft-beater Canadian champion from Toronto.

Frazier, winner of 16 straight, is a 2½-to-1 favorite over Chuvalo when they meet tonight in a 12-round match at Madison Square Garden.

Because both are aggressive fighters who like to walk in and punch, a crowd of 15,000 is expected to pay over $100,000 to see the bout which will be televized nationally on the CBC-network. Ring time is 7 p.m. PDT.

IGNORE TOURNEY

Both fighters are passing up the World Boxing Association's eight-man tournament to determine a successor to Clay who was stripped of his title by the WBA and the New York state athletic commission. However, the winner will be in a good shouting position, especially if it is Frazier, the 23-year-old former Olympic champion from Philadelphia.

"If George wins, he'll claim the world championship in New York," said Irv Ungerman, Chuvalo's manager. However, there was no indication that New York's commission was thinking that way.

"No, I won't claim anything if I win," said Frazier. "There's quite a few men in there—Karl Mildenberger, Floyd Patterson, Ernie Terrell and quite a few. As soon as they settle what they're trying to prove (all the men he mentioned are in the WBAA tournament) I'll be waiting, just like Old Man River."

The Garden fight means a big pay day for both fighters. Each gets a $50,000 guarantee with an option of 25 per cent of the gate and television money.

Chuvalo, 29, has fought them all in his 62-bout career covering 12 years. He has won 47, lost 13 and fought two draws but proudly boasts he never has been down.

'Coded' Commercial Drops From View

LONDON (Reuters)—A television commercial for indigestion pills beeping out an S O S in Morse code has been withdrawn from British screens after it started coast guardsmen looking for a ship in distress.

The commercial used three dots, three dashes and three dots—the Morse code for an S O S.

Somehow, the coast guardsmen picked up the signal after freakish atmospheric conditions and mistook it for an emergency at sea.

TANTALIZING PROFESSIONAL PRODUCTIONS

Festival Stages London Theatre

By AUDREY JOHNSON

Contemporary British theatre, in terms of acting and stagecraft only, is on view in Vancouver this week.

The small professional company starring in the Vancouver Festival at Queen Elizabeth Playhouse is London's famous Mermaid Theatre, born only 12 years ago at Puddle Dock, Blackfriars.

Actually the program is a bit disappointing considering the Mermaid's reputation and the uniqueness of the occasion of their first visit to the West Coast.

It is doing only two short plays by George Bernard Shaw—The Man of Destiny, a good witty play about Napoleon which is quite well known, and O'Flaherty V.C., which is neither.

In fact, O'Flaherty struck me as being little more than a dialogue on the hypocrisy, frustration and disillusionment of war, both personal and world.

And to see so superb an actress as Ireland's noted Marie Kean on stage for perhaps 10 minutes of the total two-hour performance, was to say the least, tantalizing.

The fact is that the two plays are beautifully acted, directed with a flowing economy of style (every possible dramatic nuance is coaxed from O'Flaherty) and imaginatively mounted.

There is a memorable performance from a young actor called Alexander Victor Henry, who plays both Napoleon and O'Flaherty without allowing the slightest overtone from one to cloud the other.

He etches two portraits of military figures 100 years apart and each looms as a separate and compelling personality.

Any theatre buff going to Vancouver this week should take a look at The Mermaid, for when all's said and done, it provides a refreshing sample of the superior professional theatre product.

It is playing each night with a matinee on Saturday, its final day.

GEORGE FAIRFIELD

A veteran of forty years in Show Music, George Fairfield is the pianist for the sparkling Butchart Gardens Revue, "Just for Fun," playing in the great Stage Show Garden every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 8:30 p.m. He has, indeed, been with the show since its inception in 1964. A native of Ontario, he moved to Regina and came to Victoria in 1958. He has done teaching, led dance bands and given innumerable performances on radio, including CBC. George personifies the ideal combination of talent and dedication.

'HARD WORK GONE INTO THIS PLACE'

Family Watches as Experts Argue Over Value of Land

REEVE CURTIS
. . . interested

By ROGER STONEBANKS

A pioneer Victoria family is watching quietly this week as experts place different values on their land.

They are George and Jack McRae, and Jack's son George, whose family property in the southern part of Saanich almost bordering the city includes Cedar Hill golf course.

The land is almost as big as Beacon Hill Park, in an area surrounded by residential development. The golf course, which is leased out, covers just over half the property.

George and Jack McRae, and their sisters Kate and Helen, are children of George McRae who came to this area from New Zealand in 1882 and bought the present land.

Saanich municipality has expropriated the property and a three-man arbitration board is hearing testimony this week in Victoria Law Courts on its value — and the price Saanich must pay for it.

Two years ago ratepayers approved a referendum which included money to purchase the McRae Estate. The idea behind the acquisition was to dedicate and maintain a green area in the midst of urban development.

$750,000 OFFER

Experts are being called to give testimony as to the value of the land. It is understood Saanich has offered $75,000 but the McRae family has asked for $2 million.

The 1965 referendum allowed $1 million for a land acquisition program, chief point of which was purchase of the McRae Estate.

The family property has been used extensively for dairy farming. In the early 1920s the golf course came into being, said George and Jack.

40 TITLES

About 130 acres is involved but one source said there are about 40 different titles in the property.

Asked if they felt a little sad at this week's turn of events, George and Jack replied:

"We could never have found a better place to live. A lot of hard work has gone into this place."

But while Saanich has expropriated the land and the arbitration board will decide the price, it is understood the municipality has included in its offer continued use for the McRaes of their family home off Ocean View Drive.

MAJOR DEVELOPMENT

At Tuesday's hearing, a multi-million-dollar development proposal was outlined for the property.

Mlanden Zofkin, Nanaimo real estate expert called by the McRae's lawyer Robert Price, put a fair market value on the land at $2.65 million.

But 30 to 50 per cent more than this could be realized by selling in three stages over six to nine years.

A figure of $3.5 million could then be "reasonable," he said.

The development proposal he outlined included 2,000 dwelling units for about 5,000 persons in apartments, high-rises and town houses.

The site would be "ideal" for this and it was "rare" in any place to find such a large piece of open land surrounded on all sides by homes.

HOTEL, GOLF COURSE

Other features of the proposal included a 100-room hotel on a 20-acre hotel-motel site, 10 acres of shopping area plus a large part in the centre for apartments and a nine-hole golf course.

All parking would be underground and "only seven trees" would need to be cut.

Mr. Zorkin testified in the morning and was later closely cross-examined by lawyer Louis Lindholm, representing Saanich.

Before Tuesday's hearing started, Mr. Price denied a report in Monday's Victoria Times that the McRae family agreed on the principle of selling the property.

WAVERING

Will Curtis Seek Liberal Nomination?

By ROGER STONEBANKS

Speculation has arisen again that Saanich Reeve Hugh Curtis will enter the senior political arena.

The latest report said the reeve will seek the federal Liberal nomination in Victoria constituency at the next election.

But this morning he said it is "nothing as definite as that.

"I haven't really made up my mind about December" (municipal election).

Earlier speculation, extending over the last year or two, was to the effect that Reeve Curtis would oppose Progressive Conservative MP George Chatterton in Esquimalt-Saanich constituency.

Mr. Chatterton is a former reeve of Saanich.

"I seem to be the subject of speculation frequently and this is part of the game when you are a young man," the reeve said today.

"Senior government service somewhere along the line interests me, possibly some time in the future. But I've reached no firm conclusions, even about December."

He said he is aware of the "frequent speculation" he would oppose Mr. Chatterton but this is "not correct."

Reeve Curtis was elected at a byelection in October, 1964, and won by acclamation at the last election at the end of 1965.

Divers Recover Girl's Body

PARADISE, Wash. (AP) — Navy scuba divers Monday found the body of a five-year-old Bremerton girl in a narrow ice undercut at the bottom of a Mt. Rainier snowfield.

Kelly Louden was in the same long, tunnel-like aperture where her mother, Mrs. Melvin Louden, 26, and another sister, Karen, four, died in a fall Saturday evening.

The two other bodies were recovered Sunday afternoon.

Plane Goes Down But Pilot Safe

AALBORG, Denmark (Reuters)—A Canadian F-104 Starfighter jet crashed off the northeast Jutland coast Tuesday but the pilot catapulted to safety, the Danish Air Force reported.

The pilot, Flt. Lt. Garry F. King, was in Denmark from Lahr Air Base, West Germany, on a week-long exchange with a Danish pilot.

In Ottawa, the defence department identified Flt. Lt. King as a 25-year-old native of Humboldt, Sask. He ejected from the plane without injury and was picked up from the sea by helicopter and returned to base.

Saanich May Set Five Dog Limit

New Bylaw Being Drafted To Control Dog Nuisance

By ROGER STONEBANKS

Saanich residents can be expected to be limited to five dogs.

And a system of ticketing will likely be introduced to replace impoundment.

These were two of the highlights of a 3½-hour special meeting of the municipal lands and planning committee Tuesday night.

Forty persons showed up at the municipal hall to hear discussion on a proposed new animals bylaw, made public last February, and recommended changes to it.

The committee will recommend to council that no person shall be allowed to keep more than five dogs over the age of six months on any parcel of land in Saanich except in kennels for boarding and breeding, veterinary clinics and premises for day care for animals.

There is no restriction at present on the number of dogs or cats any householder can keep.

The original proposal also called for no more than four cats over the age of four months except where the parcel of land exceeds five acres or a permit in writing is obtained.

Municipal planner Tom Loney recommended the figure of four be reduced to three in line with a comment by the SPCA but the committee did not reach this stage before adjourning.

Saanich is revamping and updating its present animals bylaw chiefly with a view to controlling the problem of roaming dogs.

1,200 Nuisance Complaints

SPCA manager David Beeching commented during the meeting that his organization gets 1,200 telephone calls a year from the public complaining of the dog nuisance.

Mr. Loney, in a six-page report covering 36 areas of the original proposal which may require change, said "perhaps the biggest problem" with impounding dogs is the "excessive demand" on municipal staff particularly if court action is involved.

"Court action not only ties up the poundkeeping staff, and thus reduces their efficiency in performing their many functions, but certain courts have in the past been unsympathetic to action brought before them," he said.

The SPCA brief recommended a system of dog ticketing. This has been used in other areas and "it is our understanding that it has been highly successful."

It would operate in much the same way as traffic tickets. The dog owner would have to go to the municipal hall and pay the fine.

Lands and planning committee recommended this system be established with a warning ticket first. After that fines would start at $1 for the first offence, $5 for the second, $15 for the third, $30 for the fourth and $60 for the fifth.

Other recommendations by the committee included:

- Decreasing to half an acre from one acre the size of any parcel of land on which a person may keep three farm animals or less;
- The question of differentiating between work horses and riding ponies will be referred to the planner and solicitor;
- Prohibit dogs on all public beaches June to September inclusive;
- Permit dogs in provincial, regional and municipal parks, and public beach areas in those parks, between October and May, providing the dogs are under the effective control of a responsible person;
- Dog licence fees (over age six months) shall be $5 for each male, $5 for each spayed female and $24 for each unspayed female, but spaying shall constitute the licence fee for that year.

Mr. Loney said many of the letters and briefs received, including those from kennel clubs and the SPCA, pointed out that a "major portion" of the dog problem was caused by unspayed females.

The licence fee of $24 in this case approximates the cost of spaying.

The committee, which heard many comments from the public at the meeting, covered 10 of the 36 areas outlined by Mr. Loney for attention. Other points will be covered in future meetings before the subject goes to council.

Caravan Planned

WINNIPEG (CP) — A motor caravan promoting the Yellowhead Pass route through the Rockies will leave here Aug. 17, and go through the pass to the west coast, it was announced Tuesday. Some 200 cars are expected to participate.

HOME GARDEN

Keep Leaves Green To Further Growth

By HILDA BEASTALL

Hilda

Most of us home gardeners realize that our plants grow leaves because the leaves are necessary to the further growth of the plants.

Few plants are able to produce any kind of flower, fruit or seed if leaves are absent, yet we sometimes are reckless in our care of the leaves after the flowers have faded.

Right from the time the early crocuses fade, through the season to late fall asters, we must strive to keep the leafy parts of the plants as green as possible for several weeks.

One of the most frequent questions in this connection refers to peony foliage. "When is the right time to cut down my peonies?"

There is no right time. The only time to cut the peony foliage is after it has started to turn from its normal color to a bronzy-grown or maroon.

Until that time, the green leaves are busily manufacturing food for storage in the roots over winter, so that flowers and foliage will be produced next year.

The same thought must be applied to all flowering perennials. We grow them primarily for the beauty their flowers bring to our gardens, with the foliage effect also as an important consideration.

When the blossoms are just about finished, we improve the appearance of the plant if we cut off the flowered portion.

This means just what it implies, cutting off the portion which has flowered. Nothing more.

Allow all the leaves to remain on the plant, and keep up the supply of water to the roots.

In some cases, according to their kind, perennials will produce a few more side shoots of blooms later, but the chief result of this treatment is to build up the roots enabling them to continue their beauty over many years.

What we need is a three-day rain, and not merely for the sake of brown-patched suburban lawns. There are no sprinklers in the woods, which have gone dry for so many parching weeks that even the green timber has lost its cool.

When a weather situation of that sort develops, the results are predictable. Out where the woods take over, the forest fires begin to pop.

Fire is Vancouver Island's ancient enemy. At least once, many centuries before the white man arrived, our woods went up in a conflagration of vast proportions that ran and spread and renewed itself for months. Lightning was the probable agent; and even today, on a coast relatively free from lightning strikes, electrical storms still torch off the rare blaze.

But man with his matches, his tobacco and his industrial gear is fire's most potent ally. If proof is required, look to Skirt Mountain where the fire that indirectly claimed two lives smoulders within the confining bulldozer breaks in spite of this week's showers.

★

Before our Forest Service could summon up such potent winged aids as the Mars amphibians with their mighty dollops of water, firefighting was a job for the ground crews entirely.

Like the infantry, these are the men who carry the war to its conclusion; and a tough and dirty fight it invariably is.

Often as not, the fellow who toils on the firelines has only the vaguest idea of how the over-all battle goes.

He grubs at his sector of firebreak in a fog of acrid smoke, sweat mixing with the charcoal that smears his face. A bulldozer rumbles somewhere below, and off to the side, a power saw topples another snag.

It's a rugged job, and if the fire is a big one, moving fast with embers blowing out before it to set new spot-fires, it can become all of a sudden dangerous.

Let the wind increase, and a fire of that sort can boil over the breaks in minutes or even seconds. Then it's a matter of grabbing tools and getting out—and from a new stand, starting in all over again.

In the depression days, plenty of fires were started by workless men, just for the chance of a hellish job that paid two-bits an hour.

We don't get many of that sort now, and the fire from industrial causes has declined in the years since truck logging replaced the railway shows.

A carelessly-rigged line that rubs against a stump or snag can still cause fire trouble. But one potent hazard departed the woods with the logging locomotives.

★

One such machine became the object of learned and interminable argument in a civil action launched after a particularly destructive up-Island fire. The plaintiff insisted that a spark from the locie's great diamond-shaped stack had thrown the spark—the owner firm defended the iron horse no less vigorously.

They couldn't fetch the locomotive into court entire, but there on the exhibit table sat the monstrous black smokepot, menacing the court reporter who sat nervously jotting shorthand in its shadow.

This while counsel tussled, and logger witnesses came and went.

The snowy-haired head of the plaintiff firm's legal battery came at last to his peroration.

"And now," he declard, "let us review the scene. Here comes this spark-throwing locomotive, snorting along the grade . . ."

The judge upon the bench stemmed the flow with lifted hand.

"At this point," he said mildly, "I suggest we could all use a little snort."

And to the relief of all—especially the court reporter—he ordered a recess forthwith.

Couchiching Trip Awarded Uvic Student

A scholarship to the annual Couchiching Conference on Public Affairs has been awarded to a fourth-year English student at the University of Victoria.

Gary Perkins, employed by the department of buildings and grounds at the university, will attend the conference at Geneva Park, Ontario, July 29 to Aug. 4.

Mr. Perkins has been active in university affairs. In the past year, he has been chairman of the Canadian University Service Overseas committee and a member of the national executive of CUSO.

TRAVELLED

He has travelled widely in Europe, the Middle East, and South America, and has studied at a university in Guadalajara, Mexico.

Mr. Perkins intends to continue his studies at the University of Geneva in Switzerland next year.

The Couchiching Conference is a public affairs conference held annually under the joint sponsorship of the CBC and the Canadian Institute on Public Affairs.

The theme of the conference will be "Image or the Issue."

The role of public relations, advertising and the communications media in the presentation of political issues and in the making of politicians will be discussed.

Minor Injuries In 2-Car Crash

Two people were treated at Royal Jubilee Hospital and discharged following a car accident at Kings Road and Cedar Hill Road this morning.

Mary Diemer, 1300 Queensbury, received cuts to the head, and Heidi Schmid, 1450 Wende, suffered cuts to the knee and bruises when their car collided with that driven by Brian MacDonald, 3994 Birchwood at about 8 a.m.

TALKS START MONDAY IN HOSPITAL DISPUTE

Mediation talks aimed at breaking the deadlock between major hospitals and their stationary engineers will start Monday.

Ed Callan, international representative for the International Union of Operating Engineers, said conciliator Jack Sherlock will bring the parties together at the labor department office in Vancouver.

The engineers are in a legal position to strike St. Joseph's and Royal Jubilee Hospitals, as well as four hospitals in the Vancouver area. Chief issue is wage parity for third-class engineers.

Strike Vote Due For Tendermen, Shoreworkers

Three thousand fishing industry shoreworkers and 750 tendermen will vote shortly on whether to strike to back wage demands.

The vote includes 50 to 60 shoreworkers at the B.C. Packers plant at Ogden Point, in Victoria.

Shoreworkers will ballot July 28 while tendermen—who work on packers bringing fish from the grounds to the plants—will start voting Friday and continue to July 28 in Vancouver and Steveston.

The government - supervised vote was called after shoreworkers and tendermen, members of the United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union, rejected a conciliation officer's recommendations.

For shoreworkers, he recommended 15 cents an hour for women and 17 cents for men over two years with an extra five cents for tradesmen. The union seeks up to 75 cents an hour more on rates ranging from $2.21 to $3.03 an hour.

Tendermen turned down an eight per cent recommendation and seek 20 per cent on rates ranging from $396 to $532 a month.

A union spokesman said the fishing companies offered 28 to 30 cents an hour more for tradesmen over two years, 18 cents for male general labor and 16 cents for female.

Ringers Are Swingers

By DERYK THOMPSON

Happiness is a little bell that jingles.

At least that's what it is in Victoria where hippies and university students have taken to wearing small "happy bells" as the latest fad.

Worn on a shoelace or colored piece of string around the neck the wearer is guaranteed instant happiness and joy. The louder they jingle, the happier you are.

Like granny glasses they are a must for the hippy set.

They cost only 25 cents but it is important that you don't buy one for yourself. Part of the mystique is that someone must buy the bell for you to inspire properly the happy feeling.

"It's an effort to improve communication," one wearer explained. "If you like a person and want them to feel happy, give them a bell. It's the jingling they can make that gives the happiness."

The fad started about a month ago with the "swinging set" at the University of Victoria. It caught on instantly and spread to the hippies who love to pad around barefoot jingling and tinkling.

The small bells are imported from India.

A local antique shop dealer does a booming business in the bells and says he has sold close to 1,000 during the last month.

"We have to keep ordering more," he said. "They sell like wildfire."

Action Group To Become More Active

A meeting of the Saanich Action Committee will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Prospect Lake Community Hall.

Chairman Roy Ralfs, 5024 Echo, said representatives of district ratepayers associations have been invited to the meeting with the idea of "making this a useful committee" and the meeting will also discuss the Hartland Road garbage dump.

He said the new group "intends to associate itself with the whole of the municipality" and not be concerned only with problems of one area. Any Saanich resident or taxpayer may join the committee.

On the garbage dump, a private operation just outside Saanich, Mr. Ralfs said this means of disposal is not satisfactory.

Man Fined $25 For Assaulting Night Watchman

Wayne Wallace, 21, of Vancouver, today was fined $25 in central court when convicted of assaulting a night watchman at the Empress Hotel.

Wallace pleaded not guilty to assaulting Dan Polson, 20, early this morning.

Polson told the court the accused, who had been drinking, asked him to get a cab. When he failed, Wallace asked him if he wanted to fight, threatened him with his fists and hit him on the cheek with the palm of his hand, said the complainant.

The accused denied striking Polson.

He said he would have used a closed fist because "the guy who hits first always wins."

Magistrate Ostler said the person who hits first can also lose by ending up in court.

Harbor's Raw Sewage Called 'Disgraceful'

Odorous Welcome To Garden City

By JIM HUME

That isn't ozone tourists whiff as they ferry into the Inner Harbor.

It is raw sewage flowing turgidly but steadily past Fishermen's Wharf.

At low tide this morning the stench was almost unbearable.

The once-clean beach was deep with black slime.

Senior medical health officer for Greater Victoria, Dr. J. L. M. Whitbread, had only the tersest of comment on the situation: "Disgraceful. Absolutely disgraceful. But the sewage disposal system throughout the area is disgraceful."

Cab driver Roger Montague viewed the outflow, tasted the gaseous air and expressed disbelief.

"How can they let this happen?" he asked. "They spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to get tourists here and then greet them with this.

"If I wasn't here to see it and to smell it, I wouldn't believe it.

"That stuff is flowing right into the Inner Harbor. Human beings can be pretty disgusting at times."

City engineer James Garnett said there was little to be done about the odor until the main trunk sewer line is built from Government and Wharf and across the city to Clover Point. (See Page 6.)

SEPTIC TANKS

"The area at present is served by two community septic tanks," he said. "We can't do much about the smell but there certainly should not be raw sewage coming from the outlet. A crew will be down within the hour to see if anything has gone wrong."

During a brief visit to the area this morning raw sewage was visible on the surface of the water.

"It could come from the shipping," said Mr. Garnett. "It is impossible for us to control the use of marine toilets."

Once the main trunk line is built a pumping station will be erected in the James Bay area to take the sewage from the Fishermen's Wharf area and feed it into the main line for disposal via an extended outfall at Clover Point.

'WE'RE STUCK'

"Until then I'm afraid we're stuck with the septic tanks," said Mr. Garnett. "We have had them for many years and we just have to be patient a little while longer."

Dr. Whitbread was in no mood for patience.

"Something must be done and soon," he said. "Conditions are intolerable."

"He's right," said Mr. Montague. "When you look down there and smell that filth, Victoria doesn't look much like the garden city we are always boasting about."

Loan Okayed On New Home For Retarded

Nanaimo has been selected as the site for a pilot project to provide accommodation for retarded children.

John R. Nicholson, the cabinet minister responsible to Parliament for the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, said here this afternoon that the federal government had approved a loan of $43,188 to the Nanaimo Association for Retarded Children.

"It is unique in that it is the first loan of this kind to be made in Canada," Mr. Nicholson said.

The money, repayable over 25 years at 6¼ per cent interest, will be used to build an eight-bedroom hostel-type house for retarded children.

The loan was made under a section of the National Housing Act which provides for long-term loans to non-profit corporations to house low-income individuals or families.

MORE TONIGHT

Rain Reduces Fire Hazard But Not Much

Six hundredths of an inch of water, hardly enough to make your newspaper soggy when it lands on the step—that was our rainfall.

But spread over the forests it helps reduce the hazards a bit.

The weatherman expects a few more showers tonight before the current disturbance moves on. Then it will be fun weather again for vacationers for the weekend—and worry weather for the forestry fire patrols.

SIX-WEEK DROUGHT

We've had no extensive rain for six weeks according to the Gonzales weather station. There was 1-100 July 8, 8-100 June 26, 32-100 on June 22, 12-100 June 21 and 12-100 on the 20th.

Believe it or not the overnight rainfall hampered fire fighting operations in Goldstream area.

There are still 160 men, 15 bulldozers and six tankers up in the hills there mopping up the fire that began Sunday on Skirt Mountain.

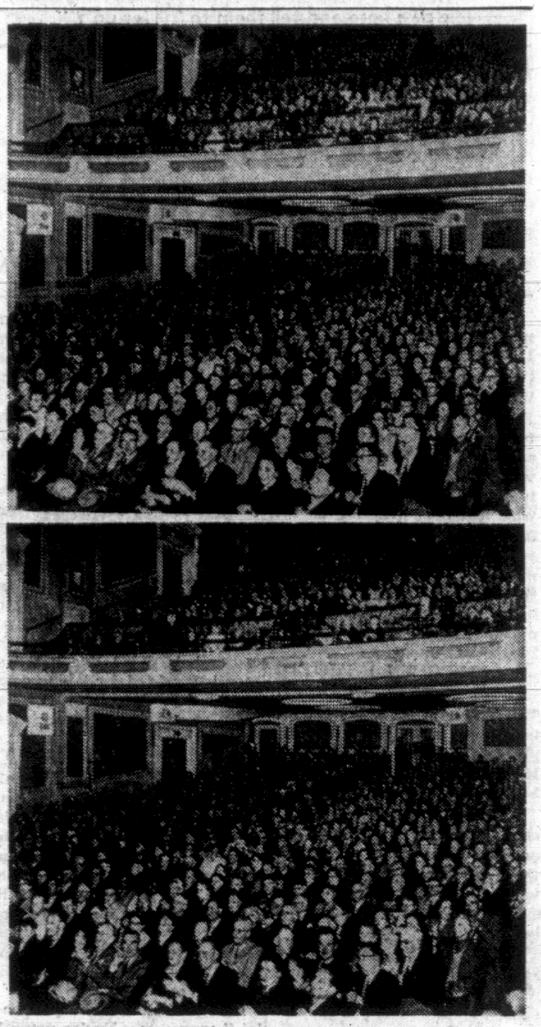
TOO WET

Today they had planned to burn off some scrub areas to widen fire guards. But because of the overnight moisture they couldn't burn today.

Instead they are using the time widening four to six miles of guard trails encircling the fire area.

Forestry officials say they expect the mopping up operation will continue for about five days.

Meantime, holidayers are reminded that all campfire permits are still under suspension, although they are allowed in fireplaces in provincial campsites.



Two Full Houses Awaiting Curtain

If you filled every seat in Royal Theatre twice over—that's how many people are waiting admission to Victoria's two major hospitals.

But the 2,657 people waiting for the curtain to go up on some new ward space aren't resting in red plush comfort.

At least 247 of the patients are in the urgent category. This is one step down from emergency—a status that gets you in immediately.

●

Urgent cases, who could be experiencing "discomfort" can expect to wait from a few days to a few weeks.

The balance of the crowd are "elective" cases and many of them claim discomfort too.

The earliest they can hope for admittance—March 31 next year at Royal Jubilee and Dec. 10 this year at St. Joseph's.

Meanwhile, Greater Victoria municipalities and the province are conducting a $50,000 survey on the bed need.

Municipal leaders believe that when the survey is complete, when the talks are completed on cost-sharing, when the money bylaws are passed, when the plans are drawn and when the construction of more hospital facilities is complete—several years will have passed.

$500 Worth of Books Won By Uvic Student for Essay

A third-year French honors student at the University of Victoria has won one of two prizes offered in an Expo competition.

Leonard Schmidt of Osoyoos won the award in a contest for the best essay written in French by an English-speaking student.

The competition called for an essay on the contribution made by a French man of letters to "Man's World."

Mr. Schmidt chose Antoine de Sanit-Exupery whose novel, "Terre des Hommes," provided Expo with its theme.

The essay was judged by a committee in Paris, and Mr. Schmidt was awarded $500 worth of books by Hachette-Larousse, the international publishing company.

Mr. Schmidt is studying at the McGill Summer School.

Impaired Driver Jailed One Month

Mamilien Pinneau, 522 Hecate, Nanaimo, today was sentenced to one month in jail and his licence suspended for 18 months when he pleaded guilty in central court to impaired driving.

He admitted two previous offences, one in 1954 and one in 1963. Both occurred in Nanaimo.

Pinneau was found asleep in his car which was parked four or five feet from the curb.

Ask The Times

Q. What creatures are shown on the Canadian Centennial coins? R.C.H.

A. Canada goose, wolf, cougar, mackerel, rabbit and dove.

Q. Where are the Chinatowns in Port Angeles and Seattle? P.L.

A. Seattle's Chinatown lies west from Union Station and its centre is about on Maynard between 7th and 8th Ave. There is no Chinatown in Port Angeles.

Q. Was Aldridge Street named after anyone in particular? V.B.

A. Probably the poet, says a city historian. All the streets in that area are named after poets, Shakespeare, Freshette, Service. There appears to be no local connection.

Anyone wishing a question answered is invited to send the question along to the Times, addressed to "Ask the Times" Editor. Questions and answers will be published daily.

WATER SKI CHAMPIONSHIPS

They're Off and Jumping Tonight

Looks peaceful, doesn't it?

But it will be jumping tonight.

Water ski jumping, that is.

In fact, this spot at Elk Lake will be the scene of the most spectacular display of water acrobatics ever seen in this area.

Jumping, skiing barefoot, kite flying—even a bevy of beauties on water skis—will form part of a two-hour program staged by the Canadian Water Ski Committee.

The performance will take place just off the swimming area at Hamsterley Park at the north end of Elk Lake. Most of the evening will be taken up with displays of skill and some of the events promise a fair amount of thrills.

But a chorus line on skis will provide beauty as well as talent for the show. And there will even be clowns for children's entertainment.

DEAR ABBY . . .

Infidelity Hurts Entire Family

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am the mother of two wonderful sons. Until now I thought they were both very happy with their wives and adorable children.

Today one of my sons came to me with tears in his eyes such as I had not seen since he was a little boy. He confided that he had discovered that his wife had been meeting another man.

I had no daughters and loved my son's wife very much. I feel that I cannot face her again, yet it is hard for me to alienate myself from the grandchildren. Please help me.

BROKEN HEARTED

DEAR BROKEN HEARTED: Tell your son to keep cool and talk out with his wife the problem raised by her infidelity. If it is to be resolved short of a broken home, they must do it.

If it cannot be, your relationship with the grandchildren will depend upon which parent has their custody. And if it is the wife, the challenge to your sympathy and understanding will be great.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for 25 years to a man who has never given me a penny!

I have worked in order to pay for our house, car, and all the furnishings. He buys some groceries and thinks he is a model husband because he doesn't smoke, drink, or chase women. (If you ask me, he would, but it's too expensive.) He works when he "feels like it" — and spends most of his time resting, watching TV, and reading. He is in perfect health and will probably live to be 100.

I am sick of the whole deal. This marriage has turned into an endurance contest. I've invited him to leave, but he ignores me. What do you suggest?

A FOOL

DEAR FOOL: What's holding YOU? Why don't YOU leave? Since you are supporting yourself anyway, you have nothing to lose but your reasons for complaining.

DEAR ABBY: I have just observed a group of "unselfish" church women preparing for a church rummage sale, the proceeds of which will go to charity. Almost every "good" item donated by some one from this group was snapped up by another member of the group. Of course they "paid" for these items, but a typical conversation was, "Say, who marked this lamp five dollars? The shade is soiled!"

Then some one would reply, "I did. I paid $65 for it new — but mark it whatever you want and take it."

Then the other woman would mark it a dollar and promptly cart it off to her car.

Understand, Abby, these volunteers are not charity cases themselves. They are well-to-do club women. Do you think it is fair of them to skim the cream off the top that way? Hundreds of dollars could have been added to the proceeds if it weren't for this kind of thing. I welcome your remarks, and you may sign me

JUST PLAIN IRKED

DEAR IRKED: The volunteers should have been told that such shenanigans are tantamount to taking money out of the cash register. Why didn't you speak up? Silence implies agreement.

DEAR ABBY: I guess you get all kinds of letters, but this will be a new one:

My husband went to work for a certain garage downtown. He's a mechanic. Well, Pete worked there for only a few days when I stopped by to pick him up from work, and I met his boss. The boss told me personally that he liked my husband's work and he hoped Pete would become a permanent fixture around there.

Well, after Pete got his week's pay he was fired. Hold on to your chair while I tell you the reason:

His boss said Pete was "too energetic and ambitious—and that the old timers around there looked awfully pokey compared to him, and it made them nervous."

Abby, what is this country coming to when a man can't put in an honest day's work for the wages he's paid? I've heard of men being fired for laying down on the job. But never because they were too energetic and ambitious.

PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: If Pete could get a signed statement from his boss stating that he was let out for the reasons he mentioned, it would be a great help in getting a job in another garage. I'm sorry to report it, but apparently Pete's experience is not uncommon in shops where the seniors "set the pace" and woe to the junior who ignores it.

Confidential To Johnny: Don't let it worry you. You're normal. Nobody likes to lose. There are really no "good losers." Only good actors.

NEWLYWEDS TO LIVE IN DUNCAN

Following a honeymoon in the interior of British Columbia, newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Ron Lowe will make their home in Duncan. The bride, the former Loraine Hill, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hill, 1667 Warren Gardens, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lowe of Cowichan Bay.

Oaklands Chapel was the setting for the candlelight ceremony conducted by Mr. Huron Sheppard. Organist was Mrs. Jeanne Bryden. Soloist Mrs. Norma Webster sang "O perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a sheath gown of peau d'ange. Delicate Chantilly lace bordered the hemline of the gown, and a full train extended from the waist. Sleeves ended in lily points. Her four-tier veil misted to the fingertips from a headpiece fashioned of imported Swiss organza orange blossom, studded with seed pearls. Jewelry accent for the gown was a pearl necklace and earrings, gift of the groom. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenia, stephanotis and trailing ivy.

The bride's attendants wore matching gowns of light-green peau de charme, floor-length and styled on empire lines. White lace highlighted the bodices and elbow-length sleeves. The bows at the back of the gowns were echoed in the headpieces, which held scalloped veils. They carried white feathered chrysanthemums and ivy.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Roberta Hill, sister of the groom, and bridesmaids were the Misses Janet Flett, Joan and Shirley Hill, sisters of the bride.

Flower girl, little Carol Anne Hill, the bride's cousin, wore a gown similar to those of the senior attendants. Her headpiece was a bow en tone, and she carried a basket of white daisies, with trailing ivy. Ring bearer was David Hill, another cousin of the bride.

Art Jones was best man, and ushering the guests were Harry Hill, cousin of the bride, George Hill, the bride's brother, and Robert Sanderson, the groom's cousin.

Henry McLaren, Vancouver, proposed the toast to the bride at the reception following in Holyrood House. White doves topped the tiered wedding cake which centred the head table. Floral arrangements of Johanna Hill roses completed the decor.

For travelling on honeymoon, the new Mrs. Lowe chose a two-piece Italian knit suit in pink, with hat en tone, and black accessories. A corsage of white gardenia, stephanotis and ivy completed the picture.

Guests travelling from out of town for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. B. Preston of Bolton, England; Mr. and Mrs. D. Pullen, of Britannia Beach, and other guests from the east.

Jewelled Centennial Symbol on display in our window
THURSDAY, JULY 20th to MONDAY, JULY 24th
EXCEPT SUNDAY
As Canada rounds the corner of her first hundred years, enthused with the pace and vitality of her own forward steps, we pause to reflect on the most important of all our resources: the Canadian people themselves.
This jewelled symbol is the work of Canadian people . . . of skilled hands in the jewel and silver craftshops of Henry Birks and Sons Limited. On a 5-pound plaque of sterling silver, almost 500 diamonds are set . . . with more than 160 rubies forming the actual Centennial symbol. It has been insured for a quarter of a million dollars.
The House of Birks has created this jewel in honor of our Centennial Year . . . and is proud to place it on exhibition in Birks stores from coast to coast.
We consider it a superb example of Canadian artistry, and a fitting tribute on the 100th birthday of the most promising country in the world.

Worn for Reed-Merry Wedding Service

CATHEDRAL TRAIN ACCENTS GOWN

Her scalloped illusion veil misted in tiers to her fingertips, held by a fabric rose headpiece of Swiss chiffon and peau de soie, starred with lily of the valley, when Sandra Jane Merry became the bride of Wayne Reed in St. Mary's Church.

The exquisite veil complemented her floor-length gown of puffed crystal crepe styled on A-lines, which was fashioned with a full cathedral train of crystal crepe lined with peau de soie that swept back from the shoulders. She carried a crescent bouquet of yellow talisman roses and white chrysanthemums.

Canon Jack Rogers officiated at the service uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric G. Merry, 1251 West Burnside Road, and the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Kelso Reed, 1271 Faithful Street.

Standard baskets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums and yellow daisies decorated the church for the ceremony. Mr. Charles Palmer, conductor of the University of Victoria choir of which the bride is a member, played Lohengrin's "Wedding March", and other selections of sacred music. Mr. Merry gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride's senior attendants, Mrs. Marvin Copp, matron of honor; bridesmatron Mrs. Don Irish, and bridesmaid Miss Lorraine Merry, the bride's sister, were gowned alike in gold peau d'elegance, styled on A-lines and featuring bodices of gold lace and cap sleeves. They wore small lace cap headpieces centred with dark gold fabric roses. Their cascade bouquets were of gold and bronze chrysanthemums. Little Denise Copp was flower girl for her aunt, wearing a short frock of yellow peau de soie styled with a lace bodice. She carried a nosegay of yellow shasta chrysanthemums and wore a single yellow rose accented by gold streamers as a headpiece.

Richard Auclair acted as best man. Robert Merry, Marvin Copp, Gordon Barrett and Ronald Barrett were ushering guests.

At the reception following in the Oak Bay Beach Hotel, the yellow, gold and bronze color theme was continued in the arrangements of daisies, chrysanthemums and roses. A three-tier wedding cake centred the head table. Canon Jack Rogers proposed the toast to the bride.

For travelling on honeymoon to up-Island and mainland points, the new Mrs. Reed chose a three-piece Italian knit suit in forest green which she accented with beige accessories. Pink rosebuds en corsage completed the picture.

On their return the newlyweds will make their home at 475 Walter Avenue.

DENCH-MATHESON

Highlight of Seed Pearls On Exquisite Bridal Gown

Seed pearls studded the neck and sleeves of Arlene Frances Matheson's floor-length satin gown when she became the bride of John Francis Dench recently.

The gown was styled with an A-line cage of Chantilly lace, and as "something old," the bride carried a St. Christopher medal, originally belonging to the groom's mother. Other jewelry accents were seed pearl earrings, and a marquis diamond ring, gift of the groom. Her bouffant veil misted to the shoulders from a floral headpiece accented with pearls and tiny bells. She carried a cascade bouquet of deep pink carnations, centred with white roses, fern, and stephanotis.

Rev. A. G. McLeod officiated at the ceremony which united the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. H. Matheson, 5012 Lochside Drive, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Dench of Windsor, Ont. Arrangements of pink gladioli and white chrysanthemums were at the altar of St. Aidan's United Church for the ceremony. Organist was Mrs. P. C. Campbell. Capt. Matheson gave his daughter in marriage.

ATTEND BRIDE

The bride's attendants wore floor-length gowns of chiffon over silk, with lace accenting the empire bodices. Maid of honor, Miss Trudie White's gown was in shocking pink shade, and bridesmaids the Misses Janice Johnston and Linda Fullerton chose shades of mauve and pink. Only jewelry accents to the gowns were pearl earrings. Their headpieces were fashioned of carnations en tone as were their bouquets of carnations, fern and stephanotis.

Best man was Alan Stennes. Floyd Ruttan and Brian Matheson, the bride's brother, ushered the guests.

R. H. Meadows proposed the toast to the bride at the reception following in the Chez Marcel. The couple cut the wedding cake which was flanked with pink and white carnations, with the bride's grandfather's sword.

For travelling on honeymoon to Salt Spring Island, the bride donned a dress in white lace, complemented with navy blue accessories and red roses en corsage.

When they return, the newlyweds will make their home at 3766 Belgrave Road.

Mouth Lines
Fade Away

The quicker mouth lines . . . and crows feet around the eyes . . . disappear, the quicker you'll look younger! You, too, may know the thrill of a second debut when you try 2nd Debut, the lotion-like substance containing CEF 600. Applied nightly and before daily make-up, 2nd Debut Liquid pushes so much moisture under the skin, it pushes mouth lines and crows feet up and out. Make-up goes on smooth and easy. No wonder mothers say they've enjoyed a 2nd Debut. You can also get "2nd Debut" with CEF 1200 for double strength moisturizing action. Ask for 2nd Debut by name at drug and department stores and see almost immediate results that are absolutely astonishing.

Italian Couturiers Show Snappy Styles

ROME (AP) — The Fontana sisters jerked a heat-jaded audience wide awake Tuesday with the snappiest collection they have shown in years at the Rome fashions.

Sporting-life tweed suits were chopped and changed from calf-length skirts to pants.

Jackets were leather-belted over turtleneck chunky-knit sweaters. Little laced-up boots were shown in shiny white patent.

Tita Rossi and Sarli were two more campaigners from "longer skirts for women."

They had other points in common. Both featured tiny, bosom-brief jackets over skirts that whirled wide.

Sarli showed full coats in paving-patterned wools in varying shades of pebble brown over reed-slim dresses similarly patterned in cool green.

On her program, Tita Rossi promised that her capes "allowed free movement of the arms," an important point in these days.

Penny's Patio Plans Include Decorations

By Penny Saver

Penny's done lots of crazy things in her lifetime, and after a small incident the other day, I've come to the conclusion that I'm not getting any wiser. Our house has a flat roof off one corner, and I had a flash of genius — that this would be a great place to build a sundeck. When I suggested this to hubby he couldn't help but smile. I'd forgotten, but several years ago we'd lived in an apartment with a flat roof and I'd had the same brilliant idea, unknown to the management. I spent a couple of hours every day on the roof soaking up sunshine and snoozing. Part of the area was tar, and, unknown to me, in hot weather the roof was kept cool with sprinklers. One day when I was sound asleep, the inevitable happened. Soaked to the skin, I was so shocked I jumped a mile. They had to rescue me from where I was hanging from the roof, practically by my toenails!

If I'm going to be content with just the patio I've decided to cheer up the scene with some colorful decoration. One item I found not only gives outdoor decor a boost, but has a practical purpose . . . it's a patio bell. This is a large brass bell that's great for rounding up the family at supper time. Fastened to a wall bracket so it won't get lost, it has a strong leather thong on the clapper, so you can produce a "bong" that will travel quite a distance. Priced at $1.98, this would be a handy gadget to have at a summer cottage, or on the boat, too.

The Saver family loves to relax on the patio at the end of the day, and often we find we're still sitting out there when it's quite dark. In one shop I found an attractive lamp that sheds a restful light both indoors and out. It resembles a cathedral window . . . the light shines through dozens of multi-colored stained glass panes. This burns kerosene or coal oil, is odor-free, and stands 10" high. In winter you can bring it into the rumpus room, where it's certain to be a party conversation piece. It is priced at 98 cents.

When you've spent a long day at the beach, there is nothing worse than having a parched feeling in the throat, and finding the only thing to quench your thirst is a warm soft drink. There's an insulated picnic basket for sale that is specifically designed to keep cold foods cold or warm foods warm. It doubles as a great carry-all, because when you've finished your picnic supper you can pack wet towels and suits into its waterproof case. Made of a lightweight plastic in a plaid design, these bags cost $2.22.

If you'd like to know where I shopped please give me a call at 382-3131.

A New You

by Emily Wilkens

DEAR EMILY WILKENS:

REMOVAL RIDDLE

Is it really true that makeup must always be removed with cream?

When I give my face a good soap-and-water scrub, my base, powder and so on seem to come off completely.

DIANE P.

For best results, complexion-wise, remember that makeup removal and skin care are two separate entities.

Use an appropriate cleansing preparation or baby oil to remove every last trace of makeup. After tissuing this off, use soap (choose the formula for your particular skin type) and water to finish the clean-up treatment.

FAST FINISH

I begin all kinds of projects with the best intentions. The only trouble is, I never finish anything I start.

MARY N.

Turn over a new leaf right now! Stop sitting around berating yourself for your lack of stick-to-it-iveness. Resolve to be a doer.

Perhaps you're attempting too many projects at once, or are reaching for the moon. Not all of us can learn to read Sanskrit or become bareback riders. Begin just one reasonable project and see it through, one day at a time, to its happy finale.

MORNING MOUTH

In the morning, my mouth tastes simply awful. I go to the dentist regularly, brush my teeth and use mouthwash. Is there anything else I can try?

AUDREY P.

Give your neglected tongue a little tender loving care. Morning and night use of a tongue scraper often eliminates the "morning mouth" taste you mention.

A plastic-coated bone (the kind used in girdles) is an effective scraper. Pull it gently across your tongue, edge down, from back to front. Wash scraper thoroughly before and after each use.

DASHING DATE

Every Friday after work I dash to the hairdresser for a wash and set before hurrying home to dress for a date. I never seem to have time to do a careful "complete" makeup. The shampoo and heat from the dryer always ruin the base and powder I've applied in the morning. Is there any way to cut corners?

JANE H.

On frantic Fridays, why not apply your evening eye makeup and lipstick while sitting under the dryer? These are two really time-consuming operations.

Once home, you will have only to refresh your skin and apply base, powder, and rouge or blusher before dressing.

PERSONALITY KINK

I have what might be called a kink in my personality. Please don't tell me to consult my minister or doctor about what's troubling me; it's impossible. How can I straighten myself out?

ELLEN O'H.

You don't mention exactly what your "kink" consists of. However, listing specific troubles in writing often helps clear things up.

There are many good books on psychology, philosophy and self-help which delve into all kinds of personality problems. An afternoon in the library would certainly be worth a try.

Summer Beauty

It is easy to have a good summer complexion, despite the skin coarsening effect of summer. The pores open much wider in the heat so it's essential that they have free movement to open and close without being clogged. Protect from cosmetic pigments, dust, and powder by smoothing on your oil of Olay. This will also protect the complexion against harsh sun rays and will give the skin a milky bloom even on the hottest days.

. . . Margaret Merril.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gilmour, 368 West Gorge Road, have announced the forthcoming marriage of their only daughter, Joan Donnelly, to Mr. David Lorne Wakelin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne E. Wakelin, 3380 Richmond Road. The wedding will take place on Saturday, July 29, at 7:30 p.m., in Oaklands Chapel. (Kandid Kamera Studio.)

Trip East

Mayor Hugh Stephen and Mrs. Stephen left by plane today for the east to attend the conference of mayors and municipalities in Montreal this week. While they are in the east, they will be entertained with delegates to the conference with a day at Expo 67. The Stephens are planning to return home next Thursday.

Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. R. Sanders, 4038 Cumberland Road, announce the forthcoming marriage of their only daughter, Jennifer, to Mr. Gary Paul Robbins, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Robbins, 4190 Glanford Road. The wedding will take place on Friday, Aug. 18 at 8:30 p.m. in St. Aidan's United Church. Rev. A. McLeod will officiate.

Attend Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Dench travelled from Windsor, Ont., to attend the wedding of Miss Arlene Frances Matheson, to their son, Mr. John Francis Dench. Other guests travelling from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Brian Matheson, Shelly and Vicki of Portage Mountain, B.C.; Mrs. R. C. Wallar, Venice, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Taylor of Vancouver, Mr. P. W. Tribe, Mr. and Mrs. W. Tribe, all of Comox, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin of Nanaimo.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

The decibels will get you if you don't watch out! A decibel is a unit with which to measure the intensity of sound.

Lowman

We all know how noise can irritate us and make us tense, but we may not realize how truly damaging it can be. Even continuous pleasant sounds such as radio, TV, or even hi-fi, can jangle the nerves if you are trying to talk, sleep, think, or even just relax. Think how the quietude of a starlit night in the deep woods unwinds us, and how a constant background of noise of any sort ties us up in knots.

Yet, the world is getting noisier and noisier. The only hope is that we are learning more and more ways to muffle it. Many newer structures are much more soundproof than the older ones. In some cities, there are strict laws concerning horn blowing and mufflers. In Sweden, traffic policemen have sound-level meters. I guess they give tickets or at least reprimand the noisier citizens.

We have jet planes above us, subways beneath us, buses and trucks beside us. I have known one instance in which the people would have had to sell their home and move elsewhere if the barking of neighbors' dogs could not have been controlled. One barked until midnight or later and another started at dawn. They could only get four or five hours of sleep a night. Motorboats and trucks and buses should be measured as to the decibels of sound they create.

We can all help fight the threat of noise in our homes. We can close doors instead of letting them bang. We can oil a door that squeaks. This can be very irritating.

We do not have to turn the radio or TV up so high that our neighbors have to listen whether or not they want to. If you are learning to play the saxophone or beat drums, do so gently and in the middle of the day.

Children can be taught to look for their mother rather than shout for her the minute they enter the house and vice versa. I must admit, though, that it is often easier to find the mother than the child. Anyway, it's a good idea if you can make it work.

B.C. CHERRIES

for preserving and eating fresh

Once again B.C. Cherries are here in all their luscious juicy-ripe goodness . . . refreshing, healthful summertime eating for the whole family. Serve them often in delicious fresh cherry pies and cool tasty salads . . . use them to brighten lunch boxes and picnic hampers . . . keep a bowl of B.C. Cherries handy where the family can help themselves anytime.

And there's nothing better than home-made cherry preserves and jams, for tastier, easy-to-get winter meals. Only your own preserves can capture all that "fresh fruit" flavor. Next winter you'll be proud of your finer-flavored preserves, and the whole family will love them.

B.C. Cherries are now at their peak-of-the-season best, and attractively priced.

Another reason so many people are reaching for Safeway Meats...

EVERY CUT IS CLOSE TRIMMED

Our method of preparing meat gives you more good eating meat on the table because excess fat and bone are trimmed off before the cut is weighed. We also make sure that each cut will be just right for its cooking method. The meat on every steak, for example, is all steak meat. The less tender end portion has been cut off to be sold at a lower price per pound.

9 IN MEMORIAM

WILOUGHBY — In loving memory of our Dear Son, Dick, who was taken away on July 19, 1959.
Eight years have passed since that sad day,
When the one we loved was called away;
God took him home, it was his will;
Within our hearts he liveth still.
—Ever remembered by his Mom and Dad and Brother Jack and Family.

BRIDGE LESSON

By OSWALD and JAMES JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The Eastern Open Pairs is the oldest contract tournament in the country. It was first played in 1929 and won by George Reithe and a youngster named Oswald Jacoby.

Opening lead—♦ K

Jacoby won it three more times and it was thought that his record of four wins would stand forever because the competition gets tougher every year, but this year Boris Raymond, of New York, also got his name on the trophy for the fourth time.

His partner was a young player named Steve Altman and one reason for their success was good defense.

Boris who sat West overcalled with two hearts. He would probably have bid five diamonds also but he was vulnerable against nonvulnerable opponents. A five-diamond bid would have landed him in five hearts doubled and he would have been down two or three.

Boris opened the king of diamonds against the four-spade contract and continued with the ten. Someone had the one missing diamond. If East held it he would follow suit. If South held it Boris wanted Steve to ruff and return a club.

Sure enough, Steve ruffed and returned a club but he also returned the right club — the jack!

There is nothing sensational about this play. It is the sort that any careful expert would make automatically but it is also the sort of play that most players overlook.

The basic reason for the play is that this jack lead smothers dummy's ten. If Steve had led fourth best or third best or fifth best or sixth best South could have played his five spot. Boris would ruff but declarer would not lose another trick. The jack lead forced declarer to use either his ace or his queen and left Steve with a sure club winner for the setting trick.

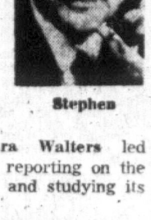
Andy Stephen Looks at TV

The number of weeks deovted to reruns has lengthened. If you recall, the networks began their rerun season during the early weeks of April this year.



Stephen

The result has been some very dull television. A viewer is hard pressed to find, except for an occasional special, a program that is not a repeat.

In this rerun jungle therefore it is refreshing to spend an hour each morning with NBC-TV's intellegent "Today" show.

The past two days, "Today" left its home base in New York and explored the world of Expo '67.

Hosts Hugh Downs and Barbara Walters led cameras and viewers through Expo, reporting on the overall effect of the giant exposition and studying its architectural accomplishments.

The tour was relaxed and wholly informative.

Some of Today's better moments were the view of La Ronde (the amusement area) and the tours of both the Czechoslovakian and Soviet pavilions. The Czech pavilion, by all reports, is the talk of the fair and its biggest attraction so this close-up view was especially welcomed to see the reason why.

In the Soviet pavilion, Joseph Adamov, the commentator of the Russian space projects, freely discussed the space exploits of the Soveit Union. You can be sure there were no secrets being let out but it gave the viewer a front row seat on the edge of future space exploration.

At the same time, NBC cameras peered and explored space capsules and lunar probe equipment with complete thoroughness.

The quality fo the Today show was thus continued, an oasis in a barren summer television desert.

TID BIT: For the second successive year the B.C. Department of Education's Division of School Broadcasts has won an Ohio State University award for outstanding achievement. The award was won with a television program called "Detection," one in the "Stimulus-Response" series designed as a teaching aid to complement the revised Grade 8 science curriculum.

CALL FOR TENDERS

SNACK BAR - TEA ROOM CONCESSION AT UPPER HOT SPRINGS BATHHOUSE BANFF NATIONAL PARK

Sealed tenders addressed to the Superintendent of Banff National Park, Banff, Alberta, will be accepted up to noon, local time, on Aug. 10, 1967, for the privilege of operating a Snack Bar - Tea Room Concession in the Upper Hot Springs Bathhouse in Banff National Park during the years 1967, 1968, 1969, 1970 and 1971.

Tenders should be offered on the basis of a percentage of the annual gross sales, and any tender of less than 6 per cent will not be considered. The minimum annual rental acceptable will be $300 for 1967 and $900 in each of the years 1968, 1969, 1970 and 1971. Should the rental payable on the basis of the percentages tendered be less than $300 in 1967 and less than $900 in each of the years 1968, 1969, 1970 and 1971, the licensee will be required to pay the minimum rental specified. In submitting the tender, the envelope enclosing it should be endorsed "Tender for Snack Bar - Tea Room Concession at the Upper Hot Springs Bathhouse."

Particulars concerning the facilities to be made available, conditions to be complied with, including the supplying of equipment, terms of licence of occupation to be issued to the successful applicant, and the basis on which the award of the concession will be made may be obtained from the Superintendent, Banff National Park. All interested persons are advised to obtain these particulars as no tender will be considered unless accompanied by all the information required. The highest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

The previous concessionaire has certain items of equipment already installed in the premises and is willing to dispose of same. Any party interested in acquiring this equipment should contact the undersigned for details of purchase.

D. J. LEARMOUTH,
Superintendent.

Harpsichordist Delights Audience

By AUDREY JOHNSON

A slight, dark Englishman with a quiet, right-on-target sense of humor and relaxed stage presence, took his musical subject out of its esoteric pigeonhole Tuesday night and turned it into brilliant entertainment.

Talking about, and playing on the harpsichord, as part of University of Victoria's Chamber of Music Workshop evening recital series, was internationally renowned harpsichordist George Malcolm.

Harpsichords, which appear on the musical family tree midway between the virginals and Bach's well-tempered klavier, and are related to both the piano and the organ, have returned to favor in the past couple of decades.

FETISH

In fact, Mr. Malcolm pointed out, it has become a fetish for all music written for keyboard instruments before the first development of the modern piano, to be played on the harpsichord.

With a quizzical raised eyebrow, Mr. Malcolm commented: "There is a certain snobbery that has developed about the instrument . . . at one concert a whole section of the audience left when the expected harpsichord was replaced by a piano."

The Vancouver-made Sabathil harpsichord he is using in his Uvic series is a concert grand with four complete sets of strings, two manuals, five pedals and four stops.

Like the organ it is capable of varied registrations, choice of which lies with the performer.

Modern harpsichords are made principally in Germany, England and America.

ENCHANTED AUDIENCE

"As an Englishman," says Mr. Malcolm, "it grieves me to tell you how good I think the new American harpsichords are."

Having alerted his audience's appreciation of the instrument's character, its possibilities and limitations, Mr. Malcolm proceeded to enchant them with a number of delightful pieces, superbly played.

Dazzling finger work, irresistible rhythmic vitality, an exceptional sense of registration and sensitive color marked his performance of 16th century music for the virginals and works by Farnaby, Swellinck, Purcell, and Dr. Thomas Arne.

He showed off all the facets of an instrument popularly regarded as severely limited, and proved that there is much versatility in texture and dynamics when its several voices are awakened by the hands of a master.

Malcolm will give the second of his two lecture-recitals, covering the music of Bach and other late 17th and 18th century composers, Thursday night.

Tonight, in the Arts-Education Building lecture theatre, he will join other members of the workshop faculty in a program of chamber works by C. P. E. Bach, Vivaldi, Mozart, Stravinsky, Lennox and Berkeley.

The recitals begin at 8.

ANIMAL BYLAW STIRS PEOPLE

Saanich received hundreds of letters and briefs on its proposed new animals bylaw.

Summaries of some of them were included in a report given by municipal planner Tom Loney Tuesday night.

One person—living in the city of Victoria—was opposed to the new proposals.

Her suggestion? "Pick up broken bottles instead," said the summary.

Irish Luck Builds Home For Old Folk

DUBLIN (AP)—Six months ago a party of millionaires vacationing on a yacht in the Bahamas threw a bottle overboard and vowed they would build an old folks' home wherever the bottle touched land.

The luck of the Irish carried the bottle across the Atlantic and landed it at Bantry, County Cork, where 68-year-old John McCarthy picked it up. McCarthy wrote to Henry Garber of Dublin, one of the millionaires, whose name was inside the bottle.

"We felt that not enough was being done for them," Garber said. So the 20 rich men agreed to pool £20,000 ($60,000) to build a home wherever their bottle washed ashore. Garber said he has written the others and is waiting for them to make good on their pledges.

Man Jailed For Break-Ins

NANAIMO — Harold Clyde Pearse, 25, of 256 Needham, was sentenced Tuesday to two years less a day on each of two counts of breaking and entering.

The sentences will be served concurrently.

He pleaded guilty to breaking into the Nanaimo Service Centre and South End Service July 2.

His record showed 14 convictions including theft, robbery and vagrancy since 1958.

Youth Admits Stealing Tires

LADYSMITH — Robert Craig, 18, pleaded guilty here Tuesday to theft and escaping lawful custoday.

On the theft count he was fined $250 and received a one-year suspended sentence with a peace bond amounting to $1,000.

He received another one-year suspended sentence with a $500 peace bond imposed on him for the attempted escape.

Tanker Released

LONDON (AP) — The British government today ordered the release of a huge oil tanker held in Singapore as security for the damage caused by its sister ship, the Torrey Canyon, on some of England's finest beaches.

A treasury spokesman said the American owners of the 61,275-ton Lake Palourde "have provided security to answer" Britain's claims for compensation.

Two Quads Die

GENOA, Italy (Reuters) — Two of four quadruplets born prematurely to a policeman's wife after she took a fertility drug died in hospital Tuesday.

OLDEST FOSSIL

MONTREAL (CP) — A fossil skeleton found eight years ago at Port Hood, N.S., was identified Tuesday as the oldest reptile known to man—probably 300,000,000 years old.

The foot-long, lizard-like specimen was identified by Dr. Robert Carroll of McGill University and Dr. Donald Baird of Princeton. It lived on land 100,000,000 years before dinosaurs arrived.

City Children Go On Outing

Forty children from two Victoria parks were to go on the first of a series of field trips today to Thetis Lake.

Central and Beacon Hill Parks each were sending 20 youngsters on the field trip. On the following Wednesday ten children from the nine other city parks will make the same excursion.

A tour of Esquimalt Harbor will be given for 60 children July 24 and Aug. 7.

On July 27 a swimming contest will be held in the Crystal Garden pool with children from Victoria, Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt participating.

CAR ABANDONED

Rented Car Theft Ends With Jail

Clarence Larson, 28, of no fixed address, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary Tuesday when he pleaded guilty to stealing a rented car.

Larson rented the car in Victoria for a day June 4, court was told. It was later found abandoned in Lloydminster, Sask., with the radio and other parts missing.

The accused was arrested in Kamloops and returned to Victoria to face trial, Detective Ed Hardy said.

"It's clear you have no intention of giving up your criminal ways," Magistrate Ostler told Larson whose criminal record includes convictions for break-ins, false pretences and theft.

Larson had said earlier that "we got all drunked up and took off."

He was released from prison April 28, he said.

A youth who last week admitted robbing a hotel, a restaurant and a home was sentenced to six months in jail.

William Leslie Noon, 21, of no fixed address, had earlier pleaded guilty to sneaking from a Yates Street hotel earlier this month, taking a pair of blankets and a pillow with him and leaving a bill for three nights lodging.

Noon also admitted entering a Redfern Street home through a basement window the same day and stealing $3 and a set of car keys.

The keys were used to take a car from the driveway of the home. It was later found abandoned.

The accused also admitted stealing chocolate bars and cigarettes after breaking into a downtown grill July 10.

Magistrate Ostler sentenced Noon to six months definite and 12 months indeterminate at the Haney Young Offenders Unit.

A youth who ran amok in a Craigflower apartment last month was fined $150 when he appeared to be sentenced on a charge of mischief.

Gerald McDonald, 19, of 1421 Harrison, was ordered to pay the $161.88 in damages he did when he entered the premises at 519 Craigflower June 10 and threw kitchen crockery about.

McDonald was also ordered to sign a $250 good behavior bond covering the next six months.

* * *

A youth who fell into a downtown gutter while intoxicated Monday night was fined $25 when he pleaded guilty to causing a disturbance.

Richard Chappell, 20, of HMCS Beacon Hill, became violent when approached by police, swore loudly and had to be restrained and arrested, court was told.

* * *

Three sailors caught with cans of beer open in their car were each fined $50.

John McCabe, 19, William Rayman, 19, and Lawrence Zilinsky all pleaded guilty to consuming liquor in a public place. All three are from HMCS Qu'Appelle.

Their car was stopped on Highway 19 near Qualicum Beach July 7.

Fined for careless driving:

Leander Drover of Calgary, $75 and a licence suspension; Stanley Cook of Sooke, $35; Geoffrey Durose of Canadian Forces Base, Esquimalt, $35; Robert Murray of 723 Craigflower, $40; James Hamilton of 3249 Clement, $35; and Alfred Holmwood of RR 2, Sooke, $35

KILLED along with three others in plane collision Tuesday is former Brazilian president Humberto Castello Branco, 67, when his state-owned plane hit a Brazilian air force training jet.

School Texts Integrated

TORONTO (CP) — New U.S. textbooks will have pictures of Negro children, Dora Lewis, New York education consultant, said Tuesday.

Mrs. Lewis, professor emeritus at New York's Hunter College, who is here as president of Soroptomist International Association, said publishers are being careful about choosing pictures for textbooks.

"Pictures will be representative of children of all kinds of different races in the country."

Demonstrator Carried Out On Stretcher

WASHINGTON (AP)—A demonstrator was evicted from the Pentagon Monday as U.S. government guards squelched a demonstration against the Vietnam war.

The protester, who identified himself as Harold S. York of New York City, was one of three demonstrators who tried to enter the defence department building.

Guards refused to allow them inside but made an exception when York asked to be allowed to go to the men's room.

York went in with two police escorts. In a few minutes he was brought back out on a military stretcher, shouting a peace slogan, after he apparently tried to stage a sit-in the men's room.

Police unloaded him on a sidewalk across the street from the Pentagon.

With York were Michael Mattin, 17, of Exeter, N.H., and DeCourcy Squire, 18, from Morgantown, W. Va.

A Pentagon official told the trio that while the defence department "strongly supports the principle of orderly and responsible dissent," any protest type activities such as sit-ins, lie-ins or attempted camp-ins, would have to be staged in designated areas outside the building.

'Our System of Education Stupid, Ludicrous, Nonsense'

By JOHN SLINGER

OTTAWA (CP)—A magazine editor has told the Canadian College of Teachers what he thinks of Canadian education, lacing his description with the words stupid. ludicrous and nonsense.

Arnold Edinborough, editor of Saturday Night and a former university English teacher, said the fact that a teacher from one province must take a test to qualify as a teacher in another province is "just stupid."

Steps hould be taken to end this "patchwork arrangement" of standards.

He said some courses given at teachers' colleges—such as detailed instruction in how to take attendance were "nonsense." The best trainiing for a teacher was two months abroad.

If children were to be trained to cope with the global environment of instant communications, there was need for fundamental research into their attitudes. Some present research work was "ludicrous."

The Canadian College of Teachers, a professional society, began its two-day annual meeting with nearly 100 delegates from all provinces.

Mr. Edinborough told them that until teachers set their own standards and are not ruled by local trustees, they will never be a true profession.

Union techniques, such as those employed by Quebec teachers when they walked out in several cities early this year, were necessary to gain some things that could later be applied professionally.

More education research should be done by teachers themselves and not by special researchers. There was a need for fundamental research into what effects U.S. television programming had on children.

Mr. Edinborough predicted an end to the present rigid educaional system. "If we are looking for the talent of the individual child we will someday dump exams."

Universities were slow in meeting the demands of an upbeat generation. They catered to the competitive top two per cent of their enrolment. "For the rest, it doesn't matter."

He said the television world, with men who one minute are giving the news and the next are doing a commercial, has prepared six-year-old children "never to believe an adult again."

But they still must be taught to read and they must be taught some method of figuring if they were to be able to program computers and not be dominated by them.

Training Subsidy Will Likely Be Extended

By JAMES NELSON

OTTAWA (CP)—The federal government is likely to assure the provinces within a few weeks that it intends to make its subsidy program for adult occupational training a long-term one.

Provincial education ministers and their representatives sought this assurance Tuesday from Manpower Minister Marchand at a federal-provincial conference called to discuss detailed operations of the plan approved earlier this year by Parliament.

Mr. Marchand said he would seek cabinet agreement for the assurance, and sources indicate it is almost certain to be forthcoming.

Finance Minister Sharp, discussing the cost of the $125,000,000-a-year plan in his June 1 budget speech, described it as an essential part of the government's drive to improve the country's productivity. This is necessary if Canada is to keep employment up and costs down.

Under the plan, the government will pay $35 to $90 a week to men and women already in the labor force who take short courses to improve their skills and fit them for better jobs. The government will set strict conditions, however, on those who may qualify for the help.

It will also pay the provinces for a substantial part of the vocational and technical schooling made available to adults, without interfering with the province's school curriculum.

Formerly, the federal government contributed heavily towards the cost of building and equipping technical and vocational schools. This plan is being ended in stages as the new one is introduced.

Icebreaker Stopped By Large Ice Packs

The icebreaker Camsell was stopped in her tracks Tuesday by Arctic ice.

Department of transport officials said the ship is in no danger but can no longer manoeuvre and must sit and wait for nature to take her course.

This means a wait of a few days or a week until winds from shore drive a heavy pack of large ice floes offshore. Then Camsell will backtrack, dodge through the open water fringing the shore and round Point Barrow, the northern peak of Alaska.

The ship left here July 5 to escort supply vessels to various Arctic DEW line bases. Rounding Point Barrow is an annual problem and usually takes a week, officials said.

The ice field is rated as 9/10ths—which means that nine tenths of the surface of surrounding water is covered.

'TREMENDOUS JOB'

Committee Approves Lining Water Mains

Victoria's public works committee approved the expenditure Tuesday of $30,000 to concrete-line several thousand feet of city water mains.

City engineer James Garnett said the work was part of a continuing program to line all steel water mains in the city.

"Many of the old 27-inch mains are in unsatisfactory condition," he said. "The concrete lining does a tremendous job."

The public works committee also approved the purchase of the following equipment:

Three standard four door sedans, $6,451 from Peter Pollen Ford; Two compact two-door sedans, $2,604, Horwood Brothers; one pick-up truck, $2,446, Peter Pollen Ford; two compact pick-up trucks, $4,336, Thomas Plimley; one cab-over-engine truck, $2,278, Peter Pollen.

One cab-over-engine truck, $2,321, Peter Pollen; one panel truck, $2,363, Empress Motors; one backhoe-loader, $8,807, Mayhew and Strutt Ltd.; and one tractor-mower combination $4,996, Rollins Machinery Ltd.

With one exception the low tenders were accepted in each case.

Low bidder for the compact panel truck was Thomas Plimley offering an Austin mini-van for $1,338. City engineer James Garnett said the van was too small for the work required and recommended the purchase be made from Empress Motors at $2,363.

In other business the parks committee accepted the tender of $13,614 for the construction of a new greenhouse at the city nurseries in Beacon Hill park.

Brinks Men Start Strike

WINNIPEG (CP) — A strike involving 13 drivers and messengers of Brinks Express Co. of Canada began Tuesday.

The members of Local 979, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, had been seeking a 50-cent-an-hour increase over a two-year contract.

The union agreed to accept 45 cents but rejected a company offer of 30 cents over two years.

Hourly pay rates for drivers and messengers are $2.32 and $2.42 respectively.

Rain Helps Hungry

BODHIGAYA, India (AP) — A steady, driving rain pelted parched Bihar State Monday and officials declared the life-giving monsoon had returned for the first time in three years. Even with the return of the rains this famine-stricken area still is not safe from hunger.

Ignoring Road Maniacs Is Safest

Are reckless, aggressive drivers getting you down?

You feel like retaliating?

Don't.

Take it from driving school instructor Ralph Cossey. Courtesy and defensive driving pays off.

"All drivers should drive defensively employing every means at their disposal to avoid accidents," he told a safe-driving seminar Monday night at the Strathcona Hotel.

And this means yielding to the maniac set whose aggressive driving leads to so many accidents.

Mr. Cossey said drivers' indifference to other drivers' rights is the chief accident-causing factor.

He said most of 68 B.C. driver's licences suspended every day are lost due to discourteous driving.

Peter Bourne, former driver examiner, urged drivers to use the B.C. Guide to Safe Driving as their "Bible," advising them especially to avoid sudden stops, driving too fast or too slow and passing carelessly.

The subject of next weeks lecture, Monday at 7:30 p.m., will be car insurance.

Citations Will Honor Blood Donors

Four British Columbia citizens will receive one-hundredth Red Cross blood donation citations from Lieutenant-Governor George Pearkes Saturday.

The ceremony will take place at 3:30 p.m. at Government House. The citations were signed by the late governor-general of Canada, Georges P. Vanier.

The presentation commemorates the twentieth year of the Red Cross blood transfusion service which originated in B.C. in 1947.

Those receiving the citations are: Leonard E. J. Roberts, Mrs. Leverne N. Stewart, both of Victoria; William J. Champion, of New Westminster, and James Munn of Kamloops.

Eligible to receive awards but unable to attend are Sidney Hayward of Victoria and John C. Sanders of Vancouver.

WORLD-WIDE CONTEST

Loggers Show Skill At PNE '67 Display

Japanese woodsmen who birl on square logs.

The roar of power saws in the log-bucking contests.

The soft hiss of hand saws as singles and doubles teams zip through thick logs.

Flashing spurs as loggers scamper up and down 80-foot-tall spar trees.

The thunk of razor-sharp double-bited axes in the block-chopping contests.

The roar of the crowds for the winners.

All this and more will be part of the Pacific National Exhibition's thrilling International Festival of Forestry Aug 19 to Sept. 4.

The 14-day feature event, which will be staged in the three-acre Feature Attraction Area in the centre of Exhibition Park, in Vancouver, will showcase loggers' skills in three free one-hour shows daily as they compete for $30,000 in prize money.

More than 210,000 PNE visitors saw the forestry show at PNE '66, and an even larger audience is anticipated this year because it becomes an international competition for the first time.

Competitors will come from all parts of Canada, New Zealand, Japan and the United States to compete in the 11 categories.

The big festival will be broken down into three main events:

The B.C. Novice Logger classification, which will be held Aug. 19, 21 and 22, will be restricted to B.C. residents and only those who have never won a prize at the Sooke, Duncan, Squamish or the PNE loggers' sports days.

The B.C. Championship Logger division will be held Aug. 23-26 and will be open to any B.C. resident.

The "Greatest Logger of Them All" trophy—the George "Panicky" Bell award named after one of B.C.'s best-known loggers—will go to the overl-all winner in the B.C. Championship Logger division.

The International Woodsman division, which runs from Aug. 28 until the final day of the fair, Sept. 4, will be open to all competitors and will attract loggers from various countries of the world as well as British Columbia.

Categories for contestants in the big Festival of Forestry will include: standing and horizontal block chopping, obstacle power saw bucking and straight power saw bucking, birling, speed climbing, spring-board chopping, pole falling, axe throwing and two hand-saw events, singles and doubles.

Visitors to the fair will also get a picture of what goes on in the logging camps of B.C. every day of the year. Huge mobile machines, steel spar trees, log loaders and logging trucks will be displayed and demonstrated daily in and around the Feature Attraction Area.

YOUR HEALTH

Operating To Cure Tremors

By WALTER C. ALVAREZ, M.D.

For years I have been much interested in the great work of Dr. Irving Cooper, of St. Barnabas Hospital in New York City, who has developed a very successful technique for curing the miserable tremor and muscular spasms particularly of Parkinsons disease', but also of several other often horrible diseases of the nervous system.

Alvarez

Often he can relieve an "intention tremor" such as comes when the person tries to lift a cup of coffee to his lips. He can sometimes relieve also a familial (hereditary) tremor, or the tremors of multiple sclerosis, and of what is called cerebellar degeneration. He can relieve the horrible spasms of children with dystonia musculbrum deformans, also of people with a head pulled over to one side — the so-called torticollis (twisted neck). Also, Dr. Cooper can help people with choreoathetosis, which is a severe sort of St. Vitus' dance, also a miserable disease called hemiballismus — a violent sort of restlessness, usually of one arm.

★ ★ ★

At the American Medical Association meeting at Atlantic City, I saw some of Dr. Cooper's color movies of his patients — taken first, when the person was terribly contorted, or with a markedly tremulous hand or arm, and then taken after the operation — and sometomes years after the operation — when the person was comfortable and quiet, well, and wonderfully happy, with a normal well-controlled body.

After seeing these films, it was hard for me to understand how for years people could have ignored Dr. Cooper's splendid work, and in their writings on Parkinson's disease, never mentioned it.

I must say here, however, that not every person with a bad tremor can be safely or profitably operated on; the person must not be too old or senile, or too weak, or bedridden, or with too rapidly advancing a disease. An able physician in the sick person's home town should make an examination, and give an opinion as to the person's ability to stand an operation, and to profit from it.

In this operation, under local anesthesia, a little hole is drilled through the skull and through this a little tube is pushed down to the tiny part of the brain that is diseased. Then Dr. Cooper injects a fluid that is so exceedingly cold that in a moment it destroys that bit of tissue that is causing the trouble, whereupon the tremor or spasm immediately lets up.

Police Were Waiting

TORONTO (CP)—When David Campbell was found guilty Tuesday of impaired driving, he was asked to surrender his driver's licence to the court.

He said he had come to court by bus and left his licence at home. He was ordered to turn in his licence today.

Campbell was then seen driving away from court. Police waited for him at his home and returned him, handcuffed, only three hours after his first appearance.

Magistrate Robert Dneiper sentenced him to 30 days in jail and fined him $300 or an additional two months. He also prohibited Campbell from driving for a year.

Next week, Campbell faces a charge of driving while his licence was suspended.

ASK ANDY

Is there something you want to know? Do you want to win a set of valuable books or other instructive prizes? Then ask Andy.

Andy will answer questions submitted by child readers and those who submit the questions he selects to answer will receive worthwhile prizes.

The youngster who asks the first question answered each day receives a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia and of the second question a Hammond Atlas or Globe.

Andy sends a complete, 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia to Kathy Davis, age 10, of Buford, Georgia, for her question:

What is Selenium?

Selenium is one of the earth's basic elements. It is one of nature's rare chemicals, which is lucky for all of us. Traces of selenium in the soil of certain areas has been known to poison whole herds of cattle. It has, however, special uses in electrical equipment and even in medicine.

In the last century, selenium was identified as a criminal chemical and little was done to add anything more to this information. Its atoms make less than 1-100,000th part of the earth's crust, though certain areas have more than their fair share. Cattle in the Dakotas and Montana, Nebraska and Colorado, Kansas and New Mexico, were going down with a miserable sickness called "alkali disease" or "blind staggers". Scitntists traced the trouble to the presence in the soil of small traces of selenium.

The chemical was absorbed by grasses. Cattle feeding on this and other vegetation of the region became painfully, sometimes fatally, poisoned. The eyes became teary and blind, the joints were weakened, causing the animals to stagger. The poison also damaged the liver, kidneys and other internal organs. Cases of similar poisoning were discovered in people who had eaten contaminated food such as milk, eggs and vegetables produced in regions where unusual amounts of selenium were present in the soil.

Later, selenium was more thoroughly investigated as a basic chemical element. And the poisonous criminal turned out to have some other very surprising qualities. It is classed with sulphur and oxygen in a family of non-metal elements. Yet selenium exists as both a metal and a non-metal. It may be in the form of dark grey, metallic rods or dark red powdery crystals. In the field of electricity, selenium behaves like a metal, though rather an odd one.

Used in Cameras

Metals such as copper are called good conductors because they freely conduct electric current. Glass, which blocks electric current, is a poor conductor. All conductors vary in quality with heat to some degree. But the conducting qualities of selenium vary with a mere beam of light. This information gave new meaning to the strange element—and a series of useful duties. Nowadays, selenium is used to trigger electricity on and off in sensitive instruments. It is used in light meters and TV cameras, solar batteries and photoelectric cells. The mechanical doorman known as the electric eye could not work without it.

Selenium is also used to harden rubber products and add a deep red tint to glass. And, of all things, the old criminal found a job in the medicine business. Mild solutions of a selenium and sulphur compound are used to treat severe cases of dandruff. However, it is still a poisonous chemical. When used as a medicated shampoo, the dosage must be decided by a doctor and the patient must be warned never to taste it.

Selenium poisoning among cattle is now understood and better controlled. However, as more selenium is used in industry, a new hazard may arise. Waste materials from factories may carry it into surrounding soils and water supples. From here it could start a new career, this time as a people poisoner. Boards of Health are aware of this hazard and keep a sharp eye on the sewage and waste material from plants that use selenium to manufacture electrical equipment, rubber or glass.

Andy sends a World Book Atlas to Craig Reilly, age 12, of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, for his question:

What exactly is wheat germ?

A grain of wheat, of course, is the seed of a new plant. It is a tough little kernel encased in a tough little coat. Inside the husk is a tightly packed nut of carbohydrates, proteins and a small percentage of fat. This concentrated pantry is intended as food for the sleeping seed. But it cannot start, or germinate the future wheat plant. This must be done by a small pocket of embryo cells at one end of the grain of wheat. We call it the wheat germ.

The nutty grain is ground up to make flour and various kinds of wheat bran and meal. But as a rule, the embryo wheat germ is removed in the process. And the small embryo is especially rich in vitamins. For this reason wheat germ is often added to breakfast cereals.

It gives extra doses of vitamin E and the vitamins niacin and riboflavin. Dry wheat germ comes in small, deep brownish flakes. Oil crushed from wheat germ is very rich in vitamin E. An acid extracted from these small wheat embryos is used to bring out the natural flavor in vegetabes and savory meat dishes.

It's Only Few Hours To Another Land

CAPT. YOUNG
. . . personal greeting

By MORGAN MacGREGOR

GOLD RIVER—A new tourist trip, full of unexpected pleasures, is the recently-inaugurated bus run from Campbell River to Gold River and on to Nootka Sound aboard the Uchuck III.

It's a short trip — out of Campbell River at 9:30 a.m., home again by 9 p.m.

The two-hour V.I. Coach Lines run along the Upper Campbell Lake is predictable but interesting. There are picture postcard views, logged-off hillsides, huge scars from forest fires, the occasional deer, Western Mines ore trucks roaring by in clouds of dust.

Finally, on the outer crest of the Elk Valley, is the manicured, mushroom town of Gold River.

There's a half-hour stop at the sophisticated Gold River Inn for lunch. Good food but hardly enough time to eat it. As this was a shake-down tour, the problem will probably be remedied on future trips.

After reboarding the bus, the passengers settle down for an eight-mile leg to the harbor. About a mile out of town, the bus stops at a construction camp.

As the bus swings around the town-site and out into the highway, passengers have an opportunity to look at the controversial town of Gold River.

Two years ago it was a forest. Now there are several hundred immaculate homes, paved streets, underground wiring and gold lamp posts.

The infant town has been the victim of intense sociological probing at its tender navel. The signs are that it will survive and grow into a most interesting adult.

After an eight-mile drive along the Canyon Road, one side of which drops breathtakingly away to the Heber River far below, the bus arrives at the deep-sea dock, beside the Tahsis pulp mill.

★

The Uchuck III was waiting and a cheerful skipper, Capt. Esson Young, appeared at the wheel-house door to greet his passengers.

The 30-mile trip down the narrow Muchalat Arm was uneventful but historically fascinating, because Captain Cook first sailed up this fiord 200 years ago.

For almost the entire length of the Arm, the thickly-forested mountains plunge straight down into the sea.

Suddenly the sturdy old ship, a converted American minesweeper, reached choppy water and ahead lay the Pacific Ocean. On a long finger of land, curving around the mouth of the channel, is the Indian village of Yuquot at Friendly Cove.

The natives aren't accustomed to seeing many visitors, except for visiting fishermen as the government wharf wasn't completed until last year.

Before that, the Uchuck used to come in with tours but wasn' able to dock and offered its passengers only a distant glimpse of the village.

It was the first time ashore for the crew of the Uchuck, as well as the passengers, and a freshly-painted sign at the approach to the village said Welcome.

The captain introduced himself to Councillor Augustus Dick. The chief councillor, Patrick Murphy, the only man in the village to own a fishing boat, was away on the fishing grounds.

The Nootka women weave beautiful baskets and Maquinna hats from various grasses and these can be purchased at reasonable prices.

Although the village is shabby and the inhabitants have dwindled from more than 1,000 in Cook's time to less than 60, it's beauty lies in it's magnificent isolation.

★

The harbor is beautiful and a short climb over a grassy meadow behind the village reveals the Pacific Ocean and superb beaches that stretch for miles on either side.

There are only three totem poles left standing in the village, and three very fine carvings that appear to be guarding the approach to the graveyard on the ocean side of the village.

Councillor Dick said there used to be 23 fishing boats at the Cove. All but the one now used by the chief were smashed on the rocks inside the harbor.

He said that the winter storms are so fierce that, even in protected anchorage, the boats are wrenched from their moorings.

The men have now drifted away with their families seeking better education for their children in more populated areas and those who have stayed earn their living by logging.

On the return trip, the ship took a circular route around Nootka Island, which lies near the mouth of Muchalat Arm, and two hours laterwe were back at Gold River dock and boarding the bus for town.

It's a unique trip, sharply contrasting two ways of life, and the tourist who finds himself on this route will be rewarded with a totally relaxing and intensely interesting tour.

Dobson Going To National Mayors' Meet

DUNCAN—Mayor Jack Dobson will attend next week's convention of the Canadian Confederation of Mayors and Municipalities at Montreal.

He said Tuesday his chief purpose in going is to inquire into the nationwide trend toward the merging of adjacent municipalites, and extension of municipal boundaries.

Duncan is currently involved in controversy over both.

City council has announced its intention to hold an October vote on a propsoal to extend its boundaries south to include a considerable amount of unorganized land.

OPPOSITION

Already opposition is being organized against this move which would annex territory along the Trans-Canada Highway four miles south to Bench Road, part of Cowichan Bay and the whole of Eagle Heights subdivision.

And Mayor Dobson has cautiously welcomed a policy resolution by North Cowichan council that it favors total amalgamation of Duncan and the municipality.

A number of south end residents of North Cowichan earlier this year petitoned to join the city.

This followed their protest against the $465,000 cost of a sewer bylaw.

These critics claim the area can be serviced more cheaply by linking to the Duncan sewerage system.

INDIAN SWEATER

Mayor Dobson will carry with him a Cowichan Indian sweater and toque to be presented to Mayor Jean Drapeau of Montreal.

It will be a gift on behalf of the Association of Vancouver Island Municipalities and will likely be presented by Mayor Les Hammer of Port Alberni, association president.

Mayor Dobson said the gift is acknowledgment of Mayor Drapeau's role in bringing Expo 67 to fruition.

He said: "Expo is doing more than any other single thing to make us all proud to be Canadians."

Convent Refused Tax Concession

NANAIMO—School board here won't get any tax concessions from city council on St. Ann's Convent even though the building is being used for school purposes.

The board feels that while the convent is housing classes in the period while Wellington Junior High School is being completed it should be tax exempt like other school buildings.

But council ruled that the convent is in the city's assessment area and it has no authority to waive taxes.

Hamilton Speaks At Parksville

Alvin Hamilton, MP, a candidate for the leadership of the Conservative party, will visit British Columbia this weekend.

He will be here primarily as guest speaker at the "Prairie Peoples' Picnic" to be held at Parksville on Sunday. He will deliver one of his major campaign speeches.

Organizers predict a crowd of 7,000 for the event.

Cable Crew To Race The Tide

Working at a speed of slightly more than 230 feet per minute, the B.C. Telephone Company tonight will attempt to lay 9,400 feet of submarine cable between Campbell River and Quadra Island.

The workers have only 40 minutes to complete the job.

Currents in Discovery Passage, between Campbell River and Quadra Island, run at six to 12 knots. However, between high and low tide there is a slack period of 40 minutes which the company will use to lay the cable.

The job, originally scheduled for Tuesday, was postponed because the wind was too strong. Company officials are depending on a light wind or none at all to proceed tonight.

The 50-pair submarine cable doubles trunking facilities between Campbell River and Quadra Island. Quadra Island trunking is now served by radio facilities.

The cable will be loaded on board a cable barge, assisted by three tugs.

The project, costing $48,000, will greatly improve service to the island, an official said.

Associated with the cable laying is the installation of automatic switching equipment in the Campbell River and Quadra Island central offices at a cost of $22,000.

The new facilities will be ready for service in the middle of August.

MORE THAN EXPECTED ON LAKE COWICHAN

Deadhead Total Surprises Firm

LAKE COWICHAN—A Crown Zellerbach official admitted Tuesday his company had not realized the number of deadhead logs in Cowichan Lake.

Workmen ran out of flags when the company recently instigated a program to mark all deadheads.

Chief scaler supervisor Mel Lehman said: "We have made another order for 300 flags and the flagging will be completed in the near future."

Crown Zellerbach is the only one of four major companies involved which is responding to public demand for clearing the lake.

Mr. Lehman said the company is in the process of removing 690,000 board feet of logs from the lake.

About 270,000 board feet have already been taken away by truck and rail.

Bulldozers have been brought in to clear a stretch of beach and fill dumped in the lake to assist in bringing the logs inshore.

Those logs only good for pulp are being hauled to the CZ pulp mill at Duncan Bay near Campbell River.

The rest are being sold to Doman Industries of Duncan.

WITHIN MONTH

Mr. Lehman said CZ hopes to have all their logs removed from the lake within a month.

The CZ flagging program is marking all the deadheads in the lake including those owned by Western Forest Industries Ltd., B.C. Forest Products Ltd., and Pacific Logging Ltd.

Many of the deadheads have been in the water 20 years and Mr. Lehman said it will be difficult to establish ownership.

First complaints about the deadheads were voiced by a citizens' committee headed by resort owner Peter Edwards.

They say the deadheads make the lake hazardous for recreational boating and fishing.

Recreation Minister Kenneth Kiernan has given the committee an assurance of having a "reconnaisance" meeting with the companies.

PRISONER WALKS OUT OF CAMP

A man who escaped from Lakeview minimum security forestry camp at Campbell River early Tuesday was still at large today.

He is not considered dangerous, say RCMP officials.

Lawrence Roberts, 30, apparently walked out of the camp shortly before breakfast Tuesday, prison officials said. He was last seen at 7:45 a.m.

Campbell River RCMP set up roadblocks.

Roberts was wearing prison garb and a black and white wool jacket.

He was serving an 18-month sentence for robbery and possession of an offensive weapon.

Roberts is 6'2", weighs 215 pounds and has dark brown hair.

During the day Campbell River RCMP received numerous reports from residents in the area who said they had seen him.

The escape was the first in three years from the security camp located 20 miles north of Campbell River.

Hikers Return Minus One Hat

Eighteen members of the Metchosin Adventurers and Exploration Club have returned from an 11-day trip into the wild Nitinat country on the west coast of the island.

Led by Christopher Pike, a veteran camper, the group drove to Caycuse and then to Nitinat Lake, travelling to the head of the lake in the B.C. Forest Products boat Nitinat Queen.

A base camp was set up in Brown's Bay and from there the hikers trooped along old trails to Clo-oose.

A visit to a blowhole, a sea-fed phenomenon which shoots water 100 feet high, resulted in one of the group losing a hat.

The boys were David Titus, Wolfgang, Joceli and Nicol Carolsfeld, Wayne Robinson, Murray Greig, Glen Crockett, Duffey King, Christopher Coward, Garth Dickman, Peter Smith and Steven and Rian Titus.

DAY CARE FACTS

Newberry Doesn't know Says Expert

By ELIZABETH FORBES

Flash attack by Saanich councillor Alan Newberry on day and family care centres for children of working mothers, has those close to the project more or less baffled.

To their knowledge the councillor has not attempted to study the subject in depth. And, to them, his statements have all the earmarks of "talking off the top of his head."

Especially in the bit where he infers that it is mainly work to obtain a family income needed for middle-class standards" who are being helped through this service.

Forbes

Mrs. Jane Gurr, child care counsellor with Family and Children's Service suggests that if Mr. Newberry would "come in and study the facts he might be surprised at the small incomes day care users manage on."

★ ★ ★

In most cases the average is around $150 a month. Going rate for baby sitters at present is $60 to $70 a month. The women concerned cannot pay this out of their small incomes.

"That is where our day and family care program fills the greatest need," Mrs. Gurr points out.

She also finds it hard to reconcile with known facts Councillor Newberry's idea that parents are government-regimented into placing their children in prescribed day care centres or homes.

"All parents are asked to visit the home or centre in which it is suggested their children be placed," she says. "If they are not satisfied they are at liberty to say so. Then we try and find another place for them."

★ ★ ★

Main idea in the new service is to stop abuses and to protect children.

"Working mothers are in the labor force to stay Mrs. Gurr believes. "It is up to us to find a way to assist them to fulfil their duties both at home and in the labor field."

Until this new program commenced a few months ago, parents here had very little help in placing their children in any sort of care.

Some did manage to find "the right spot" on their own but many were forced to leave their young in environments that were far below accepted standards.

As the service expands, the new government sponsored day care project will eliminate this type of exploitation and abuse.

★ ★ ★

First centre in this area was opened in Centennial United Church Hall a short time ago. Another is now being planned for a further district of need.

At present there are also 22 homes in Greater Victoria caring for children on the day-to-day basis.

These homes are licenced (but not in the bureaucratic way Councillor Newberry suggests) and they are run on a well-organized, well-supervised day care plan.

What is even more important, Mrs. Gurr believes, is the fact that the people chosen for this work (after careful screening) look on caring for youngsters as a rewarding experience. "Their first motive is love of children."

★ ★ ★

"The new program is not a money-making proposition in any sense of the word," she points out. "Supervising mothers are dedicated persons. They put much more into the project than they ever get out."

Through various organizations and service groups, the public has been asking for this type of government sponsored day care program for some time.

Over-all total of women on payrolls in British Columbia was given at last reading as 188,000. One in every 20 is married and with children under 16 years of age. Ten per cent of all married women workers are widowed, deserted or divorced.

★ ★ ★

By now these figures will have increased all across the board. And with increased numbers comes increased needs and problems especially for working mothers.

It has been said over and over again that well-controlled, well-supervised day care for children is a big way of giving help.

Now that such a program is started and is rapidly proving its worth — not only here but in other parts of the province — let's get behind it, Councillor Newberry, and stop "havering" over irrelevant facts.

FORCED STERILIZATION PLANNED IN INDIA

NEW DELHI (CP)—Almost unanimous support has been received for a piece of radical legislation by the Indian government aimed at sterilization of all men who have three children or more.

Health ministry officials said Tuesday the chief ministers of only two states have withheld full support on the proposal for compulsory sterilization as part of the government's family planning program.

However, the public will be given an opportunity to express their views on the matter before it goes to Parliament.

Meanwhile, Family Planning Minister Sripati Chandrasekhar has offered for government approval an incentive scheme to present a transistor radio to every Indian undergoing voluntary sterilization, it was announced.

Every known birth-control method is being tried in addition to sterilization, all on a voluntary basis. They include pills and the intra-uterine contraceptive known as the loop.

Mavor Moore, Jules Leger Tipped for Top CBC Jobs

By VICTOR MACKIE
Times Ottawa Bureau

OTTAWA — Mavor Moore, well-known television producer, writer and broadcaster in Toronto, has been tabbed as the man to fill the all-important job of chief operating officer of the Canadain Broadcasting Corporation.

Jules Leger the Canadian Ambassador to France, is believed to be the man who will take the post of chairman of the board, succeeding Alphonse Ouimet. Mr. Leger's name has been mentioned already, but the government has declined to confirm or deny the appointment will be made.

It is understood here that announcement of Mr. Leger's appointment has been postponed until after the visit to Canada of General Charles de Gaulle.

Meantime, Mr. Moore is mentioned here in circles close to the government as the man now expected to get the difficult post of operating head of the government-owned broadcasting corporation. Mr. Moore is a member of the program development committee of the Centennial Commission. He is also associated with the Confederation Centre Theatre in Charlottetown.

QUEEN MOTHER RELAXES ABOARD YACHT

SHEDIAC, N.B. (CP) — Queen Mother Elizabeth is spending a restful day at sea today cruising towards St. John's, Nfld., aboard the royal yacht Britannia.

She will arrive there Thursday for the final three days of her 13-day centennial tour of the Atlantic provinces.

The Queen Mother is scheduled to leave St. John's on an RCAF Yukon aircraft Saturday for a direct flight home to London.

STAGE IS SET but curtain of haze hid much of the opening act of the three-navy show which began in Royal Roads this morning. Twenty-five ships of Canadian, Japanese and U.S. navies, Coast Guard and auxiliary vessels formed up for review by Lieut.-Gov. George Pearkes. Canadian destroyers are nearest camera. Tonight at same anchorage, the ships will be illuminated, RCAF Centennaires will provide aerobatic display at 8:30 p.m. and at 10:15 a fireworks display will begin.

ROARING MOTORS brought skyward glances this morning as Neptune and Tracker aircraft of Canada's Pacific Forces eased into formation for fleet review at Royal Roads. Mid-Air Crash Kills 78

HENDERSONVILLE, N.C. (UPI)—A jet airliner with 78 persons aboard collided with a small plane today and plunged to earth in flames, showering bodies "like confetti" to the ground.

There were no survivors among the 73 pasengers and five crewmen aboard Piedmont Airlines Flight 22, a Boeing 727 jet from Atlanta to Washington with stops at Hendersonville and Roanoke, Va.

The small plane, a twin-engine Cessna, apparently disintegrated in flight. It was not known how many were aboard it.

SCREAMED TO EARTH

The big jet screamed to earth in flames, narrowly missing a busy highway interchange and two boys' camps. A mangled body hurtled into a filling station and another plunged to earth a few yards from a cabin at the Blue Ridge Boys' School.

Officials at the school and at Pinewood Camp, for boys and girls, said the plane hurtled overhead before crashing.

U.S.. Secretary of the Navy John T. McNaughton was listed as a passenger aboard the plane, the Pentagon said.

With the new secretary, appointed June 10, were his wife, Sally, and their son, Theodore, 11. They were returning from a trip to Weaversville, N.C., where they had picked up Theodore at a summer camp.

FORMER EDITOR

McNaughton, 45, a former educator, attorney, newspaper columnist and editor, had been assistant secretary of defence for international security affairs since July 1, 1964.

On June 10, President Johnson nominated him to succeed Paul Nitze, as secretary of the navy.

The jetliner had just taken off from the airport, according to Flaughm Land, a witness, when "the big jet and a small twin-engined aircraft approached each other.

"The small plane ripped into the fuselage of the jet and back of the left wing," he said. "The small twin-engine plane exploded.

"The jet started to nose downward and I could see bodies falling out of the fuselage

FOREIGN MINISTER KILLED

TANANARIVE, Malagasy Republic (Reuters) — An estimated 55 persons, including Malagasy Foreign Minister Albert Sylla, were killed when an Air Madagascar plane crashed near here today, informed sources said.

The plane, a DC-4, crashed as it took off from the Tananarive Airport, about nine miles from this capital, on a local flight to the north of the country.

It was carrying 77 persons, including a crew of four.

It crashed about 300 yards from the end of a new runway opened June 25.

Bodies were strewn over the ground in the swampy area where the plane came down. All four crew members were among the dead.

Sylla was on his way to make a tour of the district he represents in the Malagasy perliament. Malagasy was formerly the French colony of Madagascar.

Mist Clouds Sailpast

By TERRY IZZARD

The color was washed out of today's Centennial Naval assembly by the weatherman.

Grey skies and a chilly mist welcomed Lieutenant-Governor Pearkes as he inspected the 25 warships anchored off Royal Roads.

When the lieutenant governor boarded the research vessel Endeavor at 9:30 the skies cleared temporarily to bathe the Inner Harbor in a watery light.

But an hour later as the Endeavor began to pass through the row of grey ships the weather had fogged in for the morning.

Although the ships were within a two-square mile area, it was impossible for most of the time to see further than the nearest line of vessels.

★ ★ ★

A number of spectators who had lined the shore for the event were unable to see further than the ship nearest to them.

Nevertheless the ships managed to add color to the scene as guns of three navies flashed out a 15 gun salute.

First report to boom across the water came from the Esquimalt-based destroyer escort Mackenzie, followed by the USS King and Japanese defence ship Teruzuki.

The lieutenant governor, resplendent in topper and tails, acknowledged the three cheers from each flag-bedecked ship with a wave of his hand.

★ ★ ★

One of the best shows was put on by the smallest vessel in the assembly, the sailing ship Oriole, with cadets sitting atop her masts to wave their caps to the inspecting vessel.

Aboard the Endeavor was an impressive list of guests which included eight admirals — all but two retired.

Also present was federal Labor Minister John Nicholson, representing the federal government.

The guests lunched aboard the Endeavor following the inspection.

In addition to the show of force on the water there was a flyover of Neptune and tracker aircraft.

Due to the lowlying mist the planes disappeared from view entirely as they headed over Race Rocks for a second run.

Biggest worry now is that

MOSCOW MEETING

Arabs Fail In War Bid

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Premier Houari Boumedienne of Algeria and President Abdel Rahman Aref of Iraq, the latest Arab pilgrims to Moscow, have apparently failed to win Soviet backing for new military action soon against Israel.

A communique issued in Moscow after Boumedienne and Aref flew back to Cairo Tuesday said they exchanged opinions with Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev and Premier Alexei Kosygin on how to bring about an Israeli withdrawal from Arab land seized in the June war. But the absence of any claim of agreement strongly suggested the Arabs and Soviets disagreed on how to do it.

The most militant Arab voices were represented by Boumedienne, who has not accepted the UN ceasefire and who has been urging Palestinian Arabs to wage guerrilla warfare against Israel, Aref is considered a moderate.

In Cairo Boumedienne and Aref met Egyptian President Nasser and Sudanese Premier Mohammed Ahmed Mahgoub into the early hours today to discuss the Moscow talks.

The Russians sent a letter Tuesday to the UN Security Council president charging Israel with creating a situation in the Suez Canal area "that could develop into a wider military conflict."

ABANDONING DEMAND?

The letter, which followed an Israeli claim that it has the right to patrol the canal by boat, was considered an indication that the Soviets were abandoning their attempt to get a resolution demanding Israeli withdrawal through the emergency session of the UN General Assemby.

The assembly, which was called by Russia, has frustrated Russian hopes for a condemnation of Israel as the aggressor in the June war. The assembly reconvenes Thursday after a three-day recess. (See page 3.)

START SEARCH FOR WEAPONS

PLAINFIELD, N.J. (UPI)—National gaurdsmen with fixed bayonets rumbled in jeeps into the Negro area of Plainfield today in a house-to-house search for weapons. Negro leaders had said such a search could bring on new racial violence. (See Page 2.)

WASHINGTON (AP) — State Secretary Dean Rusk said today the United States regrets Britain's decision to cut its defence commitments in the Far East by the mid-1970s, but warned the Communists not to "take any comfort" from the British announcement.

Rusk told a press conference that the countries in that part of the world are determined to defend their freedom and they have the help of various nations including the United States, and he added:

"We'll get on with the job."

Rusk also said:

1. The United States still hopes to get an agreed limitation—with Russia and others—on the arms buildup in the Middle East, but "I cannot say that I am encouraged about the prospects."

2. The United States is prepared to try to find points of agreement with the Soviet Union whether they be on small issues such as cultural exchanges or world crisis such as Vietnam and the Midlde East. But, he said, the United States has no illusions of easy accords nor does it misjudge "the depth and importance of the matters which separate us."

3. The United States and the South Vietnamese government are making progress in their fight against Communist conquest of South Vietnam, and Rusk said the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong guerrilla forces are being hurt "very badly." But he made clear that he does not see any way out of the conflict in the predictable future, saying "no one" has been able to tell the U.S. government what North Vietnam would do if the United States stopped bombing the North.

4. The problem of providing guarantees to China's neighbors against nuclear attack now that China has exploded a hydrogen bomb will "no doubt" come up in the continuing disarmament conference at Geneva and perhaps in the United Nations Security Council. Rusk would not spell out the U.S. policy on guarantees.

RUSSIAN President Nikolai Podgorny has cancelled his trip to Expo '67 scheduled next month. He is reported to be vacationing after several tiring trips to Middle East. First Vice-Premier Dmitri Polyansky will come to Canada instead.

Verdict Due On Tshombe

ALGIERS (Reuters) — The Algerian Supreme Court today completed its hearing on whether former Congolese Premier Moise Tshombe should be sent back teo The Congo, where he faces a death sentence for treason.

Government - controlled Algiers radio announced that a decision on the case was expected later today.

Hees Making Big Pitch To Woo Tory Delegates

By KEN CLARK

OTTAWA (CP)—George Hees has made a sharp strategy switch to capture votes in his final campaign push towards the Sept. 6-9 Conservatvie leadership convention in Toronto.

The 57 - year - old leadership candidate has bolstered his organization with a strong corps of professionals to help make a direct pitch to convention delegates.

His earlier strategy was to develop a more broadly-based popular support with the hope this would influence delegates. The campaign arrangements were made by amateurs.

The former cabinet minister told a capital news conference his new approach will cost a "helluva lot" of money, but it has to be done. Under the new approach Mr. Hees will make direct appeals for support at meetings of likely delegates and alternates in a final eight-week pre-convention drive.

He termed the new look an "entirely different" campaign a more intensive effort reminiscent of a party leader before a general election.

HAS NEW STAFF

His campaign manager, Robert Macaulay, a former Ontario cabinet minister out of politics for four years, said the candidate has more than 140 persons in a national organization for the latest drive.

There are 47 on the headquarters staff in Toronto. Of these 25 are fulltime people, not necessarily paid. All told, 12 in the national organization are paid.

The 46-year-old Macaulay said the campaign staff will grow even more.

Both men refused to be drawn into any discussion of the other six candidates in the race or about present leader John Diefenbaker, who has not yet committed himself.

The Cape Breton Post said Tuesday night that Premier Robert Stanfield of Nova Scotia will also enter the PC national leadership race. Mr. Stanfield

ENTRIES STARTING TO COME IN

'It's a Snap' to Enter Contest

Those shutters are beginning to click already.

The Times Amateur Snapshot contest is only four days old but entries in all three categories are coming in steadily.

Top prize in the six-week competition is a trip around the world plus $1,000 spending money.

Locally, The Times is offering $10 each week for the best black and white pictures in the three categories, People of the World, The World in Which We Live, and Birds and Animals of the World.

At the end of the contest best overall picture in each category will win a $25 prize plus entry in the national competitions.

Besides the world trip four other travel prizes are being offered: trips to Europe, Mexico, Hawaii and the West Indies, all for two and all with spending money in the bargain.

There are special prizes for Canadians this year.

Seven $100 prizes are offered for pictures which did not win any major prizes and there is a $200 prize for the best Canadian picture in the show.

Judges are Times photographer Bill Halkett and drama critic Audrey Johnson.

All pictures submitted should be black and white, no larger than 10 inches on the longer dimension.

Pictures may be processed professionally or by the person taking the snapshot. Pictures taken since July 1 last year are eligible.

All entries must be in the hands of the Times Photo Contest Editor before noon on the Saturday to be eligible for that week's contest.

A complete set of rules will be published from time to time in this newspaper.

Lost City of Atlantis Buried by Volcanic Ash?

BOSTON (AP) — The Greek philosopher Plato started the legend of Atlantis with tales of a huge and glittering island continent which sank violently into the Atlantic 3,500 years ago.

Two Massachusetts scientists said Tuesday they may have discovered Atlantis—not submerged in the Atlantic but buried under tons of volcanic ash on a tiny island in the Aegean Sea near Greece.

The report was made by Dr. James W. Mavor Jr. of the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institute and Emily Vermeule, a research fellow at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

Their nomination for the seat of the Atlantis civilization is the island of Thira, 60 miles north of the island of Crete and southeast of Greece.

In his writings, Plato told of a race of conquerors from Atlantis which almost overran the Mediterranean and finally was defeated by Athens.

Then, in a single day and night, their island home sank into the sea.

For 30 years, scientists have believed that most of Plato's tale was fanciful but that an advanced civilization which gave him his theme did exist and did suffer a sudden and violent end, probably by being buried by a volcanic eruption.

Scientists have speculated, however, that Atlantis was not in the Atlantic but was part of the Minoan civilization which flourished about 1,500 B.C. and had its capital at the palace city of Knossos on Crete.

Following a hunch that the Minoan civilization could have jumped the 60 miles to Thira, Dr. Mavor and Mrs. Vermeule, working with a Greek-American expedition, began digging on the island this year.

They said they found, buried under 30 to 50 feet of volcanic ash, the remains of a city of about 30,000 persons. They said most of the buildings, some two or three storeys high, are still intact.

Dr. Mavor and Mrs. Vermeule said they believe Thira may have been Plato's Atlantis because of the evidence that a very advanced civilization existed there and because it apparently came to a sudden, violent end.

Mrs. Vermeule said the expedition found no human remains and concluded that the inhabitants had a warning about the coming eruption "and got in their boats and left."

She said remains of animals were found.

The Greek-American expedition plans to continue its work over a 10-year period at a cost of about $1,000,000.

What we need is a three-day rain, and not merely for the sake of brown-patched suburban lawns. There are no sprinklers in the woods, which have gone dry for so many parching weeks that even the green timber has lost its cool.

When a weather situation of that sort develops, the results are predictable. Out where the woods take over, the forest fires begin to pop.

Fire is Vancouver Island's ancient enemy. At least once, many centuries before the white man arrived, our woods went up in a conflagration of vast proportions that ran and spread and renewed itself for months. Lightning was the probable agent; and even today, on a coast relatively free from lightning strikes, electrical storms still torch off the rare blaze.

But man with his matches, his tobacco and his industrial gear is fire's most potent ally. If proof is required, look to Skirt Mountain where the fire that indirectly claimed two lives smoulders within the confining bulldozer breaks in spite of this week's showers.

★

Before our Forest Service could summon up such potent winged aids as the Mars amphibians with their mighty dollops of water, firefighting was a job for the ground crews entirely.

Like the infantry, these are the men who carry the war to its conclusion; and a tough and dirty fight it invariably is.

Often as not, the fellow who toils on the firelines has only the vaguest idea of how the over-all battle goes.

He grubs at his sector of firebreak in a fog of acrid smoke, sweat mixing with the charcoal that smears his face. A bulldozer rumbles somewhere below, and off to the side, a power saw topples another snag.

It's a rugged job, and if the fire is a big one, moving fast with embers blowing out before it to set new spot-fires, it can become all of a sudden dangerous.

Let the wind increase, and a fire of that sort can boil over the breaks in minutes or even seconds. Then it's a matter of grabbing tools and getting out—and from a new stand, starting in all over again.

In the depression days, plenty of fires were started by workless men, just for the chance of a hellish job that paid two-bits an hour.

We don't get many of that sort now, and the fire from industrial causes has declined in the years since truck logging replaced the railway shows.

A carelessly-rigged line that rubs against a stump or snag can still cause fire trouble. But one potent hazard departed the woods with the logging locomotives.

★

One such machine became the object of learned and interminable argument in a civil action launched after a particularly destructive up-Island fire. The plaintiff insisted that a spark from the locie's great diamond-shaped stack had thrown the spark—the owner firm defended the iron horse no less vigorously.

They couldn't fetch the locomotive into court entire, but there on the exhibit table sat the monstrous black smokepot, menacing the court reporter who sat nervously jotting shorthand in its shadow.

This while counsel tussled, and logger witnesses came and went.

The snowy-haired head of the plaintiff firm's legal battery came at last to his peroration.

"And now," he declard, "let us review the scene. Here comes this spark-throwing locomotive, snorting along the grade . . ."

The judge upon the bench stemmed the flow with lifted hand.

"At this point," he said mildly, "I suggest we could all use a little snort."

And to the relief of all—especially the court reporter—he ordered a recess forthwith.

Couchiching Trip Awarded Uvic Student

A scholarship to the annual Couchiching Conference on Public Affairs has been awarded to a fourth-year English student at the University of Victoria.

Gary Perkings, employed by the department of buildings and grounds at the university, will attend the conference at Geneva Park, Ontario, July 29 to Aug. 4.

Mr. Perkins has been active in university affairs. In the past year, he has been chairman of the Canadian University Service Overseas committee and a member of the national executive of CUSO.

TRAVELLED

He has travelled widely in Europe, the Middle East, and South America, and has studied at a university in Guadalajara, Mexico.

Mr. Perkins intends to continue his studies at the University of Geneva in Switzerland next year.

The Couchiching Conference is a public affairs conference held annually under the joint sponsorship of the CBC and the Canadian Institute on Public Affairs.

The theme of the conference will be "Image or the Issue."

The role of public relations, advertising and the communications media in the presentation of political issues and in the making of politicians will be discussed.

Minor Injuries In 2-Car Crash

Two people were treated at Royal Jubilee Hospital and discharged following a car accident at Kings Road and Cedar Hill Road this morning.

Mary Diemer, 1300 Queensbury, received cuts to the head, and Heidi Schmid, 1450 Wende, suffered cuts to the knee and bruises when their car collided with that driven by Brian MacDonald, 3994 Birchwood at about 8 a.m.

Strike Vote Due For Tendermen, Shoreworkers

Three thousand fishing industry shoreworkers and 750 tendermen will vote shortly on whether to strike to back wage demands.

The vote includes 50 to 60 shoreworkers at the B.C. Packers plant at Ogden Point, in Victoria.

Shoreworkers will ballot July 28 while tendermen—who work on packers bringing fish from the grounds to the plants—will start voting Friday and continue to July 28 in Vancouver and Steveston.

The government - supervised vote was called after shoreworkers and tendermen, members of the United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union, rejected a conciliation officer's recommendations.

For shoreworkers, he recommended 15 cents an hour for women and 17 cents for men over two years with an extra five cents for tradesmen. The union seeks up to 75 cents an hour more on rates ranging from $2.21 to $3.03 an hour.

Tendermen turned down an eight per cent recommendation and seek 20 per cent on rates ranging from $396 to $532 a month.

A union spokesman said the fishing companies offered 28 to 30 cents an hour more for tradesmen over two years, 18 cents for male general labor and 16 cents for female.

Ringers Are Swingers

By DERYK THOMPSON

Happiness is a little bell that jingles.

At least that's what it is in Victoria where hippies and university students have taken to wearing small "happy bells" as the latest fad.

Worn on a shoelace or colored piece of string around the neck the wearer is guaranteed instant happiness and joy. The louder they jingle, the happier you are.

Like granny glasses they are a must for the hippy set.

They cost only 25 cents but it is important that you don't buy one for yourself. Part of the mystique is that someone must buy the bell for you to inspire properly the happy feeling.

"It's an effort to improve communication," one wearer explained. "If you like a person and want them to feel happy, give them a bell. It's the jingling they can make that gives the happiness."

The fad started about a month ago with the "swinging set" at the University of Victoria. It caught on instantly and spread to the hippies who love to pad around barefoot jingling and tinkling.

The small bells are imported from India.

A local antique shop dealer does a booming business in the bells and says he has sold close to 1,000 during the last month.

"We have to keep ordering more," he said. "They sell like wildfire."

Action Group To Become More Active

A meeting of the Saanich Action Committee will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Prospect Lake Community Hall.

Chairman Roy Ralfs, 5024 Echo, said representatives of district ratepayers associations have been invited to the meeting with the idea of "making this a useful committee" and the meeting will also discuss the Hartland Road garbage dump.

He said the new group "intends to associate itself with the whole of the municipality" and not be concerned only with problems of one area. Any Saanich resident or taxpayer may join the committee.

On the garbage dump, a private operation just outside Saanich, Mr. Ralfs said this means of disposal is not satisfactory.

Man Fined $25 For Assaulting Night Watchman

Wayne Wallace, 21, of Vancouver, today was fined $25 in central court when convicted of assaulting a night watchman at the Empress Hotel.

Wallace pleaded not guilty to assaulting Dan Polson, 20, early this morning.

Polson told the court the accused, who had been drinking, asked him to get a cab. When he failed, Wallace asked him if he wanted to fight, threatened him with his fists and hit him on the cheek with the palm of his hand, said the complainant.

The accused denied striking Polson.

He said he would have used a closed fist because "the guy who hits first always wins."

Magistrate Ostler said the person who hits first can also lose by ending up in court.

TALKS START MONDAY IN HOSPITAL DISPUTE

Mediation talks aimed at breaking the deadlock between major hospitals and their stationary engineers will start Monday.

Ed Callan, international representative for the International Union of Operating Engineers, said conciliator Jack Sherlock will bring the parties together at the labor department office in Vancouver.

The engineers are in a legal position to strike St. Joseph's and Royal Jubilee Hospitals, as well as four hospitals in the Vancouver area. Chief issue is wage parity for third-class engineers.

Harbor's Raw Sewage Called 'Disgraceful'

Odorous Welcome To Garden City

By JIM HUME

That isn't ozone tourists whiff as they ferry into the Inner Harbor.

It is raw sewage flowing turgidly but steadily past Fishermen's Wharf.

At low tide this morning the stench was almost unbearable.

The once-clean beach was deep with black slime.

Senior medical health officer for Greater Victoria, Dr. J. L. M. Whitbread, had only the tersest of comment on the situation: "Disgraceful. Absolutely disgraceful. But the sewage disposal system throughout the area is disgraceful."

Cab driver Roger Montague viewed the outflow, tasted the gaseous air and expressed disbelief.

"How can they let this happen?" he asked. "They spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to get tourists here and then greet them with this.

"If I wasn't here to see it and to smell it, I wouldn't believe it.

"That stuff is flowing right into the Inner Harbor. Human beings can be pretty disgusting at times."

City engineer James Garnett said there was little to be done about the odor until the main trunk sewer line is built from Government and Wharf and across the city to Clover Point. (See Page 6.)

SEPTIC TANKS

"The area at present is served by two community septic tanks," he said. "We can't do much about the smell but there certainly should not be raw sewage coming from the outlet. A crew will be down within the hour to see if anything has gone wrong."

During a brief visit to the area this morning raw sewage was visible on the surface of the water.

"It could come from the shipping," said Mr. Garnett. "It is impossible for us to control the use of marine toilets."

Once the main trunk line is built a pumping station will be erected in the James Bay area to take the sewage from the Fishermen's wharf area and feed it into the main line for disposal via an extended outfall at Clover Point.

'WE'RE STUCK'

"Until then I'm afraid we're stuck with the septic tanks," said Mr. Garnett. "We have had them for many years and we just have to be patient a little while longer."

Dr. Whitbread was in no mood for patience.

"Something must be done and soon," he said. "Conditions are intolerable."

"He's right," said Mr. Montague. "When you look down there and smell that filth, Victoria doesn't look much like the garden city we are always boasting about."

MORE TONIGHT

Rain Reduces Fire Hazard But Not Much

Six hundredths of an inch of water, hardly enough to make your newspaper soggy when it lands on the step—that was our rainfall.

But spread over the forests it helps reduce the hazards a bit.

The weatherman expects a few more showers tonight before the current disturbance moves on. Then it will be fun weather again for vacationers for the weekend—and worry weather for the forestry fire patrols.

SIX-WEEK DROUGHT

We've had no extensive rain for six weeks according to the Gonzales weather station. There was 1-100 July 8, 8-100 June 26, 32-100 on June 22, 12-100 June 21 and 12-100 on the 20th.

Believe it or not the overnight rainfall hampered fire fighting operations in Goldstream area.

There are still 160 men, 15 bulldozers and six tankers up in the hills there mopping up the fire that began Sunday on Skirt Mountain.

TOO WET

Today they had planned to burn off some scrub areas to widen fire guards. But because of the overnight moisture they couldn't burn today.

Instead they are using the time widening four to six miles of guard trails encircling the fire area.

Forestry officials say they expect the mopping up operation will continue for about five days.

Meantime, holidayers are reminded that all campfire permits are still under suspension, although they are allowed in fireplaces in provincial campsites.

Loan Okayed On New Home For Retarded

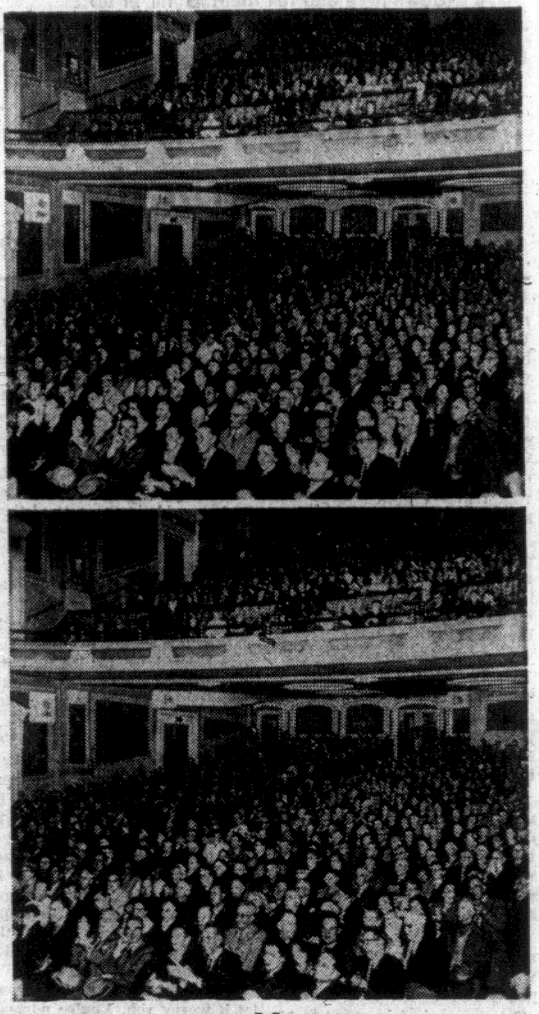
Nanaimo has been selected as the site for a pilot project to provide accommodation for retarded children.

John R. Nicholson, the cabinet minister responsible to Parliament for the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, said here this afternoon that the federal government had approved a loan of $43,188 to the Nanaimo Association for Retarded Children.

"It is unique in that it is the first loan of this kind to be made in Canada," Mr. Nicholson said.

The money, repayable over 25 years at 6¼ per cent interest, will be used to build an eight-bedroom hostel-type house for retarded children.

The loan was made under a section of the National Housing Act which provides for long-term loans to non-profit corporations to house low-income individuals or families.



Two Full Houses Awaiting Curtain

If you filled every seat in Royal Theatre twice over—that's how many people are waiting admission to Victoria's two major hospitals.

But the 2,657 people waiting for the curtain to go up on some new ward space aren't resting in red plush comfort.

At least 247 of the patients are in the urgent category. This is one step down from emergency—a status that gets you in immediately.

●

Urgent cases, who could be experiencing "discomfort" can expect to wait from a few days to a few weeks.

The balance of the crowd are "elective" cases and many of them clim discomfort too.

The earliest they can hope for admittance—March 31 next year at Royal Jubilee and Dec. 10 this year at St. Joseph's.

Meanwhile, Greater Victoria municipalities and the province are conducting a $50,000 survey on the bed need.

Municipal leaders believe that when the survey is complete, when the talks are completed on cost-sharing, when the money bylaws are passed, when the plans are drawn and when the construction of more hospital facilities is complete—several years will have passed.

$500 Worth of Books Won By Uvic Student for Essay

A third-year French honors student at the University of Victoria has won one of two prizes offered in an Expo competition.

Leonard Schmidt of Osoyoos won the awared in a contest for the best essay written in French by an English-speaking student.

The competition called for an essay on the contribution made by a French man of letters to "Man's World."

Mr. Schmidt chose Antoine de Sanit-Exupery whose novel, "Terre des Hommes," provided Expo with its theme.

The essay was judged by a committee in Paris, and Mr. Schmidt was awarded $500 worth of books by Hachette-Larousse, the international publishing company.

Mr. Schmidt is studying at the McGill Summer School.

Impaired Driver Jailed One Month

Mamilien Pinneau, 522 Hecate, Nanaimo, today was sentenced to one month in jail and his licence suspended for 18 months when he pleaded guilty in central court to impaired driving.

He admitted two previous offences, one in 1954 and one in 1963. Both occurred in Nanaimo.

Pinneau was found asleep in his car which was parked four or five feet from the curb.

Ask The Times

Q. What creatures are shown on the Canadian Centennial coins? R.C.H.

A. Canada goose, wolf, cougar, mackerel, rabbit and dove.

Q. Where are the Chinatowns in Port Angeles and Seattle? P.L.

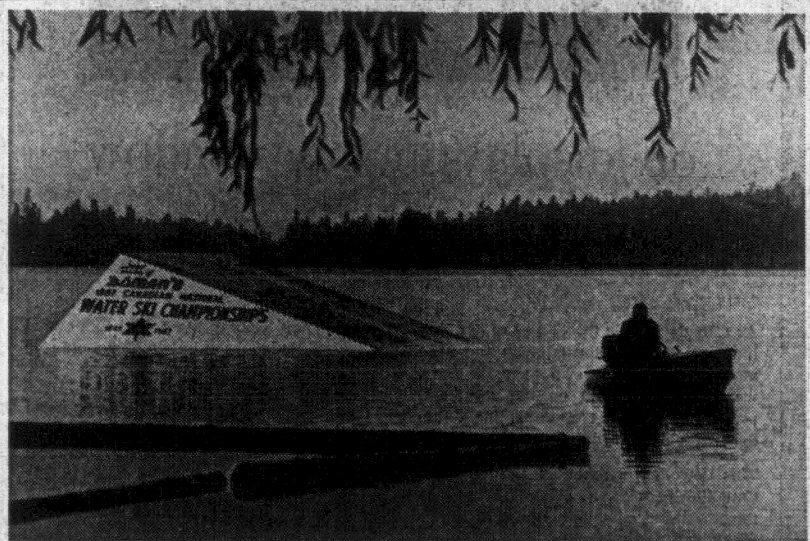
A. Seattle's Chinatown lies west from Union Station and its centre is about on Maynard between 7th and 8th Ave. There is no Chinatown in Port Angeles.

Q. Was Aldridge Street named after anyone in particular? V.B.

A. Probably the poet, says a city historian. All the streets in that area are named after poets, Shakespeare, Freshette, Service. There appears to be no local connection.

Anyone wishing a question answered is invited to send the question along to the Times, addressed to "Ask the Times" Editor. Questions and answers will be published daily.

All questions should deal with matters of fact and be of general interest. The Times does not undertake to solve conundrums or legal problems. Nor will it attempt to put a value on old coins, stamps or antiques. These should be submitted to a dealer.



They're Off and Jumping Tonight

Looks peaceful, doesn't it?

But it will be jumping tonight.

Water ski jumping, that is.

In fact, this spot at Elk Lake will be the scene of the most spectacular display of water acrobatics ever seen in this area.

Jumping, skiing barefoot, kite flying—even a bevy of beauties on water skis—will form part of a two-hour program staged by the Canadian Water Ski Committee.

The performance will take place just off the swimming area at Hamsterley Park at the north end of Elk Lake. Most of the evening will be taken up with displays of skill and some of the events promise a fair amount of thrills.

But a chorus line on skis will provide beauty as well as talent for the show. And there will even be clowns for children's entertainment.

MARKET SUMMARIES

Atlas Continues Strong

Reflecting anticipated announcement of a major gas find on Lake Erie, Atlas Explorations Ltd. rose to $2.82 from its Tuesday close of $2.79 in trading today on the Vancouver stock market.

During Tuesday's trading the stock advanced as high as $2.95.

Just before 1 p.m., Atlas president Dr. A. E. Aho announced the discovery at Atlas Lake Erie No. 1, drilled to 1,018 feet and recording an open flow of 1.07 million cubic feet per day.

The announcement said this is one of the largest ever completed in the Lake Erie offshore area, which supplies one-third of Ontario's natural gas.

The well has a 58-foot pay zone and is located about eight miles offshore in the company's 40,000 Pelee Island property.

A second well and pipeline are also planned.

Jersey was the leading trader in the mines and dropped .02 to .37 on 71,000 shares.

Mineral Mountain gained .03 to a new high of .40 but Coronet was off .08 to 1.17 and Lornex lost .10 to 5.90.

In the oils, Plains fell .01 to .69 on 90,700 shares and Bata was .02 weaker at .64.

AT TORONTO light trading and slightly higher prices characterized today's session.

Canada Permanent Mortgage, which wholly owns Canada Permanent Trust, advanced ¾ to 11⅛ and Eastern and Chartered Trust dropped 2¼ to 36 following Tuesday's announcement that Canada Permanent Trust and Eastern and Chartered Trust have agreed to merge.

Jefferson Lake, a Calgary-based sulphur producer gained 1⅛ to 41⅞. U.S. sulphur prices have risen about 25 per cent this year and average about $33.50 a ton. Foreign market prices are about $15 higher.

In other industrial activity, Canadian Imperial Bank rose 1½ to 67 and Algoma Steel ⅝ to 24⅜. Versatile Manufacturing slid 1¼ to 40.

Oil issues declined with Dome off 1⅜ to 63⅝ and Scurry-Rainbow and Canadian Superior ½ each to 46⅛ and 46½.

Uraniums moved ahead with Denison up 1⅛ to 72⅛ and Rio Algom ½ to 35½.

AT NEW YORK the market rally gathered renewed strength. Trading was heavy.

Xerox plunged more than 14 points as second-quarter earnings were higher but disappointment was expressed that they were less than those in the first quarter.

Du Pont bolstered the averages with a 3-point gain.

AT MONTREAL banks and senior mines scored impressive advances as the market continued to widen its gains in brisk trading today.

International Nickel climbed 1½ points to 107½ and Hudson Bay Mining one point to 64¼. Falconbridge Nickel, which has recently opened its wholly-owned Westfrob mine, won ¾ to 90¾ and Rio Algom ⅜ to 35⅛.

Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce was up ¾ at 66¼ and Provincial ½ at 45½. IAC, a finance company, added ½ at 23 and Montreal ⅜ at 13.

Among the senior oils, the two Home issues made headway, with the B stock one point higher at 24½ and the A ½ at 23¼.

AT LONDON the cautious attitude which has followed the revival of British economic and currency doubts was stimulated afresh today by the current weakness of sterling and the stock market presented an uninspiring picture.

Dollar stocks were usually better with Wall Street, although improvements were small. International Nickel was off the top, while other gains in Canadian equities were restricted to about one point. Noranda gave ground. Canadian banks hardly stirred. Home banks improved.

Pressure on sterling produced buying of gold shares and gains were extended after the London gold price rose to a six-year peak. Australian mines were often better and coppers also improved.

Who's Hughes, Anyway?

Colony Realty Has the Answer

Rex W. Hughes is a man you should know. Born in Nanaimo, and a 10-year resident of Victoria, his experience includes running a logging outfit and a bulldozing operation, as well as commercial deep-sea fishing. He is now putting his exceptional knowledge of Vancouver Island to work in the Real Estate business, giving special attention to acreage and out-of-town sales. In town or outside, investing or home-buying, Rex Hughes of Colony Realty can help you. Phone him now at 386-3231.

Are you good enough to join the Colony team? Salesmen — and women — looking for "something better" should phone Norm White at 386-3231.

Atlas Explorations Shares Jump

Following today's announcement of a major gas find in Lake Erie Atlas Explorations, Ltd., shares jumped in this afternoon's trading on the Vancouver stock market.

During the action the stock hit as high as $3.15. See story Page 11.

Missing Pair Found Dead at Pass

PRINCETON (CP)—The bodies of two men missing since their aircraft disappeared last Friday were found today near the east gate of Allison Pass.

Pilot Lyle Raymond Saunders, 52, and spotter Gary Daniels, 21, both of Merritt, were engaged in the search for Haney lumberman Dennis Foucher when their Piper Cherokee disappeared.

Foucher, missing for 10 days, was found dead in the wreckage of his light plane Monday.

Toronto Developer Pleads Guilty

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto developer Reuben Dennis, 60, and six of his companies pleaded guilty today to a total of 42 counts of income tax fraud.

Crown prosecutor Patrick Duffy said the amount of tax involved was $40,000 on income of $115,000.

Dennis, a millionaire and considered to be one of Canada's leading apartment developers, was remanded for sentence to August 2.

Drought Hits Grain Crop

OTTAWA (CP)—Much of the Prairie grain crop is deteriorating because of drought, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today.

The federal agency said the bad areas cover most of Saskatchewan, the southwestern corner of Manitoba and the east-central, northeast and Peace River regions of Alberta. Good rains are needed now to keep the crops going.

Sunday Liquor Sales Get Nod

OLYMPIA (AP)—The Washington State Liquor Control Board voted today to permit limited sale of alcoholic beverages on Sunday, beginning August 20.

The board adopted without change its proposal to permit sales between midnight and 2 a.m. and between 2 p.m. and 10 p.m. on the first day of the week.

The old regulation prohibited any sale of alcoholic beverages between midnight Saturday and 6 a.m. Monday.

BURNT RUBBLE of Piedmont Airlines jetliner is searched by firemen and rescue workers after crash today near Hendersonville, N.C. The Boeing 727 crashed after colliding with small plane shortly after takeoff. There were no survivors. (AP Wirephoto.)

Jet, Small Plane Crash in U.S.

HENDERSONVILLE, N.C. (UPI) — Eighty-one persons, including United States Secretary of the Navy John T. McNaughton, were killed today when a jetliner collided with a smaller craft and spiraled to earth, raining bodies into homes, gas stations and summer camps.

The ill-fated jetliner was Piedmont Airlines Flight 22, a Boeing 727, bound from Atlanta to Washington with 73 passengers and a crew of five.

Three other persons died aboard the smaller craft, a twin engine Cessna, owned by Lanseair Inc., of Springfield, Mo., a company dealing in aviation insurance.

SCREAMED TO EARTH

The big jet screamed to earth in flames, narrowly missing a busy highway interchange and two boys' camps. A mangled body hurtled into a filling station and another plunged to earth a few yards from a cabin at the Blue Ridge Boys' School.

Officials at the school and at Pinewood Camp, for boys and girls, said the plane hurtled overhead before crashing.

With the new navy secretary, appointed June 10, were his wife, Sally, and their son, Theodore, 11. They were returning from a trip to Weaversville, N.C., where they had picked up Theodore at a summer camp.

FORMER EDITOR

McNaughton, 45, a former educator, attorney, newspaper columnist and editor, had been assistant secretary of defence for international security affairs since July 1, 1964.

On June 10, President Johnson nominated him to succeed Paul Nitze, as secretary of the navy.

The jetliner had just taken off from the airport, according to Flaughn Land, a witness, when "the big jet and a small twin-engined aircraft approached each other.

"The small plane ripped into the fuselage of the jet and back of the left wing," he said. "The small twin-engine plane exploded.

"The jet started to nose downward and I could see bodies falling out of the fuselage

PASSENGER aboard plane which crashed in North Carolina today was John T. McNaughton, U.S. Secretary of the Navy. He was with his wife and their son, Theodore, 11, whom they had picked up at a summer camp. McNaughton, 45, had been an educator, lawyer and newspaper editor.

FOREIGN MINISTER KILLED

TANANARIVE, Malagasy Republic (Reuters) — An estimated 55 persons, including Malagasy Foreign Minister Albert Sylla, were killed when an Air Madagascar plane crashed near here today, informed sources said.

The plane, a DC-4, crashed as it took off from the Tananarive Airport, about nine miles from this capital, on a local flight to the north of the country.

It was carrying 77 persons, including a crew of four.

It crashed about 300 yards from the end of a new runway opened June 25.

Bodies were strewn over the ground in the swampy area where the plane came down. All four crew members were among the dead.

Sylla was on his way to make a tour of the district he represents in the Malagasy parliament. Malagasy was formerly the French colony of Madagascar.

Mist Clouds Sailpast

By TERRY IZZARD

The color was washed out of today's Centennial Naval assembly by the weatherman.

Grey skies and a chilly mist welcomed Lieutenant-Governor Pearkes as he inspected the 25 warships anchored off Royal Roads. (See picture Page 38.)

When the lieutenant governor boarded the research vessel Endeavor at 9:30 the skies cleared temporarily to bathe the Inner Harbor in a watery light.

But an hour later as the Endeavor began to pass through the row of grey ships the weather had fogged in for the morning.

Although the ships were within a two-square mile area, it was impossible for most of the time to see further than the nearest line of vessels.

★ ★ ★

A number of spectators who had lined the shore for the event were unable to see further than the ship nearest to them.

Nevertheless the ships managed to add color to the scene as guns of three navies flashed out a 15 gun salute.

First report to boom across the water came from the Esquimalt-based destroyer escort Mackenzie, followed by the USS King and Japanese defence ship Teruzuki.

The lieutenant governor, resplendent in topper and tails, acknowledged the three cheers from each flag-bedecked ship with a wave of his hand.

Hees Making Big Pitch To Woo Tory Delegates

By KEN CLARK

OTTAWA (CP)—George Hees has made a sharp strategy switch to capture votes in his final campaign push towards the Sept. 6-9 Conservatvie leadership convention in Toronto.

The 57 - year - old leadership candidate has bolstered his organization with a strong corps of professionals to help make a direct pitch to convention delegates.

His earlier strategy was to develop a more broadly-based popular support with the hope this would influence delegates. The campaign arrangements were made by amateurs.

The former cabinet minister told a capital news conference his new approach will cost a "helluva lot" of money, but it has to be done. Under the new approach Mr. Hees will make direct appeals for support at meetings of likely delegates and alternates in a final eight-week pre-convention drive.

He termed the new look an "entirely different" campaign, a more intensive effort reminiscent of a party leader before a general election.

HAS NEW STAFF

His campaign manager, Robert Macaulay, a former Ontario cabinet minister out of politics for four years, said the candidate has more than 140 persons in a national organization for the latest drive.

There are 47 on the headquarters staff in Toronto. Of these 25 are fulltime people, not necessarily paid. All told, 12 in the national organization are paid.

The 46-year-old Macaulay said the campaign staff will grow even more.

Both men refused to be drawn into any discussion of the other six candidates in the race or about present leader John Diefenbaker, who has not yet committed himself.

The Cape Breton Post said Tuesday night that Premier Robert Stanfield of Nova Scotia will also enter the PC national leadership race. Mr. Stanfield

MOSCOW MEETING

Arabs Fail In War Bid

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Premier Houari Boumedienne of Algeria and President Abdel Rahman Aref of Iraq, the latest Arab pilgrims to Moscow, have apparently failed to win Soviet backing for new military action soon against Israel.

A communique issued in Moscow after Boumedienne and Aref flew back to Cairo Tuesday said they exchanged opinions with Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev and Premier Alexei Kosygin on how to bring about an Israeli withdrawal from Arab land seized in the June war. But the absence of any claim of agreement strongly suggested the Arabs and Soviets disagreed on how to do it.

The most militant Arab voices were represented by Boumedienne, who has not accepted the UN ceasefire and who has been urging Palestinian Arabs to wage guerrilla warfare against Israel. Aref is considered a moderate.

In Cairo Boumedienne and Aref met Egyptian President Nasser and Sudanese Premier Mohammed Ahmed Mahgoub into the early hours today to discuss the Moscow talks.

The Russians sent a letter Tuesday to the UN Security Council president charging Israel with creating a situation in the Suez Canal area "that could develop into a wider military conflict."

ABANDONING DEMAND?

The letter, which followed an Israeli claim that it has the right to patrol the canal by boat, was considered an indication that the Soviets were abandoning their attempt to get a resolution demanding Israeli withdrawal through the emergency session of the UN General Assembly.

The assembly, which was called by Russia, has frustrated Russian hopes for a condemnation of Israel as the aggressor in the June war. The assembly reconvenes Thursday after a three-day recess. (See page 3.)

WASHINGTON (AP) — State Secretary Dean Rusk said today the United States regrets Britain's decision to cut its defence commitments in the Far East by the mid-1970s, but warned the Communists not to "take any comfort" from the British announcement.

Rusk told a press conference that the countries in that part of the world are determined to defend their freedom and they have the help of various nations including the United States, and he added:

"We'll get on with the job."

Rusk also said:

1. The United States still hopes to get an agreed limitation—with Russia and others—on the arms buildup in the Middle East, but "I cannot say that I am encouraged about the prospects."

2. The United States is prepared to try to find points of agreement with the Soviet Union whether they be on small issues such as cultural exchanges or world crisis such as Vietnam and the Midlde East. But, he said, the United States has no illusions of easy accords nor does it misjudge "the depth and importance of the matters which separate us."

3. The United States and the South Vietnamese government are making progress in their fight against Communist conquest of South Vietnam, and Rusk said the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong guerrilla forces are being hurt "very badly." But he made clear that he does not see any way out of the conflict in the predictable future, saying "no one" has been able to tell the U.S. government what North Vietnam would do if the United States stopped bombing the North.

4. The problem of providing guarantees to China's neighbors against nuclear attack now that China has exploded a hydrogen bomb will "no doubt" come up in the continuing disarmament conference at Geneva and perhaps in the United Nations Security Council. Rusk would not spell out the U.S. policy on guarantees.

TIMES PHOTO CONTEST

'It's a Snap' to Enter

Those shutters are beginning to click already.

The Times Amateur Snapshot contest is only four days old but entries in all three categories are coming in steadily.

Top prize in the six-week competition is a trip around the world plus $1,000 spending money.

Locally, The Times is offering $10 each week for the best black and white pictures in the three categories, People of the World, The World in Which We Live, and Birds and Animals of the World.

At the end of the contest best overall picture in each category will win a $25 prize plus entry in the national competitions.

Besides the world trip four other travel prizes are being offered: trips to Europe, Mexico, Hawaii and the West Indies, all for two and all with spending money in the bargain.

There are special prizes for Canadians this year.

Seven $100 prizes are offered for pictures which did not win any major prizes and there is a $200 prize for the best Canadian picture in the show.

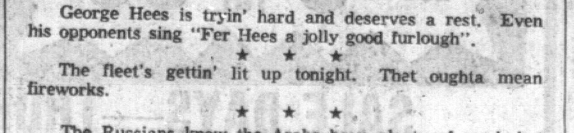
Judges are Times photographer Bill Halkett and drama critic Audrey Johnson.

All pictures submitted should be black and white, and no larger than 10 inches on the longer dimension.

Pictures may be processed professionally or by the person taking the snapshot. Pictures taken since July 1 last year are eligible.

All entries must be in the hands of the Times Photo Contest Editor before noon on the Saturday to be eligible for that week's contest.

A complete set of rules will be published from time to time in this newspaper.



George Hees is tryin' hard and deserves a rest. Even his opponents sing "Fer Hees a jolly good furlough".

Air Show Time Changed

Cloudy skies have forced a half-hour advance in the start of tonight's aerobatic display by the Golden Centennaires.

The show over Royal Roads will start at 8 instead of 8:30, a naval spokesman said at press time.

There is a chance the display may be called off because of murky skies.

A decision will be made by 6 tonight, the spokesman said.

ROUND-A-BOUT

By DOUGLAS HILLSIDE

"We would like to enquire about shipping a quantity of granite from England," we told the Furness-Withy man.

"How much granite?" said the very British voice in the Vancouver bastion of the shipping empire.

"One hundred and thirty thousand tons," we said.

"I see," he said. There was a muffled background conversation and he added, "We could handle it. How soon would you like it?"

His scratchpad calculations involved a rate of £17 6d for the first four tons and 10s a ton for each additional. We worked it out to $195,345.18 on our scratchpad. Then we asked about a better deal.

He said a price could be negotiated through the shipping conference. But perhaps we'd like to charter a ship.

At that point we learned that we might not need to bring all of the 130,000-ton London Bridge to Victoria, but only 10,000 tons for facing material.

The Furness-Withy man said he'd send a message to their New York office and call us back.

We hung up to await his call. Then we turned to a desk mate to borrow a dime for a cuppa coffee.

Some drunks reach a moment of truth when they hate themselves and then take out their frustrations on the nearest window. But this fellow only added to his feeling of futility.

Standing before a downtown store, he hefted a case of beer in his right hand, took aim and went into a swift backswing. But the bottom of the carton was wet. Twelve bottles of beer shot into the gutter with a crash. And the soggy carton plopped harmlessly against the window. Then he was plopped into the paddy wagon. Some days nothing goes right.

There's an agent in town advertising an "authentic" Tudor residence. If authentic means the real McCoy, it must have been built 176 years or so before Fort Victoria, which would make it a real buy. Of course, he could mean a Tudor residence with one door at front and one door at rear.

You get 5,000 ship-weary seamen rolling ashore and you can expect some shenanigans as a rule. (We make this statement from our own experiences in foreign ports.)

But we've been pleasantly surprised during the current visit of American and Japanese ships and the in-port status of our own ships.

Police blotters are almost spotless in this regard. And Admiral J. A. Charles reports no troubles have reached his ear. He says all three navies are greatly impressed by the reception given the visitors by the people of Victoria.

We heard from some civilian tourists from the south that because there isn't full support in this area for the United States involvement in Vietnam, leave for American sailors had been curtailed in Victoria.

This is another false impression the navy reports. Our own observations are that there are as many U.S. sailors about as there are Japanese and Canadian. We are content that our expectations and the suspicions of our U.S. tourist friends were both wrong.

like confetti." Another witness said a ball of fire burst from the jetliner when the small plane hit it.

A large chunk of the plane fell into a field near the Blue Ridge school. Richard Forstot, 15, said there were bodies lying beside it.

Mike Moll, 17, another student at the school, said he heard a "boom" and looked out his window and saw a plane overhead, "swinging crazily."

"I saw the back end with jets on it slump to the right and then there was another explosion and it started down nose first at a steep angle. When it hit the ground there was a big ball of fire. Then there was a lot of smoke."

IN WOODED AREA

Most of the plane crashed into a wooded area. More than an hour later, flames were leaping 1,000 feet into the air from the wreckage.

The fuselage crashed only about 60 yards from the interchange of Interstate 26 and U.S. 64. Thousands of motorists halted their cars and flocked to the scene, forcing workers to throw up rope barricades.

Pinesett Howard, a taxi driver, said he was sitting at a red light in downtown Hendersonville, three miles away, when "I noticed this little plane and it appeared to be heading right into the side of a jet, which was taking off."

"The planes smashed together in what looked like a big red ball. The jet nosed over and started spiraling around and around as it fell to earth.

"It came down at an angle and went down behind some buildings and trees beyond my sight. The little plane just went straight down. I couldn't see the little plane hit either, but when the big plane smashed into the ground a big plume of black smoke shot into the sky," Howard said.

Airport officials reported a Cessna 310, inbound to the airport, was missing. It said Piedmont Flight 22, which departed Atlanta at 10:40 a.m. EDT, took off from Hendersonville-Asheville airport at 11:59 a.m. The collision occurred moments later.

Most of the plane crashed near a trash dump in this mountainous western North Carolina resort area.

Grady Walker, a telephone company employee, said the planes collided over his house. "A huge ball of fire flew from the big jet and both planes came down immediately," he said. The smaller one "disappeared in clouds of billowing smoke."

SECOND COLLISION

It was the second collision in five months involving a light plane and a commercial airliner, and the fourth airline crash since March.

On March 5, a Lake Central airliner went down near Kenton, Ohio, killing 37 persons. On March 9, a Trans-World Airlines jet collided with a small plane near Urbana, Ill., killing 25, and on June 23, a Mohawk airliner went down near Blossburg, Pa., killing 3r persons.

Truce Chief Urges Peace Along Canal

TEL AVIV (Reuters) — Lt.-Gen. Odd Bull, the UN Middle East truce chief, has appealed to Israel and Egypt to refrain from any action that might upset the ceasefire in the Suez Canal area, UN spokesman Albert Grand said today.

An urgent appeal from the Norwegian general followed reports of rising tension along the blocked canal over the issue of navigation.

Grand said Bull will meet Israeli Defence Minister Moshe Dayan in Jerusalem today, then fly to Cairo for talks with Egyptian officials. Both meetings had been requested by the UN truce supervisor, he added.

Observers here said the use of small craft in the 100-mile waterway appeared to have sparked the heavy fighting in the canal zone last week. No boats were reported using the canal at present.

Ky Will End Censorship

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnam's military government is ending political censorship Thursday, two weeks before the official start of the presidential campaign.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky said he would sign a decree abolishing the much-criticized censorship tonight. The decree will not affect military censorship imposed for reasons of national security.

Ky made the announcement as he flew north from Saigon on a military inspection with his runningmate for the Sept. 3 presidential election, Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu. Thieu is running for president and Ky for vice-president.

Ten civilian presidential slates were certified Tuesday night by South Vietnam's Provisional Assembly. The assembly also approved the Thieu-Ky ticket.

Lottery Proceeds Far Below Goal

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — State officials kept one eye on Lady Luck and another on the financial books today as they swept toward their first drawing in New York's lottery, with the recorded proceeds already $23,500,000 below the estimated goal.

No one in official quarters had much good to say about the report Tuesday by Tax Commissioner Joseph Murphy that the state in June sold $6,447,605 worth of lottery tickets.

'LAST CHANCE' SHOT STREAKING TO MOON

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Lunar Explorer streaked toward the moon today on a mission viewed as the "last chance" to learn about potential radiation hazards facing moonbound American astronauts.

The windmill-shaped craft, officially named Explorer 35, bolted skyward on a fiery Delta rocket to begin a planned three-day trip toward an egg-shaped orbit about the moon, 225,608 miles away.

There it is to spend two to three years studying radiation dangers and investigating whether a cone-shaped tail that trails earth—caused by this planet's magnetic field—could shield Apollo astronauts from radiation spewed into space by storms on the sun.

Aboard the Endeavor was an impressive list of guests which included eight admirals — all but two retired.

Also present was federal Labor Minister John Nicholson, representing the federal government.

Due to the lowlying mist the planes disappeared from view entirely as they headed over Race Rocks for a second run.

Biggest worry now is that tonight's show will be affected by the weather.

At 8:30 p.m. the Golden Centennaires are to put on a 50-minute aerobatic display over Royal Roads.

The flying aces can stage the show at three altitudes — 1,000, 3,000, and 5,000 feet. But unless things brighten considerably the display could prove an anti-climax to a colorful week.

★ ★ ★

Best vantage points for the air show will be: Mcaulay Point, Ogden Point breakwater, outside dockyard gates, Esquimalt Lagoon, and higher points of Metchosin Road to Albert Head.

At 10 p.m. the ships will be illuminated, followed 15 minutes later by a fireworks display. On Thursday the vessels will start weighing anchor at 9:30 a.m. for a line-astern sailpast along Dallas Road waterfront on their way to Vancouver Sea Festival.

Negroes Begin To Bury Dead

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—Newark Negroes bury the first of their riot dead today while other New Jersey cities fought flickers of racial trouble. Plainfield authorities hunted a cache of stolen arms.

Newark's night was quiet after nearly a week of bloody battles. A few shots Tuesday night punctured the peace which came to Plainfield after a white policeman had been killed by a Negro gang.

In New Brunswick, six miles from Plainfield, 100 Negroes marched to City Hall where Mayor Patricia Sheehan and Negro Councilman Aldrage Cooper Jr. urged calm upon them. In Paterson, north of Newark, a few rocks and bottles were thrown and firemen chased false alarms.

In Jersey City and Elizabeth all was normal in areas where sporadic violence burst Monday.

In Newark, funerals were scheduled for three of the 23 Negroes shot down during sprays of gunfire from Thursday through Sunday. The funeral of a white fire captain slain by a sniper also is being held. A white policeman was buried Tuesday.

Negro playwrite, Leroi Jones, was among 37 persons indicted Tuesday on charges from Newark's riot. He was released on $25,000 bond on charges of carrying two revolvers.

Seventy indictments now have been returned for carrying concealed weapons and looting. Up to 700 cases are to go to the grand jury.

How To Hold
FALSE TEETH
More Firmly in Place

Do your false teeth annoy and embarrass by slipping, dropping, or wobbling when you eat, laugh or talk? Then sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. FASTEETH holds dentures firmer and more comfortably. Makes eating easier. It's alkaline—doesn't sour. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feel. Helps check plate odor. Dentures that fit are essential to health. See your dentist regularly. Get FASTEETH at all drug counters.

New Centre Sections May Lengthen Ferries

A plan to extend nine B.C. ferries with new centre sections is under study.

Premier Bennett said Tuesday it should provide more carrying capacity equal to two or three extra ships.

"At this stage it's only an idea. It will take a lot of study by marine engineers, and marine architects to see if it can be done and how much it will cost," he said.

B.C. Ferry Authority manager Monty Aldous confirmed that preliminary studies are complete and thorough cost and engineering studies are anticipated.

Some sources believe the ferries, which now range from 335 to 342 feet in length, might be increased by about 50 feet. This would boost car carrying capacity to almost 200.

The lengthening might reduce operating speeds and make docking more difficult.

One shipping expert said, "Lengthening ships in this manner is done all the time. But whether it's the best method for increasing ferry capacity remains to be seen . . ."

Premier Bennet also announced that the experimental installation of 'tween-deck car ramps in two ferries has proven successful. The other seven ships on the Island route will be similarly fitted before the end of summer, 1968, he said.

The ramps cost $150,000 each and provide room for 32 additional cars.

Both the ramps and the lengthening plans evolved after ferry construction costs soared in recent years.

Queen of Burnaby, built in 1964, cost nearly $3.9 million. Bids received last fall ranged upward from $5.1 milion.

Ferry traffic in the first part of July was 10 per cent increased over the same period last year.

TODAY'S GRAIN PRICES

WINNIPEG (CP) — Reports of good rains overnight and forecasts of moisture to come in several areas of the prairie grain belt contributed to an easier tone and irregular prices in flax and rapeseed on the Winnipeg grain exchange today.

Flax registered sharp declines but showed rallying tendencies as the session proceeded. Rapeseed eased off but showed firmness in later trade. Sales of oilseeds included some profit-taking.

Oats and barley trade was domestic. Rye showed a relatively steady tone, aided by upturns in Chicago rye and reports of deterioration to the North Dakota rye crop due to dry weather.

Lakehead prices for class two, IWA and domestic wheat all were unchanged.

CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat futures moved ahead about a cent on the board of trade today, marking their third straight advance.

The total advance in three sessions now is about five cents.

The principal reason for wheat's advance was the continued lack of precipitation in the north-central United States and in Canada's wheat belt.

MARKET SUMMARIES

Atlas Continues Strong

Reflecting anticipated announcement of a major gas find on Lake Erie, Atlas Explorations Ltd. rose to $2.82 from its Tuesday close of $2.79 in trading today on the Vancouver stock market.

During Tuesday's trading the stock advanced as high as $2.95.

Just before 1 p.m., Atlas president Dr. A. E. Aho announced the discovery at Atlas Lake Erie No. 1, drilled to 1,018 feet and recording an open flow of 1.07 million cubic feet per day.

The announcement said this is one of the largest ever completed in the Lake Erie offshore area, which supplies one-third of Ontario's natural gas.

The well has a 58-foot pay zone and is located about eight miles offshore in the company's 40,000 Pelee Island property.

A second well and pipeline are also planned.

Jersey was the leading trader in the mines and dropped .02 to .37 on 71.000 shares.

Mineral Mountain gained .03 to a new high of .40 but Coronet was off .08 to 1.17 and Lornex lost .10 to 5.90.

In the oils, Plains fell .01 to .69 on 90,700 shares and Bata was .02 weaker at .64.

AT TORONTO light trading and slightly higher prices characterized today's session.

Canada Permanent Mortgage, which wholly owns Canada Permanent Trust, advanced ¾ to 11⅛ and Eastern and Chartered Trust dropped 2¼ to 36 following Tuesday's announcement that Canada Permanent Trust and Eastern and Chartered Trust have agreed to merge.

Jefferson Lake, a Calgary-based sulphur producer gained 1⅛ to 41⅞. U.S. sulphur prices have risen about 25 per cent this year and average about $33.50 a ton. Foreign market prices are about $15 higher.

In other industrial activity, Canadian Imperial Bank rose 1½ to 67 and Algoma Steel ⅝ to 24⅜. Versatile Manufacturing slid 1¼ to 40.

Oil issues declined with Dome off 1⅜ to 63⅝ and Scurry-Rainbow and Canadian Superior ½ each to 46⅛ and 46½.

Uraniums moved ahead with Denison up 1⅛ to 72⅛ and Rio Algom ½ to 35½.

AT NEW YORK the market rally gathered renewed strength. Trading was heavy.

Xerox plunged more than 14 points as second-quarter earnings were higher but disappointment was expressed that they were less than those in the first quarter.

Du Pont bolstered the averages with a 3-point gain.

AT MONTREAL banks and senior mines scored impressive advances as the market continued to widen its gains in brisk trading today.

International Nickel climbed 1½ points to 107½ and Hudson Bay Mining one point to 64¼. Falconbridge Nickel, which has recently opened its wholly-owned Westfrob mine, won ¾ to 90¾ and Rio Algom ⅜ to 35⅛.

Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce was up ¾ at 66¼ and Provincial ½ at 45½. IAC, a finance company, added ½ at 23 and Montreal ⅜ at 13.

Among the senior oils, the two Home issues made headway, with the B stock one point higher at 24½ and the A ½ at 23¼.

AT LONDON the cautious attitude which has followed the revival of British economic and currency doubts was stimulated afresh today by the current weakness of sterling and the stock market presented an uninspiring picture.

Dollar stocks were usually better with Wall Street, although improvements were small. International Nickel was off the top, while other gains in Canadian equities were restricted to about one point. Noranda gave ground. Canadian banks hardly stirred. Home banks improved.

Pressure on sterling produced buying of gold shares and gains were extended after the London gold price rose to a six-year peak. Australian mines were often better and coppers also improved.

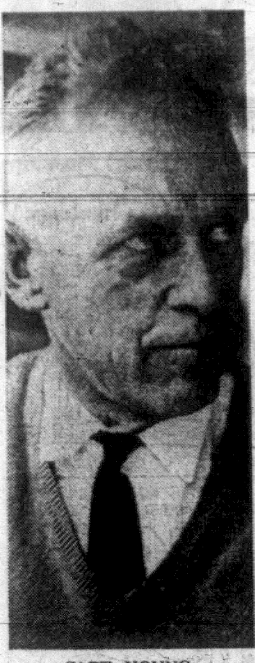
It's Only Few Hours To Another Land

By MORGAN MacGREGOR



CAPT. YOUNG
. . . personal greeting

GOLD RIVER — A new tourist trip, full of unexpected pleasures, is the recently-inaugurated bus run from Campbell River to Gold River and on to Nootka Sound aboard the Uchuck III.

It's a short trip — out of Campbell River at 9:30 a.m., home again by 9 p.m.

The two-hour V.I. Coach Lines run along the Upper Campbell Lake is predictable but interesting. There are picture postcard views, logged-off hillsides, huge scars from forest fires, the occasional deer, Western Mines ore trucks roaring by in clouds of dust.

Finally, on the outer crest of the Elk Valley, is the manicured, mushroom town of Gold River.

There's a half-hour stop at the sophisticated Gold River Inn for lunch. Good food but hardly enough time to eat it. As this was a shake-down tour, the problem will probably be remedied on future trips.

After reboarding the bus, the passengers settle down for an eight-mile leg to the harbor. About a mile out of town, the bus stops at a construction camp.

As the bus swings around the town-site and out into the highway, passengers have an opportunity to look at the controversial town of Gold River.

Two years ago it was a forest. Now there are several hundred immaculate homes, paved streets, underground wiring and gold lamp posts.

The infant town has been the victim of intense sociological probing at its tender navel. The signs are that it will survive and grow into a most interesting adult.

After an eight-mile drive along the Canyon Road, one side of which drops breathtakingly away to the Heber River far below, the bus arrives at the deep-sea dock, beside the Tahsis pulp mill.

★

The Uchuck III was waiting and a cheerful skipper, Capt. Esson Young, appeared at the wheel-house door to greet his passengers.

The 30-mile trip down the narrow Muchalat Arm was uneventful but historically fascinating, because Captain Cook first sailed up this fiord 200 years ago.

For almost the entire length of the Arm, the thickly-forested mountains plunge straight down into the sea.

Suddenly the sturdy old ship, a converted American minesweeper, reached choppy water and ahead lay the Pacific Ocean. On a long finger of land, curving around the mouth of the channel, is the Indian village of Yuquot at Friendly Cove.

The natives aren't accustomed to seeing many visitors, except for visiting fishermen as the government wharf wasn't completed until last year.

Before that, the Uchuck used to come in with tours but wasn' able to dock and offered its passengers only a distant glimpse of the village.

It was the first time ashore for the crew of the Uchuck, as well as the passengers, and a freshly-painted sign at the approach to the village said Welcome.

The captain introduced himself to Councillor Augustus Dick. The chief councillor, Patrick Murphy, the only man in the village to own a fishing boat, was away on the fishing grounds.

The Nootka women weave beautiful baskets and Maquinna hats from various grasses and these can be purchased at reasonable prices.

Although the village is shabby and the inhabitants have dwindled from more than 1,000 in Cook's time to less than 60, it's beauty lies in it's magnificent isolation.

★

The harbor is beautiful and a short climb over a grassy meadow behind the village reveals the Pacific Ocean and superb beaches that stretch for miles on either side.

There are only three totem poles left standing in the village, and three very fine carvings that appear to be guarding the approach to the graveyard on the ocean side of the village.

Councillor Dick said there used to be 23 fishing boats at the Cove. All but the one now used by the chief were smashed on the rocks inside the harbor.

He said that the winter storms are so fierce that, even in protected anchorage, the boats are wrenched from their moorings.

The men have now drifted away with their families seeking better education for their children in more populated areas and those who have stayed earn their living by logging.

On the return trip, the ship took a circular route around Nootka Island, which lies near the mouth of Muchalat Arm, and two hours laterwe were back at Gold River dock and boarding the bus for town.

It's a unique trip, sharply contrasting two ways of life, and the tourist who finds himself on this route will be rewarded with a totally relaxing and intensely interesting tour.

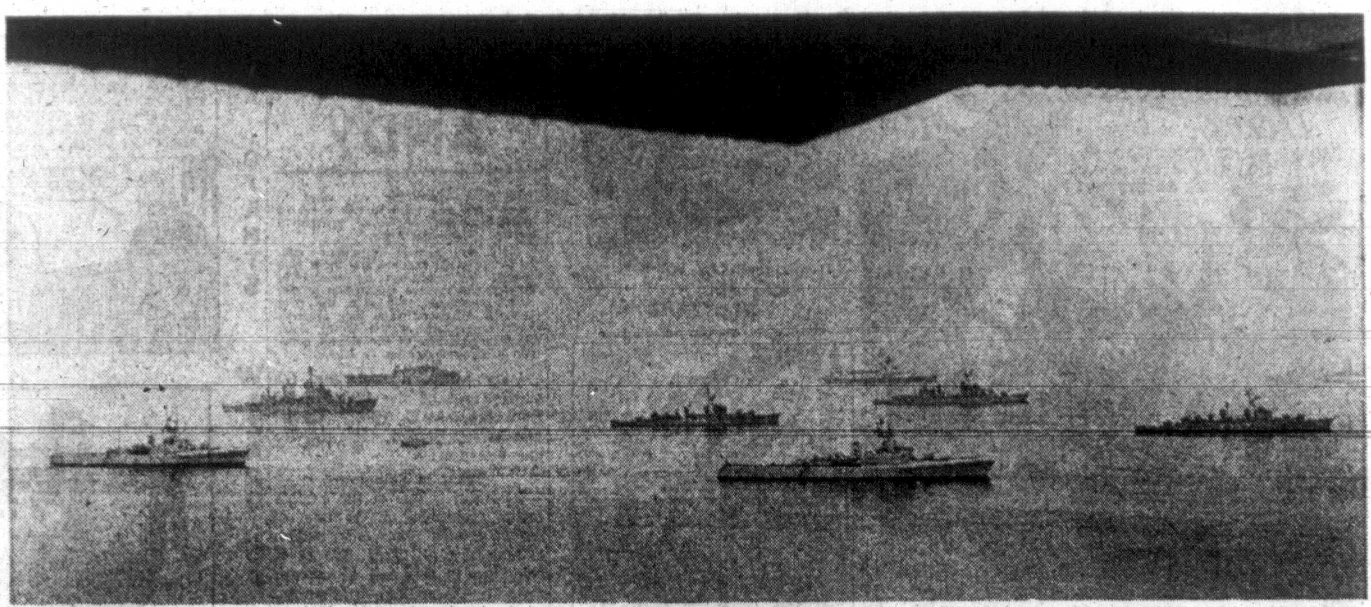
Convent Refused Tax Concession

NANAIMO—School board here won't get any tax concessions from city council on St. Ann's Convent even though the building is being used for school purposes.

The board feels that while the convent is housing classes in the period while Wellington Junior High School is being completed it should be tax exempt like other school buildings.

But council ruled that the convent is in the city's assessment area and it has no authority to waive taxes.



STAGE IS SET but curtain of haze hid much of the opening act of the three-navy show which began in Royal Roads this morning. Twenty-five ships of Canadian, United States and Japanese Navies, Coast Guard and auxiliary vessels formed up for review by Lieut.-Gov. George Pearkes. Canadian destroyers are nearest camera. Tonight at same anchorage, the ships will be illuminated, RCAF Centennaires will provide aerobatic display at 8:30 o'clock and at 10:15 a fireworks display will begin.

MORE THAN EXPECTED ON LAKE COWICHAN

Deadhead Total Surprise

LAKE COWICHAN—A Crown Zellerbach official admitted Tuesday his company had not realized the number of deadhead logs in Cowichan Lake.

Workmen ran out of flags when the company recently instigated a program to mark all deadheads.

Chief scaler supervisor Mel Lehman said: "We have made another order for 300 flags and the flagging will be completed in the near future."

Crown Zellerbach is the only one of four major companies involved which is responding to public demand for clearing the lake.

Mr. Lehman said the company is in the process of removing 690,000 board feet of logs from the lake.

About 270,000 board feet have already been taken away by truck and rail.

Bulldozers have been brought in to clear a stretch of beach and fill dumped in the lake to assist in bringing the logs inshore.

Those logs only good for pulp are being hauled to the CZ pulp mill at Duncan Bay near Campbell River.

The rest are being sold to Doman Industries of Duncan.

WITHIN MONTH

Mr. Lehman said CZ hopes to have all their logs removed from the lake within a month.

The CZ flagging program is marking all the deadheads in the lake including those owned by Western Forest Industries Ltd., B.C. Forest Products Ltd., and Pacific Logging Ltd.

Many of the deadheads have been in the water 20 years and Mr. Lehman said it will be difficult to establish ownership.

First complaints about the deadheads were voiced by a citizens' committee headed by resort owner Peter Edwards.

They say the deadheads make the lake hazardous for recreational boating and fishing.

Recreation Minister Kenneth Kiernan has given the committee an assurance of having a "reconnaisance" meeting with the companies.

Lost City of Atlantis Buried by Volcanic Ash?

BOSTON (AP) — The Greek philosopher Plato started the legend of Atlantis with tales of a huge and glittering island continent which sank violently into the Atlantic 3,500 years ago.

Two Massachusetts scientists said Tuesday they may have discovered Atlantis—not submerged in the Atlantic but buried under tons of volcanic ash on a tiny island in the Aegean Sea near Greece.

The report was made by Dr. James W. Mavor Jr. of the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institute and Emily Vermeule, a research fellow at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

Their nomination for the seat of the Atlantis civilization is the island of Thira, 60 miles north of the island of Crete and southeast of Greece.

In his writings, Plato told of a race of conquerors from Atlantis which almost overran the Mediterranean and finally was defeated by Athens.

Then, in a single day and night, their island home sank into the sea.

For 30 years, scientists have believed that most of Plato's tale was fanciful but that an advanced civilization which gave him his theme did exist and did suffer a sudden and violent end, probably by being buried by a volcanic eruption.

Scientists have speculated, however, that Atlantis was not in the Atlantic but was part of the Minoan civilization which flourished about 1,500 B.C. and had its capital at the palace city of Knossos on Crete.

Following a hunch that the Minoan civilization could have jumped the 60 miles to Thira, Dr. Mavor and Mrs. Vermuele, working with a Greek-American expedition, began digging on the island this year.

They said they found, buried under 30 to 50 feet of volcanic ash, the remains of a city of about 30,000 persons. They said most of the buildings, some two or three storeys high, are still intact.

Dr. Mavor and Mrs. Vermuele said they believe Thira may have been Plato's Atlantis because of the evidence that a very advanced civilization existed there and because it apparently came to a sudden, violent end.

Mrs. Vermeule said the expedition found no human remains and concluded that the inhabitants had a warning about the coming eruption "and got in their boats and left."

She said remains of animals were found.

The Greek-American expedition plans to continue its work over a 10-year period at a cost of about $1,000,000.

Hikers Return Minus One Hat

Eighteen members of the Metchosin Adventurers and Exploration Club have returned from an 11-day trip into the wild Nitinat country on the west coast of the island.

Led by Christopher Pike, a veteran camper, the group drove to Caycuse and then to Nitinat Lake, travelling to the head of the lake in the B.C. Forest Products boat Nitinat Queen.

A base camp was set up in Brown's Bay and from there the hikers trooped along old trails to Clo-oose.

A visit to a blowhole, a sea-fed phenomenon which shoots water 100 feet high, resulted in one of the group losing a hat.

The boys were David Titus, Wolfgang, Joceli and Nicol Carolsfeld, Wayne Robinson, Murray Greig, Glen Crockett, Duffey King, Christopher Coward, Garth Dickman, Peter Smith and Steven and Rian Titus.

Hamilton Speaks At Parksville

Alvin Hamilton, MP, a candidate for the leadership of the Conservative party, will visit British Columbia this weekend.

He will be here primarily as guest speaker at the "Prairie Peoples' Picnic" to be held at Parksville on Sunday. He will deliver one of his major campaign speeches.
